Northern Lights Donald E. Abelson, 2016-11-01 Think tanks are often thought of as a uniquely US phenomenon Although the largest concentration of think tanks is in the United States they can be found in virtually every country Often overlooked Canada's think tanks represent a highly diverse and eclectic group of public policy organizations such as the Canadian Centre for Policy Alternatives the C D Howe Institute the Fraser Institute and the Mowat Centre among others In Northern Lights Donald Abelson explores the rise of think tanks in Canada and addresses many of the most commonly asked questions about how and under what circumstances they are able to affect public opinion and public policy He identifies the ways in which Canadian think tanks often prioritize political advocacy over policy research and seeks to explain why these organizations are well suited and equipped to shape the discourse around key policy issues The first comprehensive examination of think tanks in Canada Northern Lights is both a primer for those looking to understand the role and function of think tanks in the policy making process and a guide to the leading policy institutes in the country

Foundational Texts of Mormonism Mark Ashurst-McGee, Robin Jensen, Sharalyn D. Howcroft, 2018-02-16 Joseph Smith founding prophet and martyr of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter day Saints personally wrote dictated or commissioned thousands of documents Among these are several highly significant sources that scholars have used over and over again in their attempts to reconstruct the founding era of Mormonism usually by focusing solely on content without a deep appreciation for how and why a document was produced This book offers case studies of the sources most often used by historians of the early Mormon experience Each chapter takes a particular document as its primary subject considering the production of a document as an historical event in itself with its own background purpose circumstances and consequences The documents are examined not merely as sources of information but as artifacts that reflect aspects of the general culture and particular circumstances in which they were created This book will help historians working in the founding era of Mormonism gain a more solid grounding in the period's documentary record by supplying important information on major primary sources
