Cosmic Preeminence R L Coursey, 2018-06-26 Many who correctly exalt the preeminence of Christ in their theology may yet oppose His preeminence with their priorities Our priorities reveal our portion and location does not change that portion For the psalmist declared the preeminence of Christ in both heaven and earth Whom have I in heaven but Thee and there is none upon earth that I desire besides Thee Ps 73 25 Whenever there are two things that are good the believer who has his priorities aligned with the kingdom never rejects the lesser but always prefers the better And when one of these is finite and the other infinite there must be no competition in his choice Since Christ is preeminent in creation cosmic preeminence must be infinitely higher in our affections than cosmic redemption The new view on heaven is popular because it legitimizes the priorities of a consumer culture by always emphasizing the latter while merely including the former While both are equally true they are not truly equal The priority of the beatific vision is evidenced by the superiority of its object Therefore we should always emphasize the former without failing to mention the latter Once creation and redemption are paired together in our priorities the preeminence of Christ slowly becomes less important and how to gain and or enjoy creation is always the primary emphasis both in this life and the next Like Christ we must differentiate between His kingdom and all those things that are merely added unto us in this life and on the future new earth With the Kingdom clearly in view we must prioritize that mandate Great Commission through which Christ has chosen to extend His kingdom and work of redemption in the world The Creation Mandate given before the Fall like all the commands is not redemptive in nature and the church is the only society of the redeemed Our new identity in Christ without eliminating infinitely supersedes our creation identity simply because Christ infinitely supersedes all creation in worth The problem with exchanging the Great Commission with the Cultural Mandate is that the present mission of Christ to build His church becomes secondary to His work of providence in culture the power of the gospel becomes secondary to the power of our example and moral influence on society and culture and the preeminence of Christ is no longer based on His person and work but on the success of our work among people We always proclaim what we are wrote Martyn Lloyd Jones by our priorities The Beauty and Glory of Christ Joel R.

Render Unto God Ryan C. McIlhenny, 2015-09-18

The Great Recession like most economic depressions has compelled many to reconsider not only the consequences but also the very nature of contemporary global capitalism Sadly very little critical reflection on the fundamental nature of the world's hegemonic economic system has come from its most devout disciples evangelicals Throughout the pages of the Old and New Testament God reprimands those driven by a love for gain By way of the cultural mandate God has given humanity the responsibility to care not only for their fellow human beings but also for the earth itself True and undefiled religion includes taking care of those forgotten marginalized and made invisible by all consuming and all mighty capital As such those who accumulate wealth by destroying creation dishonor their Creator Has the Christian community gone far enough in meeting the needs of the poor in seeking the end of poverty or in curbing the rapacious appetites of the greedy few in order to preserve that which is good true and beautiful within God's creation

Render Unto God calls Christians to reconsider their ideological commitment to unrestrained capitalism to rethink not only the profit motive an essential element of capitalism if not its central telos the meaning of private property and the dominion of the global power elite but also to understand how market fundamentalism fractures families creates systems of inequality and destroys the environment Have we forgotten our commitment to God neighbor and creation Have we forgotten our primary purpose the reason for our existence namely to glorify God and enjoy him forever

Calvinism and the Emergence of the Modern World M. Brett Callaway, 2024-06-27 The Western world is in a downward spiral Symptoms include worsening economies increasing crime and general crumbling of society's moral and civil framework Hope is decreasing while anxiety is increasing Throughout the ages mankind's lot has ebbed and flowed in concert with its understanding of and obedience to God's will The ascendancy of Western civilization and our modern world coincided with the spread of Calvinism It is the worldview from which today's material and experiential blessings were birthed and gave rise to ideas of democratic representative government and equality of every person before God This book after establishing some distinguishing characteristics of Calvinism traces its advance throughout Europe and subsequently to America through personalities and events giving rise to our modern world and all its prosperity By doing so it provides an encouraging reminder of how God turns the fortunes of faithful men and nations for the better even ours even today

Trueman, 2021-07-28 The Oxford Handbook of Calvin and Calvinism offers a comprehensive assessment of John Calvin and the tradition of Calvinism as it evolved from the sixteenth century to today Featuring contributions from scholars who present the latest research on a pluriform religious movement that became a global faith The volume focuses on key aspects of Calvin's thought and its diverse reception in Europe the transatlantic world Africa South America and Asia Calvin's theology was from the beginning open to a wide range of interpretations and was never a static body of ideas and practices Over the course of his life his thought evolved and deepened while retaining unresolved tensions and questions that created a legacy that was constantly evolving in different cultural contexts Calvinism itself is an elusive term bringing together Christian communities that claim a shared heritage but often possess radically distinct characters The Handbook reveals fascinating patterns of continuity and change to demonstrate how the movement claimed the name of the Genevan reformer but was moulded by an extraordinary range of religious intellectual and historical influences from the Enlightenment and

Darwinism to indigenous African beliefs and postmodernism In its global contexts Calvinism has been continuously reimagined and reinterpreted This collection throws new light on the highly dynamic and fluid nature of a deeply influential form of Christianity

Light for the City Lester DeKoster, 2004 Light of the City introduces readers to a unique view of John Calvin's life and thought one that not only challenges past readings of Calvin but also seeks to reinvigorate the role of preaching as proclamation for modern civic life According to Lester DeKoster the doctrine of predestination as preached by Calvin makes building the kingdom of God rather than evangelism the sole and highest calling of Christians Calvin's indifference to missions was rooted in his understanding that predestination leaves evangelism with nothing to give away instead daily labor on behalf of God's kingdom is the central act of divine worship Calvin's preaching his Institutes of the Christian Religion and his leadership of the church and civic government in Geneva were each DeKoster maintains directed toward establishing God's kingdom on earth Furthermore Western democracy as envisioned by Thomas Jefferson and others is a direct result of such Word inspired civil government Properly understanding Scripture as a dynamic creative Agent of the City means that faithfully preaching today just as in Calvin's day will continue to dramatically evoke the City as God's kingdom on earth Lester DeKoster's style reminds me of Thomas Carlyle He takes the English language and as only a master of prose can do transforms that language into something powerful and imposing This book will prove to be an enduring monument not only in the field of Calvin studies but far beyond that John Richard de Witt First Presbyterian Church Columbia South Carolina
