Feminism The Essential Historical Writings:

Feminism Miriam Schneir, 1994-06-28 This essential volume brings together more than forty of the most important historical writings on feminism covering 150 years of the struggle for women's freedom. Spanning the American Revolution to the first decades of the twentieth century, these works, many long out of print or forgotten, are finally brought out of obscurity and into the light of contemporary analysis and criticism. This richly diverse collection contains excerpts from books, essays, speeches, documents, and letters, as well as poetry, drama, and fiction by major feminist writers including Elizabeth Cady Stanton, George Sand, Mary Wollstonecraft, Abigail Adams, Emma Goldman, Friedrich Engels, Sojourner Truth, Susan B. Anthony, John Stuart Mill, Margaret Sanger, Virginia Woolf, and many others. The pieces in Feminism: The Essential Historical Writings cover the crucial challenges faced by women, including marriage as an instrument of oppression, a woman's desire to control her own body, the economic independence of women, and the search for selfhood, and extensive commentaries by the editor help the reader see the historical context of each selection.

Feminism Miriam Schneir, 1992 Feminism Miriam Schneir (Comp), 1972 The Many and the One Richard Madsen, Tracy B. Strong, 2009-01-10 The war on terrorism says America's leaders is a war of Good versus Evil. But in the minds of the perpetrators, the September 11 attacks on New York and Washington were presumably justified as ethically good acts against American evil. Is such polarization leading to a violent clash of civilizations, or can differences between ethical systems be reconciled through rational dialogue? This book provides an extraordinary resource for thinking clearly about the diverse ways in which humans see good and evil. In nine essays and responses, leading thinkers ask how ethical pluralism can be understood by classical liberalism, liberal egalitarianism, critical theory, feminism, natural law, Confucianism, Islam, Judaism, and Christianity. Each essay addresses five questions: Is the ideal society ethically uniform or diverse? Should the state protect, ban, or otherwise intervene in ethically based differences? How should disagreements on the rights and duties of citizens be dealt with? Should the state regulate life and death decisions such as euthanasia? To what extent should conflicting views on sexual relationships be accommodated? This book shows that contentious questions can be discussed with both incisiveness and civility. The editors provide the introduction and Donald Moon the conclusion. The contributors are Brian Barry, Joseph Boyle, Simone Chambers, Joseph Chan, Christine Di Stefano, Dale F. Eickelman, Menachem Fisch, William Galston, John Haldane, Chandran Kukathas, David Little, Muhammad Khalid Masud, Carole Pateman, William F. Scheuerman, Adam B. Seligman, James W. Skillen, James Tully, and Lee H. Yearley.

Feminism in Our Time Miriam Schneir, 1994-06-28 Gathers a selection of modern feminist writings by Simone de Beauvoir, Betty Friedan, Kate Millett, Susan Brownmiller, Germaine Greer, Gloria Steinem, and Andrea Dworkin.

