Feminism In Islam Secular And Religious Convergences:

Feminism in Islam Margot Badran, 2013-10-01 While many in the West regard feminism and Islam as a contradiction in terms many Muslims in the East have perceived Western feminist forces in their midst as an assault upon their culture In this career spanning collection of influential essays Margot Badran presents the feminisms that Muslim women have created and examines Islamic and secular feminist ideologies side by side Borne out of over two decades of work this important volume combines essays from a variety of sources ranging from those which originated as conference papers to those published in the popular press Also including original material written specifically for this book Feminism and Islam provides a unique and wide ranging contribution to the field of Islam and gender studies Secular and Islamic Feminist Critiques in the Work of Fatima Mernissi Raja Rhouni, 2010 This book presents a detailed critical analysis of the work of Fatima Mernissi Mernissi is considered to be one of the major figures in Feminist thought for both Morocco and Muslim society in general This work discusses Mernissi's intellectual trajectory from secular to Islamic feminism in order to trace the evolution of so called Islamic feminist theory The book also engages critically with the work of other Muslim feminists using frameworks and approaches developed in the works of Muslim reformist thinkers namely Mohammed Arkoun and Nasr Abu Zaid with the aim of engaging the theorization of this emerging Feminism

Alternative Islamic Discourses and Religious Authority Susanne Olsson, Carool Kersten, 2016-03-23 Like anywhere else the present day Islamic world too is grappling with modernity and postmodernity secularisation and globalisation Muslims are raising questions about religious representations and authority This has given rise to the emergence of alternative Islamic discourses which challenge binary oppositions and dichotomies of orthodoxy and heterodoxy continuity and change state and civil society It also leads to a dispersal of authority a collapse of existing hierarchical structures and gender roles This book further argues that the centre of gravity of many of these alternative Islamic discourses is shifting from the Arabic speaking heartland towards the geographical peripheries of the Muslim world and expatriate Muslims in North America and Europe At the same time in view of recent seismic shifts in the political constellation of the Middle East the trends discussed in this book hold important clues for the possible direction of future developments in that volatile part of the Muslim world

Persian Language, Literature and Culture Kamran Talattof, 2015-03-05 Critical approaches to the study of topics related to Persian literature and Iranian culture have evolved in recent decades The essays included in this volume collectively demonstrate the most recent creative approaches to the study of the Persian language literature and culture and the way these methodologies have progressed academic debate Topics covered include culture cognition history the social context of literary criticism the problematics of literary modernity and the issues of writing literary history More specifically authors explore the nuances of these topics literature and life poetry and nature culture and literature women and literature freedom of literature Persian language power and censorship and issues related to translation and translating Persian literature in particular In dealing with these seminal subjects contributors acknowledge and contemplate the works of Ahmad Karimi Hakkak and other pioneering critics analysing how these works have influenced the field of literary and cultural studies Contributing a variety of theoretical and interdisciplinary approaches to this field of study this book is a valuable addition to the study of Persian poetry and prose and to literary criticism more broadly

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Religion, Gender and Sexuality Sonya Sharma, Dawn Llewellyn, Sian Hawthorne, 2024-06-13 Bringing together disciplines across the arts humanities and social sciences this Handbook presents novel and lively examinations of the dynamic ways religion gender and sexuality operate Applying feminist intersectional and reflexive approaches the volume aims to loosen imperialist and exclusionary figurations that have underwritten and tethered religion gender and sexuality together While holding onto the field of inquiry the Handbook offers contributions that interrogate and untie it from the terms and conditions that have formed it The volume is organized into thematic sections Forces and Futures Activisms and Labors Agencies and Practices Relationships and Institutions Texts and Objects Chapters range across religious geographical historical political and social contexts and feature an array of case studies experiences and topics that exemplify the reflexive intention of the volume including explorations of race whiteness colonialism and the institutional intolerance of minority groups Contributors also advance new areas of research in religion including artificial intelligence farming migrant mothering child sexual abuse mediatization national security legal frameworks addiction and recovery decolonial hermeneutics creative arts sport sexual practices and academic friendship This is an essential contribution to the fields of religious studies and gender and sexuality studies

