God calls us as parents to be key disciple makers in our children's lives, but if we're honest, some days it's a battle just to get them dressed and ready for school on time. How can you mold their hearts when sometimes you can't even find their shoes? In Total Family Makeover, author Melissa Spoelstra gives parents a way, a sort of spiritual track to run on when it comes to building family discipleship. She focuses on eight key habits of growth: Spending Time in Prayer, Reading God's Word, Growing Through a Mentoring Relationship, Finding Community in the Church, Serving Others, Taking Time to Rest, Giving Back to God, Sharing Your Faith. Disciples are made, not born. Whether your children are babes in arms or teenagers getting ready to leave the nest, making disciples at home starts with you. Give your family a makeover with this practical approach to helping your children learn what it means to be a follower of Jesus. Finding the Peacemakers Dan Morrice, 2021-02-25. font size 1. Dan's book demonstrates that the future will belong to the peacemakers, the true heroes among us. Bear Grylls, font size 1. When thirty-three Chilean miners stepped into the light alive and well after sixty-nine days entombed in the earth, the world experienced a rare treat: some good news. Was this an anomaly, or are there other untapped glimmers of hope hidden behind the headlines? Armed with a camera, a notebook, and a perilous sense of curiosity, Dan Morrice embarks upon a global journey to meet the peacemakers, unsung heroes forging peace in extreme environments, from war-torn nations to disaster zones. From Chilean miners to Syrian refugees, from ex-football hooligans in Britain to revolutionaries in Israel/Palestine, Dan discovers how the most unlikely people are rediscovering Christian faith and rewriting the fractured history of our time. At the apex of his journey, Dan's interviews lead him on a five-hundred-mile walk across the Negev Desert to find their source of hope, first hand. In a generation tired of divided nations and negative news, Finding the Peacemakers tells the unreported story of a global movement overcoming the odds to build peace in troubled times. font size 1. catechetics with its powerful impact on children's faith learning. She first leads us in an exploration of our own creativity, our sense of prayer, and our own sense of discipleship. She then suggests ways to enliven the gathering space using the children's five senses to help open them to these rich faith experiences. She offers approaches to the critical factors in preparation, presentation, and procedure that make for successful empowerment of the child's faith learning. She also includes scores of practical ideas for involving primary and middle grade children in making prayer, helping them express their unity with God through prayer. Finally, she discusses the many resources essential to our own spiritual formation which must go hand in hand with that of unfolding a vibrant faith life in children. An excellent resource to inspire, encourage, and sensibly guide catechetical ministry as it is meant to be: joy-filled, revitalizing, and life impacting.

God and Evolution: Creativity In Action Jock Macabra, 2015-01-19 Atheism: this book argues is unbelievable. The universe's wonders couldn't have come about by chance, nor could natural selection alone have produced evolution. Therefore, since evolution resembles the creative process, especially in using trial and error, God's creative activity is responsible, and human creators reveal much about him. However, that process is goal-directed, so evolution must be as well. But the goal a Picasso or Darwin pursues is vague. They don't know exactly where they're going and make mistakes. So, therefore, must God. Thus, Macabra rejects the perfect God assumed by many religions and Intelligent Design. Why bring back God? To restore meaning and purpose to existence and gain faith's many benefits. To better explain how the universe, scientific laws, and life itself came about and living things' attractive but useless properties. Other discussions clarify both creativity and the creative God. Is there one kind of creativity or many? A sex difference? Are creators neurotic?

Christ's Prisoner Robert B. Callahan Sr., 2011-11-01 Paul proclaimed he was in prison because he was Christ's prisoner. Why? Because he proclaimed the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ uncompromisingly without fear of retribution. He served the living Christ and succumbed neither to the wiles of Satan nor to the demands of the secular world. He gives all the glory to God, and in so doing, proclaims the grace of God, knowledge in the mystery of Christ as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit, that the Gentiles should be
