Pain Woman Takes Your Keys, and Other Essays from a Nervous System Sonya Huber,2017 Rate your pain on a scale of one to ten What about on a scale of spicy to citrus Is it more like a lava lamp or a mosaic Pain though a universal element of human experience is dimly understood and sometimes barely managed Pain Woman Takes Your Keys and Other Essays from a Nervous System is a collection of literary and experimental essays about living with chronic pain Sonya Huber moves away from a linear narrative to step through the doorway into pain itself into that strange unbounded reality Although the essays are personal in nature this collection is not a record of the author's specific condition but an exploration that transcends pain's airless and constraining world and focuses on its edges from wild and widely ranging angles Huber addresses the nature and experience of invisible disability including the challenges of gender bias in our health care system the search for effective treatment options and the difficulty of articulating chronic pain She makes pain a lens of inquiry and lyricism finds its humor and complexity describes its irascible character and explores its temperature taste and even its beauty Gringa Melissa

Hart, 2009-09-22 Torn between the high socioeconomic status of her father and the bohemian lifestyle of her mother Melissa Hart tells a compelling story of contradiction in this coming of age memoir Set in 1970s Southern California Gringa is the story of a young girl conflicted by two extremes life with her mother who leaves her father to begin a lesbian relationship taking Hart and her two siblings along and her father's white bread well to do security which is predictable and stable and boring She tells of her mom's new life in a Hispanic neighborhood of Oxnard California and how these new surroundings begin to positively shape Hart herself Ultimately however a judge rules that being raised by two women is unnatural and grants her father primary custody Hart weaves a powerful story of fleeting moments with her mother of her unfolding adoration of Oxnard's Latino culture and of the ways in which she's molded by the polarity of her parents worldviews Gringa offers a touching reflective look at one girl's struggle with the dichotomies of class culture and sexuality Telling Stories Lee Martin, 2017 A prolific and award winning writer Lee Martin has put pen to paper to offer his wisdom honed during thirty years of teaching the oh so elusive art of writing Telling Stories is intended for anyone interested in thinking more about the elements of storytelling in short stories novels and memoirs Martin clearly delineates helpful and practical techniques for demystifying the writing process and provides tools for perfecting the art of the scene characterization detail point of view language and revision in short the art of writing His discussion of the craft in his own life draws from experiences memories and stories to provide a more personal perspective on the elements of writing Martin provides encouragement by sharing what he's learned from his journey through frustrations challenges and successes Most important Telling Stories emphasizes that you are not alone on this journey and that writers must remain focused on what they love the process of moving words on the page By focusing on that purpose Martin contends the journey will always take you where you're meant to go

Crafting The Personal Essay Dinty W. Moore, 2010-08-11 Award winning essayist Scott Russell Sanders once compared the art of essay writing to the pursuit of mental rabbits a rambling through thickets of thought in search of some brief glimmer of fuzzy truth While some people persist in the belief that essays are stuffy and antiquated the truth is that the personal essay is an ever changing creative medium that provides an ideal vehicle for satisfying the human urge to document truths as we experience them and share them with others to capture a bit of life on paper Crafting the Personal Essay is

Xenotropism and the Awakening of Literary Expatriatism through Writing Memoirs Christine Velde, 2016-08-03 Although there have been many discussions about challenges faced by individuals going through East to West migrations there are few literary accounts about those moving from the West to the East Yet these migrations are becoming more frequent now due to advances in technology and the fact that a writer's work can now involve an increasingly global audience One way of expressing these challenges is through writing memoirs Xenotropism and the Awakening of Literary Expatriatism through Writing Memoirs exemplifies the craft of memoirs written while living in a foreign country and explains how this is different from writing from home The book is a theoretical analysis of xenotropism based on the work of three prominent writers in China's history Emily Hahn Nien Cheng and Qiu Xiaolong The author explores the relationship between xenotropism turning towards foreign ideals and practices its complexities and challenges and the writing of a memoir and its impact on mental health This discourse will contribute to new knowledge in the field of creative writing and Asian studies by illustrating how xenotropism or turning towards foreign ideals and practices results in both personal and artistic development and builds an understanding and acceptance of different cultures within an individual These processes of change and understanding in turn facilitate the writing of a memoir which is a cathartic process having a positive effect on one's mental state Readers interested in creative writing or Asian literary studies will be able to understand the creative process behind writing memoirs from a combination of personal research based literary and theoretical perspectives Family Trouble Joy