Islam and Postcolonial Discourse Esra Mirze Santesso, James McClung, 2017-01-27 Largely though not exclusively as a legacy of the 2001 attack on the World Trade Center Islamic faith has become synonymous in many corners of the media and academia with violence which many believe to be its primary mode of expression The absence of a sophisticated recognition of the wide range of Islamic subjectivities within contemporary culture has created a void in which misinterpretations and hostilities thrive Responding to the growing importance of religion specifically Islam as a cultural signifier in the formation of a postcolonial self this multidisciplinary collection is organized around contested terms such as secularism Islamopolitics female identity and Islamophobia The overarching goal of the contributors is to facilitate a deeper understanding of the full range of experiences within Islam as well as the figure of the Muslim thus enabling a new set of questions about religion's role in shaping postcolonial identity

Routledge Handbook of Islam in the West Roberto Tottoli, 2022-02-21 With new topics and contributions this updated second edition discusses the history and contemporary presence of Islam in Europe and America The book debates the relevance and multi faceted participation of Muslims in the dynamics of Western societies challenging the changing perception on both sides Collating over 30 chapters written by experts from around the world the volume presents a wide range of perspectives Case studies from the Muslim presence in the Iberian Peninsula between the Middle Ages and the modern age set off the Handbook along with an outline of Muslims in America up to the twentieth century The second part covers concepts around new conditions in terms of consolidating identities the emergence of new Muslim actors the appearance of institutions and institutional attitudes the effects of Islamic presence on the arts and landscapes of the West and the relational dynamics like ethics and gender Exploring the influence of Islam particularly its impact on society culture and politics this interdisciplinary volume is a key resource for policymakers academics and students interested in the history of Islam religion and the contemporary relationship between Islam and the West

Kassam, 2010-10-21 This balanced exploration provides the basis for an energetic engagement with what it means to be a Muslim woman in a globalized world The expert essays in Women and Islam are designed to stimulate discussion and help readers achieve a more sober understanding of the lives of Muslim women around the world They explore the issues Muslim women face as they fight for gender justice and meet the challenges of living in a globalized post 9 11 world whether in Iran or France Ethiopia or the United States Each chapter examines a different part of the globe exploring issues arising from cultural and religious codes as well as from internal and global politics economics education and the law Readers will glimpse the many and diverse ways in which Muslim women are actively involved in addressing the conditions embedded in their discrete environments and taking up the opportunities afforded to them adopting strategies ranging from the political to the legal from the theatrical to the religious

Toward a Positive Psychology of Islam and Muslims Nausheen Pasha-Zaidi, 2021-07-15 This book integrates research in positive psychology Islamic psychology and Muslim wellbeing in one volume providing a view into the international experiential and spiritual lives of a religious group that represents over 24% of the world's population It incorporates Western psychological paradigms such as the theories of Jung Freud Maslow and Seligman with Islamic ways of knowing while highlighting the struggles and successes of minoritized Muslim groups including the LGBTQ community Muslims with autism Afghan Shiite refugees and the Uyghur community in China It fills a unique position at the crossroad of multiple social science disciplines including the psychology of religion cultural psychology and positive psychology By focusing on the ways in which spirituality struggle and social justice can lead to purpose hope and a meaningful life the book contributes to scholarship within the second wave of positive psychology PP 2 0 that aims to illustrate a balance between positive and negative aspects of human experience While geared towards students researchers and academic scholars of psychology culture and religious studies particularly Muslim studies this book is also useful for general audiences who are interested in learning about the diversity of Islam and Muslims through a research based social science approach

Women and Peace in the Islamic World Yasmin Saikia, Chad Haines, 2015-01-20 How realistic is the prospect of peace in the Muslim world This question is the predominant focus for global analysis today but its debate frequently ignores the cultural and social complexity of the Muslim world reducing it into a system of states and select actors This book addresses such a failing by exploring how the everyday interactions of women in accordance with Islamic personal ethics can offer the world a new interpretation of peace In particular it focuses on the women in Islamic societies from Aceh to Bosnia Morocco to Bangladesh initiating a dialogue on the role of these women in peacemaking This concentration upon the complex issues of the everyday both enables a detailed exploration of how people conceptualise peace and opens up new frameworks for conflict resolution The discussions that emerge lead to a critical questioning of assumptions about peace as a state policy and cessation of violence Drawing upon original research from different parts of the Middle East North Africa and Asia including Iran India Afghanistan Bangladesh Bosnia Egypt and Sudan the contributors offer a refreshing new look at Muslim women as peacemakers challenging any assumptions of Islam as an inherently violent religion Such a timely work provides new and important analyses on the role of Muslim women in forging new pathways of peace in the contemporary world

