Markham, 2023-07-07 Institutions are very precious If any idea is going to persist into the future then it needs an institution to keep it going Each of us comes to understand often only gradually over the decades how some influences from our earlier life have affected us Some will have been inspiring Some will have given us direct models of how to behave or how not to behave Indeed it is often the case that the deeper an influence turns out to have been in the long run the less likely it is that we noticed it at the time it was happening For this reason it has become necessary to find the time to reflect on and express gratitude for the institutions that helped form who we are and the work that we do This collection of essays explores the impact of one institution on twenty five participants twenty five years after we worked together The Institution was Liverpool Hope University College and is now Liverpool Hope University By telling and reflecting on our stories we aim to encourage others to think about their own experiences and ultimately our earnest hope is that a greater awareness of this aspect of university life will help to transform our collective understanding of the nature of universities in particular and of communities institutions or societies in general But there was something special about belonging to a community called Hope The Resilient City Lawrence J. Vale, Thomas J. Campanella, 2005-01-20 In 1871 the city of Chicago was almost entirely destroyed by what became known as The Great Fire Thirty five years later San Francisco lay in smoldering ruins after the catastrophic earthquake of 1906 Or consider the case of the Jerusalem the greatest site of physical destruction and renewal in history which over three millennia has suffered wars earthquakes fires twenty sieges eighteen reconstructions and at least eleven transitions from one religious faith to another Yet this ancient city has regenerated itself time and again and still endures Throughout history cities have been sacked burned torched bombed flooded besieged and leveled And yet they almost always rise from the ashes to rebuild Viewing a wide array of urban disasters in global historical perspective The Resilient City traces the aftermath of such cataclysms as the British invasion of Washington in 1814 the devastation wrought on Berlin Warsaw and Tokyo during World War II the late 20th century earthquakes that shattered Mexico City and the Chinese city of Tangshan Los Angeles after the 1992 riots the Oklahoma City bombing the destruction of the World Trade Center Revealing how traumatized city dwellers consistently develop narratives of resilience and how the pragmatic process of urban recovery is always fueled by highly symbolic actions The Resilient City offers a deeply informative and unsentimental tribute to the dogged persistence of the city and indeed of the human spirit A Call for Character Education and Prayer in the Schools William H. Jeynes, 2009-11-24 This book offers an examination of the related topics of school prayer and character education in the United States advocating for their return to public schools According to William Jeynes the lack of both school prayer and consistent moral instruction in our schools has had devastating consequences both for our education system and for the nation as a whole In A Call for Character Education and Prayer in the Schools Jeynes makes a compelling case for restoring moral instruction and nonspecific religious moments to the classroom as a way of restoring a much needed moral grounding in American society in general A Call for Character Education and Prayer in the Schools traces the history of character education in the public schools including coverage of leading advocates of their inclusion from Thomas Jefferson to DeWitt Clinton to Horace Mann Jeynes then offers a broad survey of the country since the Supreme Court decisions of 1962 and 1963 asserting that most of America's greatest problems are moral in nature and could be addressed by making moral instruction and a focus on the spiritual a part of our voung citizens school lives Gays and Grays Donal Godfrey, 2008-04-01 This book tells the story of a unique Catholic Parish Most Holy Redeemer Parish in San Francisco The story tells how the original parishioners the gray accepted the new gay community especially in response to the AIDS epidemic Communicating in the Third Space Karin Ikas, Gerhard Wagner, 2008-10-05 Communicating in the Third Space aims to clarify Homi K Bhabha's theory of the third space of enunciation by reconstructing its philosophical sociological geographical and political meaning with attention to the special advantages and ambiguities that arise as it is applied in practical as well as theoretical contexts. The idea of third space conceives the encounter of two distinct and unequal social groups as taking place in a special third space of enunciation where culture is disseminated and displaced from the interacting groups making way for the invention of a hybrid identity whereby these two groups conceive themselves to partake in a common identity relating to shared space and common dialogue The essays collected in Communicating in the Third Space including a preface by Bhabha himself brilliantly introduce readers to this exciting topic in Cultural and Post Colonial theory and offers insightful elaboration and critique of the meaning and relevance of life in the third space With a preface by Homi K Bhabha Song of the Nightingale Michael Ford, 2005 Drawing on naturalistic imagery from the poetry of St John of the Cross Ford invites readers to join him as he retraces the steps of his own spiritual pilgrimage Catholic The Foundation of Hope R. John Elford, 2003-01-01 The Foundation of Hope is both a celebration and an analysis of the creation of Liverpool Hope University College in 1996 and of some of its achievements to date during an exciting period in British higher education The central focus is the student experience at Hope University College Contributors also examine the way that teaching and research in theology have developed over the years and the important community regeneration work Hope University College carries out in various areas of Liverpool Gay is a Gift Salvatore Sapienza, 2009-12 A discussion of Gay is a gift on the Oprah Winfrey Show inspired this inspirational pocket guide on gay spirituality which provides useful tools for uncovering your inner giftedness and discovering the true Spirit within This concise handbook shares the spiritual wisdom of gay shamans throughout history from the Native American Two Spirits to contemporaries like Ram Dass but does so in a very clear and simple manner giving readers step by step instructions for applying this wisdom to their own spiritual paths Former Catholic monk and Seventy Times Seven author Salvatore Sapienza also shares his own spiritual journey with readers helping them to unwrap their own unique gay gifts and to shine this special light on the world Think of Gay is a Gift as a Chicken Soup for the Gay Soul says Web Digest Weekly and gay spiritual writer Toby Johnson says Salvatore Sapienza's Gay is a Gift is itself a gift a sweet inspiring portrayal of gay consciousness as blessing along with a simple light hearted even fun spiritual practice for bringing more blessing into your life Disclosures Michael Ford, 2004 Michael Ford meets gay and lesbian Christians from the UK US and Africa to explore the essence of being gay and spiritual in the 21st century Across the globe Christians are fiercely debating the issue of homosexuality Whilst the arguments rage around the key issues such as the blessing of same sex marriages or the ordination of gay clergy there is a danger that the everyday experience of gay men and lesbian women who believe in and practise the Christian faith is being overlooked Disclosures is a ground breaking book in which Michael Ford meets gay and lesbian Christians from the UK US and Africa to explore the dynamics of being gay and spiritual in the twenty first century The moving and surprising portraits presented here give a fuller picture of the reality of life as a homosexual Christian Some stories are celebratory and hopeful such as the happy relationship between two Catholic mothers which rescued two women from the pain of failed marriages and single parenthood Other stories reveal a more shocking truth of psychological bullying and encouraged serial deceptions A thought provoking contribution to this debate