The Vintage Book Of Historical Feminism Miriam Schneir, 2012-06-30 Here are the essential historical writings of feminism. Many of the works long out of print or forgotten in what Miriam Schneir describes as a male-dominated literary tradition are finally brought out of obscurity and into the light of contemporary analysis and criticism. Included are more than forty selections covering 150 years of writing on women's struggle for freedom from Mary Wollstonecraft and George Sand to Emma Goldman and Clara Zetkin. Ungrateful Daughters Justyna Włodarczyk, 2010-08-11 Has the third wave of feminism in the United States spawned a literary movement? Is there a third wave equivalent of the consciousness-raising novel? A lot has been written about the relationship of the third wave of feminism in the United States to the second wave, yet no one has examined works by young female writers as belonging to the third wave of feminism. This book fills the gap. Using tools of literary criticism to analyze the literary output of third wave feminism in the United States, Ungrateful Daughters looks at the main anthologies of third wave writings, paying attention to their structure, production process, and narrative forms used in the individual pieces. It also attempts to define third wave fiction and analyze the memoirs and novels coming from writers who could be classified as third wave, specifically Rebecca Walker, Danzy Senna, and Michelle Tea, tracing how these books exhibit third wave sensibility and reflect generational experiences of third wave writers. A lot of attention is devoted to comparisons of second and third wave feminism and the ambivalent relationship of third wave feminism to postfeminism. Wendy Kaminer wrote in True Love Waits: "If it ultimately fails as a liberation movement, feminism will at least have achieved considerable literary success." Ungrateful Daughters examines whether the literary success helps or hinders the cause of women's liberation. The SAGE Handbook of Rhetorical Studies Andrea A. Lunsford, Kirt H. Wilson, Rosa A. Eberly, 2008-10-29 The SAGE Handbook of Rhetorical Studies surveys the latest advances in rhetorical scholarship, synthesizing theories and practices across major areas of study in the field and pointing the way for future studies. Edited by Andrea A. Lunsford and Associate Editors Kirt H. Wilson and Rosa A. Eberly, the Handbook aims to introduce a new generation of students to rhetorical study and provide a deeply informed and ready resource for scholars currently working in the field. Key Features: Brings together scholars from across the disciplines of Speech Communication, English, and Writing Studies. While rhetoric is by definition interdisciplinary, self-identified scholars in the field are most often institutionally separated from one another. This Handbook bridges this divide by providing a refreshing range of transdisciplinary views on the nature, status, definition, and scope of rhetoric today. Offers a thorough, going-overview of rhetorical studies today. Organized in four sections: Historical Studies in Rhetoric; Rhetoric Across the Disciplines; Rhetoric and Pedagogy; and Rhetoric and Public Discourse. The volume provides a single resource for engaging rhetorical studies. Underscores the importance of rhetoric to education across a wide range of disciplines, as well as to effective participation in public arenas. Thus, the volume connects rhetoric's long teaching tradition to an activist agenda for informed civic engagement. Addresses methodological and theoretical difficulties and offers means of negotiating them. Provides one of the first introductions to rhetorical studies across cultures and to the related debates concerning comparative and contrastive rhetorics. Encyclopedia of Women Social Reformers Helen Rappaport, 2001-12-06 The first comprehensive guide to women activists from every part of the world, illuminating the broad range of women's struggles to reform society from the 18th century to the present. Despite being marginalized disenfranchised impoverished and oppressed women have always stepped forward in disproportionate numbers to lead movements for social change This two volume encyclopedia documents the visions struggles and lives of women who have changed the world This encyclopedia celebrates the lives and achievements of nearly 300 women from around the globe women who have bravely insisted that the way things are is not the way they have to be Nadeshda Krupskaya the wife of Lenin spearheaded the drive against illiteracy in post revolutionary Russia American Dorothy Day founded the Catholic worker movement Begum Rokeya Hossain organized a girls school in Calcutta in 1911 Rachel Carson launched the modern environmental movement with her book Silent Spring The stories of these women and the hundreds of others collected here will restore missing pages to our history and inspire a new generation of women to change the world

Canon Fodder Penny A. Weiss, 2015-11-09 This book is an exercise in the recovery of historical memory about a set of thinkers who have been forgotten or purposely ignored and as a result never made it into the canon of Western political philosophy Penny Weiss calls them canon fodder recalling the fate of soldiers in war who are treated by their governments and military leaders as expendable Despite some real progress at recovery over the past few decades and the now frequent references to a few female thinkers like Mary Wollstonecraft Hannah Arendt and Simone de Beauvoir the surface has only been scratched and the rich resources of women's writings about political ideas remain still largely untapped Included here and intended to further whet the palate are figures from Sei Sh nagon Christine de Pizan and Mary Astell to Elizabeth Cady Stanton Anna Julia Cooper and Emma Goldman Restoring female thinkers to the conversation of political philosophy is the primary goal of this book Part I deploys a range of these thinkers to discuss the nature of political inquiry itself Part II focuses on alternative approaches to and visions of core political ideas equality power revolution childhood and community While mainly an intellectual act of revival this book also affects practical political life because remote and academic as they sometimes appear debates about what to include in the canon ultimately touch almost everyone students handed texts from lists of great books to guide them and citizens whose governments justify their actions with ideas from political texts deemed classic

The Artistry of Anger Linda M. Grasso, 2003-04-03 In this compelling interdisciplinary study Linda Grasso demonstrates that using anger as a mode of analysis and the basis of an aesthetic transforms our understanding of American women's literary history Exploring how black and white nineteenth century women writers defined expressed and dramatized anger Grasso reconceptualizes antebellum women's writing and illuminates an unrecognized tradition of discontent in American literature She maintains that two equally powerful forces shaped this tradition women's anger at their exclusion from the democratic promise of America and the cultural prohibition against its public articulation Grasso challenges the common notion that nineteenth century women's writing is confined to domestic themes and shows instead how women channeled their anger into art that addresses complex political issues such as slavery nation building gender arrangements and race relations Cutting across racial and genre boundaries she considers works by Lydia Maria Child Maria W Stewart Fanny Fern and Harriet Wilson as superb examples of the artistry of angry expression Transforming their anger through literary imagination these writers bequeathed their vision of an alternative