Gender Politics in Transition Eva Schmidt, 2019-11-11 Eva Schmidt analyses how power relations ideas and institutions in Tunisian gender politics changed during the democratisation process 2011 2014 Her analysis of gender politics offers a productive lens to understand the course of the Tunisian transition As gender policies are integral to Tunisian national identity they became a major battlefield in the fight for political inclusion and exclusion In this context liberal and leftist feminists accessed the decision making institutions and enhanced the existing women s rights legislation Yet the intertwinement of modernist nationalism with women s rights also limited the scope for feminist demands This book contributes a unique case study to political transatology and advances an original theoretical approach based on Bourdieu s theory of the political field

Europe, the USA and Political Islam M. Pace, 2015-12-04 A study of the attempts by the US and EU to develop meaningful political relations with Islamist movements in the Middle East and Balkans The contributors draw on extensive research on Islamist parties and movements and Western policy towards them over the past decade

Muslim Women and Agency: an Australian Context Ghena Krayem, Susan Carland, 2021-11-01 Muslim women s freedom or assumed lack thereof has long been a Western obsession Almost never do we ask what does agency look like to Muslim women Who or what do they think constrains them and how do they challenge that Focussing on the little researched area of the Australian Muslim community this book brings together for the first time diverse accounts from Australian Muslim researchers leaders and community workers to interrogate how Muslim women understand experience and fight for agency Academic and activist personal and political this ground breaking book features the people at the centre of the debate Contributors are Feda Abdo Amira Aftab Mahsheed Ansari Fadi Baghdadi Susan Carland Tasneem Chopra Mehreen Faruqi Derya Iner Balawyn Jones Souha Korbatieh Ghena Krayem Mehal Krayem and Ayah Wehbe Muslim Mothering: Global Histories, Theries and Practises M. Aziza Pappano,2016-06-01 Muslim Mothering is an interdisciplinary volume concentrating on the experiences of Muslim mothers largely in the contemporary period The volume is notable for the global range of its contributors and topics indicative of the number of Muslim majority national contexts and large and diverse Muslim diaspora of today s world While motherhood is highly valued in the sacred texts of Islam the lived reality of Muslim mothers demonstrates that their lives do not often conform with traditional religious paradigms For instance prominent among the themes uniting these essays from diverse global contexts are the challenges facing Muslim mothers to protect and nurture their children in the context of war and militarization With ongoing turbulence in the Middle East and subcontinent many Muslims mothers face the difficulties of rearing children amongst frequent bombings and episodes of violence Muslim mothers living in the diaspora face other challenges such as the difficulty of fostering positive Muslim identity as a minority and in a context of Islamophobia Other contributions discuss the way that Muslim mothers negotiate cultural institutions and practices such as divorce adoption guardianship post partum confinement and societal religious expectations of procreation This collection demonstrates the diverse and complex ways that Muslim mothers define and redefine the resources of Islam to negotiate better situations for themselves and their children revealing how religious identity is a dynamic and vital force in their everyday lives The Gülen Hizmet Movement Tamer Balci,Christopher L. Miller,2013-01-03 This volume covers the origins historical development and ideas of one of the largest and most influential Islamic movements in the world the G len Hizmet Movement GHM Founded during the Cold War under the inspiration of M Fethullah G len the GHM expanded to over 130 countries by the first decade of the twenty first century The movement s circumspect activism sheltered it from illiberal secular practices in Turkey and has guided it through the anxious post Cold War process of globalization This edited volume covers various characteristics of the movement from G len s unconventional oratory to his educational philosophy In addition the book covers G len s ideas on Islam and democracy and the GHM s indirect political engagement compared to the direct engagement of the Muslim Brotherhood Other chapters in the book cover the role of women in the movement the GHM s creation of an alternative public sphere for pious Muslims and the tension this creation instills in light of Secularism Theory which is analyzed comparatively with American religious pluralism The last two chapters question the effectiveness of interfaith dialogue activities promoted by the movement s adherents A concluding section seeks to synthesize this interdisciplinary scholarship in order to assess the GHM s overall gestalt as a social movement Women, Entrepreneurship and Development in the Middle East Beverly Dawn Metcalfe,Bettina Lynda Bastian,Haya

