Force Of Habit Exploring Everyday Culture Lund Studies In European Ethnology:

Force of Habit Jonas Frykman, Orvar Löfgren, 1996 This work examines customs and habits such as crayfish parties Christmas celebrations and graduation rituals The focus is not on the traditions as such instead they provide a starting point for analyses of how the experiences of everyday life are manifested in a visible cultural garb The text shows how many rituals serve to release people from the bonds of tradition usually by creating a special cultural arena Yet it also examines the ways in which habits and customs tacitly coerce thoughts sometimes drawing attention to fundamental social and moral values but just as often acting as impediments to reflection The contributors try to see how some features of everyday cultural identity can be easily replaced while others may persist tenaciously 1996 Massimo Mastrogregori, 2014-02-21 Annually published since 1930 the International bibliography of Historical Sciences IBOHS is an international bibliography of the most important historical monographs and periodical articles published throughout the world which deal with history from the earliest to the most recent times The works are arranged systematically according to period region or historical discipline and within this classification alphabetically The bibliography contains a geographical index and indexes of persons and authors *Material culture : critical concepts in the social sciences. International Companion to Education Miriam Ben-Peretz, Sally Brown, Bob Moon, 2004-04-28 The Routledge International Companion to Education addresses the key issues underpinning the rethinking and restructuring of education at the beginning of the new millennium The volume contains over fifty major contributions exploring a wide range of issues including philosophy of education the economics and resourcing of education testing and assessment current issues and future prospects standards multiculturalism anti racism computers in classrooms mother tongue education civics and moral education Each chapter gives a contemporary account of developments in the field and looks to the future and the directions that new activity and inquiry are likely to take All the chapters are written from an international perspective Giving a voice to the Oppressed? Agnès Arp, Annette Leo, Franka Maubach, 2019-12-16 Due to its internationality and interdisciplinarity the International Oral History Association IOHA which was founded in the late 1970 s is one of a kind in the academic landscape Driven by the desire to democratize historical scholarship its members wanted to give a voice to groups such as women workers migrants or victims of political dictatorships who had not been heard up to that point The contributions deal with the academic approaches and the political convictions of the previous generation Artifacts and Allegiances Peggy Levitt, 2015-07-07 What can we learn about nationalism by looking at a country s cultural institutions How do the history and culture of particular cities help explain how museums represent diversity Artifacts and Allegiances takes us around the world to tell the compelling story of how museums today are making sense of immigration and globalization Based on firsthand conversations with museum directors curators and policymakers descriptions of current and future exhibitions and inside stories about the famous paintings and iconic objects that define collections across the globe this work provides a close up view of how different kinds of institutions balance nationalism and cosmopolitanism By comparing museums in Europe the United States Asia and the Middle East Peggy Levitt offers a fresh perspective on the role of the museum in shaping citizens Taken together these accounts tell the fascinating story of a sea change underway in the museum world at large Ethnologia Europaea Vol.34:1 Bjarne Stoklund,2004-11 Since its start in 1967 Ethnologia Europaea has acquired a central position in the international cooperation between ethnologists in the different European countries It is however a journal of topical interest not only for ethnologists but also for anthropologists social historians and others studying the social and cultural forms of everyday life in recent and historical European societies This journal appears twice a year sometimes as a thematic issue Morpho-Syntactic Patterns in Spoken Korean English Sofia

Rüdiger,2019-07-15 Morpho Syntactic Patterns in Spoken Korean English presents fundamental research on the use of English by South Korean speakers Despite the extraordinary and vibrant status of the English language in South Korean society demonstrated for example by the notion of English Fever research on the forms of English in the South Korean context has been sadly neglected in the study of World Englishes This monograph is the first to provide a rich and contextualized description of the Korean English morpho syntactic repertoire It draws on the specifically compiled Spoken Korean English SPOKE corpus to shed light on Korean uses of plural marking articles pronouns prepositions and verbs in spoken English and demonstrates that English is indeed the language of those who use it This volume will be highly relevant for researchers interested in Expanding Circle Englishes Asian Englishes spoken language corpora and morpho syntactic variation Arv ,2008 Ethnologia Europaea 31 : 2 , Ethnologia Europaea ,2004 Historisk tidskrift ,1996 nineteenth century Ireland which describes as well as re interprets the value of science and modernity as practiced by the British empire The book raises questions about representation and academic discourses and highlights and interprets colonial techniques of observation and description The nature of evidence within colonial archive is also questioned Focussing on the main aspects of the survey from a contemporary theoretical perspective it both enlivens the original documents and serves as a sensitive critique of it The main themes are ethnographic description translation and cartography and the relationship between them in the nineteenth century Central to this is the emerging view of Ireland and the Irish and the idea of the project as representative of early Irish ethnography The book contains new findings in relation to renowned scholars such as John O Donovan and re engages with the Friel vs Andrews debate on Translation and Irish Culture The book should be of wide interest to folklorists cultural sociologists geographers historians ethnologists cultural studies Irish language scholars and the general reader with an interest in Ireland
