Romantic movement painted sublime works representing nature at its most melancholic and desolate. One of his most famous motifs was that of two intimate figures seen from behind gazing at the moon. Friedrich painted three versions of this theme, one of which Two Men Contemplating the Moon has recently been acquired by The Metropolitan Museum of Art. The book discusses the Metropolitan's painting in conjunction with the other two versions and a number of related paintings and drawings by Friedrich and his Dresden friends. It also presents fascinating details about the moon itself, including what was known about it in Friedrich's lifetime and its presence and symbolism in contemporary Romantic poetry.

Caspar David Friedrich to Ferdinand Hodler, a Romantic Tradition Stiftung Oskar Reinhart, Peter Wegmann, William Vaughan, Franz Zelger, Matthias Wohlgemuth, Los Angeles County Museum of Art, 1993

This book accompanies an international exhibition of paintings and drawings from the Oskar Reinhart Foundation in Winterthur, one of the finest collections of German, Austrian, and Swiss art in Europe. Oskar Reinhart (1885-1965) presented his extraordinary collection of Northern Romantic and Realist art to the town of Winterthur, establishing a museum with over five hundred paintings and several thousand drawings. The collection opened to the public in 1951 but still remains little known outside Switzerland. Paintings from the Foundation are lent only on rare occasions, and the Reinhart collection has never been shown abroad. With introductory essays and detailed texts on each artist, this book surveys a rich pictorial tradition ranging from the quiet introspection of the Romantic era and the gentle charm of Biedermeier to the robust art of Realist and Symbolist painters at the end of the century. Paintings by major artists including Friedrich, Runge, Menzel, Bocklin, Liebermann, and Hodler are discussed alongside works by less familiar figures whose work deserves greater recognition.