Al-Dajani,2021-12-20 The Middle East was the region least impacted in the 2008 crisis has investment systems markedly different to the West is largely governed by Islamic Shari a and has varying forms of governance and institutional organization which are not understood by many nor how these systems shape entrepreneurial and industrial development While the Middle East as a region has seen a small growth in entrepreneurship for women and business scholarship on the Middle East has grown there is no text in English that has brought critical insights from the Middle East together in a single volume In examining women s entrepreneurship in the Middle East this book aims to challenge Global North assumptions about the disempowering impacts of Islamic Shari a and governance Referring to the constraints of Islam on women s subjectivity and agency greatly misunderstands religious identity of both men and women and the way in which public administration and private sector institutions are organized in very different ways to Western regions This timely text expands and adds new insights to the theorizations of women s entrepreneurship in the Middle East through unravelling spatialized themes and incorporates contemporary themes including an Islamic science reading of women work and venturing changing families and entrepreneurship development women managing social crises Islamization governance and women Islamic feminist activisms and entrepreneurship representations of women s entrepreneurship on social media and women s collectives leading entrepreneurship via Facebook entrepreneurship It will be of interest to researchers academics and students in the fields of entrepreneurship gender work and organizations The Oxford Handbook of Islam and Women

Asma Afsaruddin,2023 The Oxford Handbook of Islam and Women offers authoritative contributions from well known scholars whose sophisticated and cutting edge research explores the diversity of Muslim women s lives and their accomplishments challenging common stereotypes that are particularly prevalent in the West Mainstreaming the Headscarf Esra Özcan,2019-11-14 With the rise to power of the Justice and Development Party AKP in the early 2000s in Turkey the headscarf that used be looked down upon by the secular middle and upper classes moved to the mainstream It has since become a symbol of desirable womanhood This development has pushed Turkey s secular feminists who had been critical of the headscarf ban to the margins This book is the first to trace this new phase of conservative gender politics by examining the images of women s headscarves across secular and Islamic news media Based on the analysis of photographs and the columns of conservative women journalists the book sheds light on how the AKP is transforming the image of womanhood It also identifies the rise of the conservative female journalist as an important phenomenon in the country Esra zcan problematizes designators such as Islamist women or Islamic feminists and instead aims to understand these women in terms of their commitment to right wing activism and politics which has so far been ignored An original contribution to feminist scholarship on Muslim women this book draws on the unique perspectives of Visual Culture and Communication Studies Islam, Gender, and Democracy in Comparative Perspective Jocelyne Cesari,José Casanova,2017-04-14 The relationship between secularism democracy religion and gender equality has been a complex one across Western democracies and still remains contested When we turn to Muslim countries the situation is even more multifaceted In the views of many western commentators the question of Women Rights is the litmus test for Muslim societies in the age of democracy and liberalism Especially since the Arab Awakening the issue is usually framed as the opposition between liberal advocates of secular democracy and religious opponents of women s full equality Islam Gender and Democracy in Comparative Perspective critically re engages this too simple binary opposition by reframing the debate around Islam and women s rights within a broader comparative literature Bringing together leading scholars from a range of disciplines it examines the complex and contingent historical relationships between religion secularism democracy law and gender equality Part One addresses the nexus of religion law gender and democracy through different disciplinary perspectives sociology anthropology political science law Part Two localizes the implementation of this nexus between law gender and democracy and provides contextualized responses to questions raised in Part One The contributors explore the situation of Muslim women s rights in minority conditions to shed light on the gender politics in the modernization of the nation and to ponder on the role of Islam in gender inequality across different Muslim countries
