Creating A Home Creating A Home:

Making Home Sharon Astyk, 2012-08-28 A guide to living an austere yet even more fulfilling life during tough economic times explains how to improve family relations save for future generations and save money on heating and cooling refrigeration laundry water cooking cleaning and more Original Establishing Home Jean Stoffer, September Vaudrey, 2022 When Jean Stoffer's husband announced he was quitting his extremely stressful job to look for another career she suddenly needed to bring in a lot more of the family income The problem was while she had a degree in business her part time job paid very little and she had few obvious options for earning more anytime soon In Establishing Home Jean tells how necessity sparked her journey from part time receptionist to founder of an award winning home design company and star of the Magnolia Network's show The Established Home Along the way she shares what she learned about design business parenting and relationships

Creating the Artful Home Karen Zukowski, 2006 Creating the Artful Home the Aesthetic Movement and Its Influence on Home Decor covers the history of a movement that emphasized art for art's sake and the influence it had on home decor The Aesthetic Movement in America lasted just a few decades 1870 1900 and served mainly as a bridge between the high Victorian sensibility and the radical shift to the Arts Crafts style The movement germinated among artists who used opulent color decorative patterning and lavish materials simply for the aesthetic effects they could evoke It was commonly held that a home that expressed an artful harmonious soul would instill high aesthetic and moral merit in its inhabitants The Aesthetic Movement in America helped to popularize the idea that everyone should be able to enjoy beautiful well made homes and furnishings not just the very wealthy Artful homes could be composed from brilliant antique store finds discriminating department store purchases and gems hand made by the ladies of the house It was the moment when people embraced the idea that only a beautiful home could be a happy home Karen Zukowski delves into the movement's establishment evolution and main characters and shows how today's homes can incorporate Aesthetic principles Through suggestion rather than statement sensuality massive use of symbols and synaesthetic effects that is correspondence between words colors and music How influential designers such as Clarence Cook and Charles Eastlake popularized the idea that beautiful homes with tasteful furnishings could be available to practically everyone How today's designers manufacturers and retailers deploy the very same stylistic markers of the Aesthetic Movement rich color layered pattern and texture mixtures of historical motifs

Making Home(s) in Displacement Luce Beeckmans,Alessandra Gola,Ashika Singh,Hilde Heynen,2022-01-17 Making Home s in Displacement critically rethinks the relationship between home and displacement from a spatial material and architectural perspective Recent scholarship in the social sciences has investigated how migrants and refugees create and reproduce home under new conditions thereby unpacking the seemingly contradictory positions of making a home and overcoming its loss Yet making home s in displacement is also a spatial practice one which intrinsically relates to the fabrication of the built environment worldwide Conceptually the book is divided along four spatial sites referred to as camp shelter city and house which are approached with a multitude of perspectives ranging from urban planning and architecture to anthropology geography philosophy gender studies and urban history all with a common focus on space and spatiality By articulating everyday homemaking experiences of migrants and refugees as spatial practices in a variety of geopolitical and historical contexts this edited volume adds a novel perspective to the existing interdisciplinary scholarship at the intersection of home and displacement It equally intends to broaden the canon of architectural histories and theories by including migrants and refugees spatial agencies and place making practices to its annals By highlighting the political in the spatial and vice versa this volume sets out to decentralise and decolonise current definitions of home and displacement striving for a more pluralistic outlook on the idea of home

To be at Home James Williams, Felicitas Hentschke, 2018-09-24 Houses and homes are dynamic spaces within which people work to organize and secure their lives livelihoods and relationships Written by a team of renowned historians and anthropologists and accompanied by original photography by Maurice Weiss To Be at Home House Work and Self in the Modern World compares the ways people in different societies and historical periods strive to make and keep houses and homes under conditions of change upheaval displacement impoverishment and violence These conditions speak to the challenges of life in our modern world The contributors of this volume position the home as a new nodal point between work the self and the world to explore people s creativity agency and labour Houses and homes prove complex and powerful concepts if also often elusive invoking places persons objects emotions values attachments and fantasies This book demonstrates how the relations between houses work and the self have transformed dramatically and unpredictably under conditions of capitalism and modernity and continue to change today
