Creation Regained Biblical Basics For A Reformational Worldview By Albert M Wolters:

Creation Regained Albert M. Wolters, 1985 Creation Regained Albert M. Wolters, 1985 Living in God's Two Kingdoms David VanDrunen, 2010-10-06 Modern movements such as neo Calvinism the New Perspective on Paul and the emerging church have popularized a view of Christianity and culture that calls for the redemption of earthly society and institutions Many Christians have reflexively embraced this view enticed by the socially active and engaged faith it produces Living in God's Two Kingdoms illustrates how a two kingdoms model of Christianity and culture affirms much of what is compelling in these transformationist movements while remaining faithful to the whole counsel of Scripture By focusing on God's response to each kingdom his preservation of the civil society and his redemption of the spiritual kingdom VanDrunen teaches readers how to live faithfully in each sphere Highlighting vital biblical distinctions between honorable and holy tasks VanDrunen's analysis will challenge Christians to be actively and critically engaged in the culture around them while retaining their identities as sojourners and exiles in this world Everyday Theology (Cultural Exegesis) Kevin J. Vanhoozer, Charles A. Anderson, Michael J. Sleasman, 2007-03-01 Everyday theology is the reflective and practical task of living each day as faithful disciples of Jesus Christ In other words theology is not just for Sundays and it's not just for professional theologians Everyday Theology teaches all Christians how to get the theological lay of the land It enables them to become more conscious of the culture they inhabit every day so that they can understand how it affects them and how they can affect it If theology is the ministry of the Word to the world everyday theologians need to know something about that world and Everyday Theology shows them how to understand their culture make an impact on it Engaging and full of fresh young voices this book is the first in the new Cultural Exegesis series Outsiders on the Inside William E. Boyce, 2022-05-04 Can Christian community be racially exclusive and still call itself faithful In the United States the story of Christianity has been intertwined with the story of race since the beginning All too often Christian leaders have fostered cultures that wound minority members instead of creating cultures that heal division With this history of exclusion all Christians must ask whether our churches practice the racial hospitality envisioned in the Scriptures In this necessary conversation minority pastors voice fatigue signaling that church cultures are not as welcoming as they often claim to be Outsiders on the Inside explores the history of race in the Presbyterian Church in America PCA comparing the denomination's core theological convictions with the experiences of Black PCA pastors This is a story of racial fatigue and resilience of learning to thrive in the midst of challenging environments This study reveals areas for growth and opens up possibilities for Christians of all races and confessions to come together creating a diverse hospitable and healing community

Theological Ethics W. Ross Hastings, 2021-02-02 Be Prepared to Think Theologically through Today's Most Pressing Ethical and Moral Issues In Theological Ethics theologian pastor and ethicist W Ross Hastings gives pastors ministry leaders and students a guide designed to equip them to think deeply and theologically about the moral formation of persons in our communities about ethical inquiry and action and about the tone and content of our engagement in the public square The book presents a biblical perspective and a gospel centered framework for thinking about complex contemporary issues in ways are life giving and that will lead readers into greater flourishing as human persons in community This book is distinctive in presenting A framework for theological ethics that is robustly theological and Trinitarian Ethics isolated from the gospel and theology becomes bad news but when it is informed by and empowered by participation in the triune God of grace it is part of the good news of the gospel An approach to theology and theological ethics that makes the Word of God the ultimate authority and it is therefore grounded in the biblical narrative and texts An understanding that theological ethics are inherently missional The church as the image of the triune God makes it the home of ethics but in light of its missional identity it will reverberate outwards to engage the world in ways that are humble and not power mongering that are gospel based and shalom evoking Theological Ethics is for those who lead churches or ministries or someday will and who urgently need deep theological grounding as they daily encounter ethical and moral issues where they need to provide a gracious truthful and gospel directed response X

