for Love Reginald N. Shires, 2006-01-30. At the Age for Love: A novel of Bangalore during World War II is an extraordinary story of a soldier's family waiting for his safe return from the Africa Front where he serves with a British tank unit pressing hard against the Germans in the desert of Libya. The chronicle begins with the soldier Capt Edward Thompson saying goodbye to his wife Amelia and son Paddy and ends with his return at the end of the war. The story narrated in incredible detail tells how the boy and his mother with their relatives and friends live in this hectic military city in South India where those who stay behind are swept along into the rushing wild stream of British history in India during a time of war The lives of these women and their children provide a bold story of Anglo India in this multihued Indian landscape where rogues and villains and the honest hard working church going form relationships in this bold saga as men and women cross family and racial boundaries in their search for love The city of Bangalore with its cluster of towns around British army barracks comes alive with memorable characters and this novel follows their tense and gripping relationships The ending where these fun loving characters come together in a frail boat on the peaceful Cauvery River at Seringapatnam near sunset has much to say about life and the human mystery and the vision it offers us as we live in a changing world Women Writes on Partition of Pakistan and India Ritu Menon, 2006
