Caste And Outcast Author Dhan Gopal Mukerji May 2002:

Caste and Outcast Dhan Gopal Mukerji, 2002 Mukerji 1890 1936 holds the distinction of being the first South Asian immigrant to have a successful career in the United States as a man of letters This reissue of his classic autobiography with a new Introduction and Afterword seeks to revitalize interest in Mukerji and his work and to contribute to the exploration of the South Asian experience in America Dust Off the Gold Medal Sara L. Schwebel, Jocelyn Van Tuyl, 2021-08-23 The oldest and most prestigious children s literature award the Newbery Medal has since 1922 been granted annually by the American Library Association to the children s book it deems most distinguished Medal books enjoy an outsized influence on American children s literature figuring perennially on publishers lists on library and bookstore shelves and in school curricula As such they offer a compelling window into the history of US children s literature and publishing as well as into changing societal attitudes about which books are best for America s schoolchildren Yet literary scholars have disproportionately ignored the Medal winners in their research This volume provides a critically and historically grounded scholarly analysis of representative but understudied Newbery Medal books from the 1920s through the 2010s interrogating the disjunction between the books omnipresence and influence on the one hand and the critical silence surrounding them on the other Dust Off the Gold Medal makes a case for closing these scholarly gaps by revealing neglected texts insights into the politics of children s literature prizing and by demonstrating how neglected titles illuminate critical debates currently central to the field of children s literature In particular the essays shed light on the hidden elements of diversity apparent in the neglected Newbery canon while illustrating how the books respond sometimes in quite subtle ways to contemporaneous concerns around race class gender disability nationalism and globalism Recovered Legacies Keith Lawrence, Floyd Cheung, 2009-08-31 Rediscovering the writings of early Asian America The World Next Door Rajini Srikanth, 2004 This book grows out of the question At this particular moment of tense geopolitics and inter linked economies what insights can South Asian American writing offer us about living in the world South Asian American literature with its focus on the multiple geographies and histories of the global dispersal of South Asians pulls back from a close up view of the United States to reveal a wider landscape of many nations and peoples South Asian American poets novelists and playwrights depict the nation as simultaneously discrete and entwined with the urgencies of places as diverse as Bangladesh Sri Lanka India Burma Pakistan and Trinidad Drawing on the cosmopolitan sensibility of scholars like Anthony Appiah Vinay Dharwadkar Martha Nussbaum Bruce Robbins and Amartya Sen this book exhorts North American residents to envision connectedness with inhabitants of other lands The world out there arrives next door War, Race, and Culture Gordon H. Chang, 2025-05-20 Writing history the systematic effort to understand the human past is a demanding intellectual endeavor For historian Gordon H Chang it has also been a personal and moral enterprise intimately connected to his commitment to realizing a better world This career spanning anthology brings together significant essays developing conversations across his broad ranging research interests and personal history and engaging a range of topics from diplomatic history and Asian American history to art history The book begins with a preface that reflects on the rise of Asian American studies as a field and the author's own scholarly trajectory Each essay is accompanied by new headnotes that provide context Essays examine the many ways that race especially regarding Asian Americans connects important historical episodes and social issues Themes of geopolitical conflict race and transnational methods link writing produced over several decades illustrating the arc of an intellectual career and the development of the field of Asian American studies Ultimately this book highlights Chang's abiding interest in providing historical context for issues facing Asian Americans particularly during a time of rising geopolitical tensions and anti Asian violence Stanford ,2002 Caste and Outcast Dhan Gopal Mukerji,2021-08-03

Caste and Outcast 1923 is an autobiography by Dhan Gopal Mukerji Published the year after Mukerji moved from San Francisco to New York City Caste and Outcast is a moving autobiographical narrative from the first Indian writer to gain a popular audience in the United States Although he is more widely recognized for such children's novels as Gay Neck The Story of a Pigeon 1927 which won the 1928 Newbery Medal and Kari the Elephant 1922 Mukerji was also a gifted poet and memoirist whose experiences in India Japan and the United States are essential to his unique perspective on twentieth century life As I look into the past and try to recover my earliest impression I remember that the most vivid experience of my childhood was the terrific power of faces From the day consciousness dawned upon me I saw faces faces everywhere and I always noticed the eyes It was as if the whole Hindu race lived in its eyes Raised in a prominent Brahmin family Dhan Gopal Mukerji enjoyed immense privileges in his native India and came to trust in the effectiveness and fairness of the country's caste system As a young man however no longer enthralled with the ascetic lifestyle explored in his youth Mukerji devoted himself to nationalist politics and eventually left India for Japan Unsatisfied with life as an engineering student he emigrated once more to the United States where he moved in anarchist and bohemian circles while embarking on a career as a popular poet and children's author Although he never returned to his native country Mukerji left an inspiring legacy through his literary achievement and unwavering commitment to Indian independence With a beautifully designed cover and professionally typeset manuscript this edition of Dhan Gopal Mukerji's Caste and Outcast is a classic of Indian American literature reimagined for modern readers Amerasia Journal ,2006 Ethnic American Literature Emmanuel S. Nelson,2015-02-17 Unlike any other book of its kind this volume celebrates published works from a broad range of American ethnic groups not often featured in the typical canon of literature This culturally rich encyclopedia contains 160 alphabetically arranged entries on African American Asian American Latino and Native American literary traditions among others The book introduces the uniquely American mosaic of multicultural literature by chronicling the achievements of American writers of non European descent and highlighting the ethnic diversity of works from the colonial era to the present The work features engaging topics like the civil rights movement bilingualism assimilation and border narratives Entries