Reading the Bible in Islamic Context Daniel Crowther, Shirin Shafaie, Ida Glaser, Shabbir Akhtar, 2017-11-08 In the current political and social climate there is increasing demand for a deeper understanding of Muslims the Qur'an and Islam as well as a keen demand among Muslim scholars to explore ways of engaging with Christians theologically culturally and socially This book explores the ways in which an awareness of Islam and the Qur'an can change the way in which the Bible is read The contributors come from both Muslim and Christian backgrounds bring various levels of commitment to the Qur'an and the Bible as Scripture and often have significantly different perspectives The first section of the book contains chapters that compare the report of an event in the Bible with a report of the same event in the Qur'an The second section addresses Muslim readings of the Bible and biblical tradition and looks at how Muslims might regard the Bible Can they recognise it as Scripture If so what does that mean and how does it relate to the Qur'an as Scripture Similarly how might Christian readers regard the Qur'an The final section explores different analogies for understanding the Bible in relation to the Qur'an The book concludes with a reflection upon the particular challenges that await Muslim scholars who seek to respond to Jewish and Christian understandings of the Jewish and Christian scriptures A pioneering venture into intertextual reading this book has important implications for relationships between Christians and Muslims It will be of significant value to scholars of both Biblical and Qur'anic Studies as well as any Muslim seeking to deepen their understanding of the Bible and any Christian looking to transform the way in which they read the Bible

The Serpent and the Serpent Slayer Andrew David Naselli, 2020-10-06 Although a story with a serpent a damsel in distress and a serpent slayer may sound like just another fairy tale it is in fact part of the greatest true account ever told the Bible Epic tales resonate with readers because they echo the greatest story In this new addition to the Short Studies in Biblical Theology series Andrew David Naselli traces the theme of snakes and dragons from the serpent in the garden to the devouring dragon in Revelation culminating with the return of the King New and seasoned Christians alike will experience afresh the captivating unifying narrative behind all stories as they embark on a journey through the Bible with a trusted biblical scholar

The Unformed Conscience of Evangelicalism J. Daryl Charles, 2002-01-01 J Daryl Charles urges the evangelical church to better equip in character and moral vision its pastors leaders and members to constructively and effectively engage the ethical debates of the twenty first century

T&T Clark Handbook of Neo-Calvinism Nathaniel Gray Sutanto, Cory Brock, 2024-01-25 Neo Calvinism critically advances Reformed orthodoxy for the sake of modern life Birthed in the Netherlands at the turn to the twentieth century initiated by Abraham Kuyper 1837 1920 and Herman Bavinck 1854 1921 it argued that a life before God entailed the leavening of faith over all human existence While the movement originated in the Netherlands the tradition now has a global reach with practitioners and thinkers applying its insights in diverse ways and in their own contexts This handbook is a genealogical introduction to this lively and modern branch of the Reformed tradition with contributors that reflect its global reach Its four sections chart the theological roots important original figures historical contours and the contemporary influence of neo Calvinism across a diversity of fields

Contours of the Kuyperian Tradition Craig G. Bartholomew, 2017-03-21 Abraham Kuyper was a remarkable figure in the modern age pastor theologian politician journalist and educator His writings launched what is known as Dutch neo Calvinism Widely known but little read Kuyper is now receiving the global recognition that his influential thought deserves in this introduction by Craig Bartholomew

The Re-enchantment of Political Science Thomas W. Heilke, Ashley Woodiwiss, 2001-01-01 Religion and politics appear together in newspaper headlines more today than ever before Questions about the relationship between religion and politics on theoretical historical and behavioral levels are likewise heavily debated behind the front pages by scholars in political science who demonstrate the new Christian thinking The Re Enchantment of Political Science engages these scholars in an interdisciplinary conversation concerning the identity and ends of Christian political science It considers whether and to what extent the community of Christian scholarship within its own narrative religious traditions can add a distinctive and significant dimension to the discipline of political science Contributors also explore how the new Christian thinking informs political theory and its subfields including liberalism communitarianism and critical theory Finally the book describes how policy studies are possible within a Christian framework using standard scholarly tools of analysis The Re Enchantment of Political Science in revealing the growing theoretical and methodological sophistication of faith informed political science charts the terrain of political science today

