Moore, Linda Levitan, 1992 For Hearing People Only First Edition Answers to some of the most commonly asked questions about the Deaf community its culture and the Deaf Reality by Matthew S Moore and Linda Levitan with a foreword by Harlan Lane Rights Gone Wrong Richard Thompson Ford, 2011-10-25 A New York Times Notable Book for 2011 Since the 1960s ideas developed during the civil rights movement have been astonishingly successful in fighting overt discrimination and prejudice But how successful are they at combating the whole spectrum of social injustice including conditions that aren't directly caused by bigotry How do they stand up to segregation for instance a legacy of racism but not the direct result of ongoing discrimination It's tempting to believe that civil rights litigation can combat these social ills as efficiently as it has fought blatant discrimination In Rights Gone Wrong Richard Thompson Ford author of the New York Times Notable Book The Race Card argues that this is seldom the case Civil rights do too much and not enough opportunists use them to get a competitive edge in schools and job markets while special interest groups use them to demand special privileges Extremists on both the left and the right have hijacked civil rights for personal advantage Worst of all their theatrics have drawn attention away from more serious social injustices Ford a professor of law at Stanford University shows us the many ways in which civil rights can go terribly wrong He examines newsworthy lawsuits with shrewdness and humor proving that the distinction between civil rights and personal entitlements is often anything but clear Finally he reveals how many of today's social injustices actually can't be remedied by civil rights law and demands more creative and nuanced solutions In order to live up to the legacy of the civil rights movement we must renew our commitment to civil rights and move beyond them Kid-friendly Parenting with Deaf and Hard of Hearing Children Daria J.
