Case Studies in Biocultural Diversity from Southeast Asia F. Merlin Franco, Magne Knudsen, Noor Hasharina Hassan, 2022-07-27 This open access book demonstrates the linkages between local languages traditional knowledge and biodiversity at the landscape level in Asia providing a fresh approach to discussions on Asia s biocultural diversity The book carries forward earlier analyses but importantly focuses on traditional ecological calendars folk medicine and folk names in the context of the vital importance of maintaining biological cultural and linguistic diversity It does this by addressing a range of cases and issues in relation to Southeast Asia Brunei Darussalam Indonesia Malaysia the Philippines and North East India The several chapters demonstrate the ways in which the various forms of knowledge of the environment and its categorizations are important in areas such as landscape and resource management and conservation They also demonstrate that environmental knowledge and the practical skills which accompany it are not necessarily widely shared This book sends important messages to those who care about the sustainability of our environment the maintenance of its biocultural diversity or at least the maintenance of what remains of it because much has changed This interdisciplinary collection draws from a wide range of disciplines and is of appeal to students and scholars in anthropology environmental studies geography biodiversity and linguistics "Code of Massachusetts regulations, 2015" ,2015 Archival snapshot of entire looseleaf Code of Massachusetts Regulations held by the Social Law Library of Massachusetts as of January 2020

Directions in Social and Cultural History Sasha Handley,Rohan McWilliam,Lucy Noakes,2018-02-22 What does it mean to be a social and cultural historian today In the wake of the cultural turn and in an age of digital and public history what challenges and opportunities await historians in the early 21st century In this exciting new text leading historians reflect on key developments in their fields and argue for a range of new directions in social and cultural history Focusing on emerging areas of historical research such as the history of the emotions and environmental history New Directions in Social and Cultural History is an invaluable guide to the current and future state of the field The book is divided into three clear sections each with an editorial introduction and covering key thematic areas histories of the human the material world and challenges and provocations Each chapter in the collection provides an introduction to the key and recent developments in its specialist field with their authors then moving on to argue for what they see as particularly important shifts and interventions in the theory and methodology and suggest future developments New Directions in Social and Cultural History provides a comprehensive and insightful overview of this burgeoning field which will be important reading for all students and scholars of social and cultural history and historiography Austerity and the Third Sector in Greece Jennifer Clarke,Asteris Huliaras,Dimitri A. Sotiropoulos,2016-03-09 Organised civil society in Greece is generally regarded as weak with rankings for associational density volunteerism and levels of social capital traditionally among the lowest in Europe Austerity and the Third Sector in Greece explores the context behind the statistics and general perceptions of a society of takers not givers Stereotypes of a country living beyond its means have been exacerbated by the Eurozone crisis but since 2008 there has in fact been a great proliferation of organised civil society initiatives in the country Has the financial crisis seen a belated awakening of Greek civil society Offering a broad overview of contemporary civil society in Greece this book explores how various characteristics of the country s socio political context have affected the development of the third sector and examines the effect of the economic crisis on it Expert contributors combine macro level analyses with local case studies to form a fascinating new study on the influences of national and regional context on civil society development Their findings provide not only for a better understanding of similar movements but also contribute to wider academic debates on societal responses to economic crises Methodist Morals Darryl W. Stephens,2024-01-12 Methodist Morals offers keen insight into the public church interpreting the United Methodist Social Principles as a dynamic discourse about morality and human rights in light of faith Revised every four years by the General Conference of the United Methodist Church the Social Principles exposes the moral deliberations of this distinctly American and increasingly worldwide church as it struggles to achieve community across multiple languages and cultures Perhaps no other document provides as rich a depiction of Protestants participating in the moral argument of public life This is the first full length study of Methodist social teachings in over fifty years Examining official Methodist teachings from institutional historical and cross cultural perspectives Darryl Stephens provides a rich analysis of this case study of Protestant social witness drawing on his expertise in church polity Methodist history and Christian social ethics A wide range of comparisons with documents of the United Nations with moral debate in Germany and Zimbabwe and with historical Methodist statements of social witness shows the Social Principles to be a unique form of social witness The issues of war abortion human sexuality and marriage illustrate the messiness of democratic deliberation in an ecclesial context and the evolution of a people ever concerned with the sin of worldliness even as they become more attuned to transforming social structures Stephens also contrasts this conception of the public church with the ecclesiologies of prominent Methodist ethicists Stanley Hauerwas and Paul Ramsey Intended for students of Methodism ecumenical church leaders and scholars of Christian social ethics and contemporary US mainline religion this work reveals the challenges to and possibilities for achieving moral community in an increasingly global and diverse world DARRYL W STEPHENS director of United Methodist studies at Lancaster Theological Seminary is former assistant general secretary for advocacy and sexual ethics in the UMC s General Commission on the Status and Role of Women He is the coeditor of Professional Sexual Ethics A Holistic Ministry Approach

Terraced Landscapes Drago Kladnik, 2017-09-01

Terraced landscapes with agricultural terraces are cultural landscapes with a special value They provide food and also have priceless scientific cultural historical ecological aesthetic and even psychological philosophical and religious value They form a unique agricultural and ecological system that can be found throughout the world In some developed civilizations they were created in an organized manner over millennia and in others they arose completely spontaneously as people adapted to natural conditions and improved their opportunities to make a living They therefore reflect a harmony between man and nature and in many cases also between people themselves This volume presents them in pictures and words in all their diversity and attractiveness After discussing the global and European dimensions of terraced landscapes and their agricultural terraces the volume focuses on Slovenian terraced landscapes they are discussed separately by landscape types and sample cases in the territory of selected settlements pilot areas The conclusion also draws attention to the exceptional value and appeal of non agricultural terraced landscapes that have been shaped by nature and man _ _ _ _ _