Reforming Apologetics J. V. Fesko, 2019-03-19 Challenging the dominant Van Tillian approach in Reformed apologetics this book by a leading expert in contemporary Reformed theology sets forth the principles that undergird a classic Reformed approach J V Fesko s detailed exegetical theological and historical argument takes as its starting point the classical Reformed understanding of the two books of God s revelation nature and Scripture Believers should always rest on the authority of

Scripture but also can and should appeal to the book of nature in the apologetic task Trinity and Organism James Eglinton, 2012-03-29 This book explores the organic motif found throughout the writings of the Dutch Calvinist theologian Herman Bavinck 1854 1921 Noting that Bavinck uses this motif at key points in the most important loci of theology Christology general and special revelation ecclesiology and so forth it seems that one cannot read him carefully without particular attention to his motif of choice the organic By examining the sense in which Bavinck views all of reality as a beautiful balance of unity in diversity James Eglinton draws the reader to Bavinck's constant concern for the doctrine of God as Trinity If God is the Father the Son and the Holy Spirit Bavinck argues the creation must be more akin to an organism than a machine Trinity and organism are thus closely linked concepts Eglinton critiques and rejects the two Bavincks one orthodox and the other modern hermeneutic so commonplace in discussions of Bavinck's theology Instead this book argues for a reunited Herman Bavinck as a figure committed to the participation of historic orthodox theology in the modern world

The Trauma of Doctrine Paul Maxwell, 2021-01-12 The Trauma of Doctrine is a theological investigation into the effects of abuse trauma upon the experience of Christian faith the psychological mechanics of these effects their resonances with Christian Scripture and neglected research informed strategies for cultivating post traumatic resilience Paul Maxwell examines the effect that the Calvinist belief can have upon the traumatized Christian who negatively internalizes its superlative doctrines of divine control and human moral corruption and charts a way toward meaningful spiritual recovery

Four Views on Heaven Zondervan, 2022-01-18 Discover and understand the different Christian views of what heaven will be like Christians from a variety of denominations and traditions are in middle of an important conversation about the final destiny of the saved Scholars such as N T Wright and J Richard Middleton have pushed back against the traditional view of heaven and now some Christians are pushing back against them for fear that talk about the earthiness of our final hope distracts our attention from Jesus In the familiar Counterpoints format Four Views on Heaven brings together a well rounded discussion and highlights similarities and differences of the current views on heaven Each author presents their strongest biblical case for their position followed by responses and a rejoinder that model a respectful tone Positions and contributors include Traditional Heaven our destiny is to leave earth and live forever in heaven where we will rest worship and serve God John S Feinberg Restored Earth emphasizes that the saved will live forever with Jesus on this restored planet enjoying ordinary human activities in our redeemed state J Richard Middleton Heavenly Earth a balanced view that seeks to highlight both the strengths and weaknesses of the heavenly and earthly views Michael Allen Roman Catholic Beatific Vision stresses the intellectual component of salvation though it encompasses the whole of human experience of joy happiness coming from seeing God finally face to face Peter Kreeft The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text Each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion

Faithful Reason Andrew T. Walker, 2024-05-15 Many evangelical Christians have faith in the Bible but struggle with confidence in its ethical principles Some believe that biblical morals are not as effective as secular ideologies in promoting human well being and societal progress Others feel that using the Bible as a basis for moral arguments lacks persuasive power in public discussions In Faithful Reason Natural Law Ethics for God's Glory and Our Good Andrew T Walker argues that developing a comprehensive Christian ethic is not simply a matter of appealing to biblical authority but also of understanding the way that God has ordered creation and our place within it In this work he provides a comprehensive and accessible introduction to natural law ethics from an evangelical perspective In the first section of Faithful Reason Walker develops a robust framework of natural law ethics guided by biblical and theological evidence In the second section this framework is applied to various contemporary ethical issues within dignity ethics embodied ethics personal ethics social ethics and political ethics Through a natural law framework readers are empowered to reason through the particulars of any situation and develop a godly ethical response
