When the Powers Fall Walter Wink, 1996-12-01 Repressive authoritarian regimes are falling and fragile new democracies emerging around the globe How are longstanding conflicts and deep divisions to be healed and enemies reconciled without breeding further injustices To answer this question Walter Wink here applies his compelling analysis of the Powers as they appear in the New Testament to the global scene Surveying the wrenching religious and ethical dilemmas involved in transitions from despotism to democracy Wink neatly summarizes key concepts from his Fortress Press trilogy on the Powers including sections on Jesus against Domination and Nonviolence He then shows how central concepts in the teaching of Jesus can clarify true and false ideas of forgiveness and reconciliation and apology without sacrificing justice The personal political and geopolitical pertinence of Wink's ideas shines in his discussion of specific situations in Africa and Latin America

Kaapse bibliotekaris, 1994 Issues for Nov 1957 include section Accessions Aanwinste Sept 1957 Theology and the (post)apartheid condition Rian Venter, 2016-12-01 Knowledge transmission and generation belong to the core mission of the public university In democratic South Africa the transformation of these processes and practices in higher education has become an urgent and contested task The Faculty of Theology at the University of the Free State has already done some original work on the implications of these for theology One area of investigation that has not yet received due attention concerns the role of theological disciplines and especially the relation between academic disciplines and societal dynamics This research project addresses the challenge and this volume reflects the intellectual endeavour of lectures research fellows and a post graduate student associated with the faculty Each theological discipline has its own history and has already experienced reconstruction both globally and in South Africa Some of these genealogical developments and re envisioning are mapped by the contributions in this volume The critical questions addressed are what are the contours of the post apartheid condition and what are the implications for responsible disciplinary practices in theology The chapters convey an impression of the vitality of theology at the University of the Free State and in South Africa and give expression to fundamental shifts that have taken place in theological disciplines and also of future tasks This research project aims to stimulate reflection on responsible and innovative disciplinary practices of theology in South Africa which we envisage will contribute to social justice and human flourishing Rian Venter University of the Free State

Joint Acquisitions List of Africana, 1990 Western Civilization in Southern Africa Isaac Schapera, 2013-11-05 The book is structured as follows An introduction of old Bantu culture An account of modern Bantu life Discussion of the influence exerted by Christianity and Education upon communal life of the Bantu Examination of special aspects of Bantu culture as they have been modified by Western civilization language and music The economic political and legal positions of the native tribes in South Africa are also covered First published in 1934 Psalms and Hebrews Dirk J. Human, Gert Jacobus Steyn, 2010-10-28 The reception of early Jewish Israelite texts in early Christianity provides valuable insights into the hermeneutics of ancient authors and studies in this regard are vital for an understanding of their theology. By focusing particularly on the reception of the Psalms through the hand of the unknown author of Hebrews Old Testament and New Testament scholars combine forces in this collection to determine the shifts in interpretation of the Psalms that took place during the processes of re-interpretation within the work of a particular early Christian writer. By paying careful attention to the original readings of the text versions utilized as well as to the manner in which those texts were embedded in a later literary context by the author of Hebrews they provide a window into the trajectories of the Psalm traditions. A contextual contribution illustrates the versification of the Psalms in a contemporary African language Afrikaans to illustrate how the Psalms reception remains a vivid endeavor in current times.

Afrikaanse Filosofie Pieter Duvenage, 2016-02-01 Hierdie is die eerste boeklengte poging om 'n Afrikaanse filosofiese tradisie te beskryf binne die konteks van die Suid-Afrikaanse geskiedenis en om die geskiedenis van die filosofie internasionaal te interpreteer. In die proses word van die belangrikste Afrikaanse filosowe self aan die woord gestel. Dit is werklik 'n waardevolle kultuurhistoriese dokument en 'n enorme bydrae tot die intellektuele geskiedenis in Suid-Afrika. Prof
