World War II National Historic Area Calendar Compendium Francis Broderick, 2017 Beginning in 2006 the Aleutian World War II National Historic Area has produced calendars with each month focused on an illustrated history related to the program's interpretative themes Each year the calendars interwove and built upon the two main themes of the national historic area the Aleutian military campaign and the Unangax Aleut experience of World War II The calendar stories also reflected the program's focus on the natural environment as well as historic preservation both in reference to Unangax culture and history and to the military campaign The calendars also explored previously unknown sides of World War II Aleutian experience including primary research on the personal histories of soldiers and civilians in the Aleutian Islands This calendar compendium draws from a wide range of histories from the 2011 through 2016 calendars Introduction Genesis of a New Religion Benjamin Simon, 2024-12-30 In recent years Kimbanguism has developed from an ecumenically oriented African instituted church into a new religion Accordingly their membership with the World Council of Churches was discontinued in 2021 This process of theological change and reorientation is clearly traced and illustrated on the basis of previously unseen WCC archive materials The six chapters also show the six phases how the process of disengagement from a religious belief is progressing to start a new religion The International Criminal Court William A.

Schabas, 2017-01-19 Established as one of the main sources for the study of the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court this volume provides an article by article analysis of the Statute the detailed analysis draws upon relevant case law from the Court itself as well as from other international and national criminal tribunals academic commentary and related instruments such as the Elements of Crimes the Rules of Procedure and Evidence and the Relationship Agreement with the United Nations Each of the 128 articles is accompanied by an overview of the drafting history as well as a bibliography of academic literature relevant to the provision Written by a single author the Commentary avoids duplication and inconsistency providing a comprehensive presentation to assist those who must understand interpret and apply the complex provisions of the Rome Statute This volume has been well received in the academic community and has become a trusted reference for those who work at the Court even judges The fully updated second edition of The International Criminal Court incorporates new developments in the law including discussions of recent judicial activity and the amendments to the Rome Statute adopted at the Kampala conference
