For All Seasons A Big Bend Journal:

For All Seasons Roland H. Wauer, 2013-11-15 Something about Big Bend National Park draws visitors again and again. Maybe it's the spare beauty of the mountains and desert, the dawn chorus of birds or the vivid stars in the velvet night. All of these things have made it Roland Wauer's favorite place. In this book he shares his love of the Big Bend through journal entries that chronicle a year in the life of the park. Wauer worked as Chief Park Naturalist from 1966 to 1972 and has visited the park frequently ever since. His journal entries span these thirty years, providing not only a composite portrait of a typical year but also a clear sense of how the park's natural history has changed over three decades. He spices his account with anecdotes, often humorous, ranging from stumbling across a herd of javelinas to being trailed by a mountain lion in the dark to discovering new species of plants and animals. Few authors know the Big Bend as Roland Wauer does or have written about it in a more engaging way. This beautifully illustrated book is the perfect companion for a visit to the park, whether in person or by armchair.

Tenderfoot Teacher Aileen Kilgore Henderson, 2002 In January 1952 Aileen Kilgore was teaching forty-three fourth graders at a public school in Northport, Alabama. Her life filled with lesson preparations, in-service meetings, countywide meetings, and special projects seemed grim, and she resolved to change it. Remembering tales she'd heard of the Big Bend region in Texas, she wrote to the school board at Alpine, applying for a position. To her surprise, an offer came back to teach at a new school within the Big Bend National Park. She accepted. The young schoolteacher was at first overwhelmed by Big Bend: the wildness, the limitless space, the isolation, and the exuberant Texas children. But she soon came to love the area and the people. During her first year at Panther Junction, she met one special ranger named Art Henderson. When he was transferred to the Blue Ridge Parkway that summer, there was a hole in her life. During her two years at Panther Junction, Aileen wrote long and frequent letters to her father working for the railroad at Boligee, Alabama; to her mother and sister living in Brookwood, Alabama; to her sisters in Tuscaloosa and San Diego; and finally the second year to Art Henderson. Those edited letters make up this book.
