Feminist Knowledge Critique And Construct:

Feminist Knowledge (RLE Feminist Theory) Sneja Gunew, 2013-05-20 The minority feminist viewpoints have often been submerged in the interests of maintaining a mainstream universal model of feminism This anthology takes into account the various differences among women while looking at the important areas of feminist struggle While sisterhood is indeed global it certainly does not mean that all women are required to submerge their specific differences and assimilate to a universal model Consequently the collection includes essays by leaders in the field of post structuralist enquiry as well as by those immersed in the new spirituality and the social consequences of recent biological research Other essays reflect the political struggles which continue to be waged with different strategies by socialist and radical feminists and the self searching analyses undertaken by feminists uneasy about their inclusion within educational institutions and the radical new interpretations of sexuality within the cultural domain The collection begins with a critique of white mainstream feminism emanating from Aboriginal women in Australia The implications of the critique indicate that there is a pervasive racism within the feminist movement

Feminist Knowledge Sneja Gunew, 2012-10-11 This collection contains essays by leaders in the field of post structuralist enquiry as well as by those immersed in the new spirituality and the social consequences of recent biological research Other essays reflect political struggles being waged with different strategies by radical feminists and the analyses undertaken by feminists uneasy about their inclusion within educational institutions and the radical new interpretations of sexuality within the cultural domain

Feminist Knowledge as Critique and Construct Margaret Greener, Deakin University, 1985 Routledge Library Editions: Feminist Theory Various, 2021-04-28 Routledge Library Editions Feminist Theory brings together as one set or individual volumes a series of previously out of print classics from a variety of academic imprints With titles ranging from The Liberation of Women to Feminists and State Welfare from Married to the Job to Julia Kristeva this set provides in one place a wealth of important reference sources from the diverse field of gender studies

Feminist Knowledge as Critique and Construct. Unit A. Study Guide, 1987 From Revolution to Deconstruction Pam Papademos, 2010 Feminist theory is no longer guiding the development of policy interventions in Australia because it is seen to be irrelevant to modern women Many leading feminists are locked into a politics that is based on liberal or socialist principles and do not want or know how to move away from these even when this type of politics is failing to change many women's circumstances This book confronts feminism and challenges its relationship to philosophy which the author argues impacts on the reception of poststructural theories like deconstruction It provides a narrative of why the potential for deconstruction has been denied as well as where it has been taken on It gives an account of deconstruction that tackles some of its more difficult aspects namely its political applications The book also outlines the history of Women's Studies as a discipline that is its institutionalization and identifies its theoretical concerns as a social movement with a political agenda The book maps deconstruction's impact on feminism in Australia and more specifically its introduction to Women's Studies programs

The Mind's Affective Life Gemma Fiumara Corradi, 2014-06-11 The Mind's Affective Life is a refreshing and innovative examination of the relationship between feeling and thinking Our thoughts and behaviour are shaped by both our emotions and reason yet until recently most of the literature analysing thought has concentrated largely on philosophical reasoning and neglected emotions This book is an original and provocative contribution to the rapidly growing literature on the neglected affective dimensions of modern thought The author draws on contemporary psychoanalysis philosophy feminist theory and recent innovations in neuroscience to argue that in order to understand thought we need to consider not only both emotional and rational aspects of thought but also the complex interactions between these different aspects Only through such a rich and complicated understanding of modern thought can we hope to avoid what the author identifies as a significant contemporary problem for individuals and cultures that is suppression or denial of intolerable states of feeling The Mind's Affective Life will appeal to and inspire students and practitioners of philosophy psychoanalysis psychotherapy and women's studies It will also be of great interest to anyone interested in the interaction of feeling and thinking

Postfeminisms Ann Brooks, 2002-09-11 Once seen as synonymous with anti feminism postfeminism is now understood as the theoretical meeting ground between feminism and anti foundationalist movements such as postmodernism post structuralism and post colonialism In this clear exposition of some of the major debates theorists and practitioners Ann Brooks shows how feminism is being redefined for the twenty first century Individual chapters look at postfeminism in relation to feminist epistemology Foucault psychoanalytic theory and semiology postmodernism and postcolonialism cultural politics popular culture film and media and sexuality and identity For all students looking for guidance through the sometimes murky waters of contemporary feminist theory this book will provide a reassuring first port of call

Modern Feminist Thought Imelda Whelehan, 1995-07 This introduction provides a critical survey of the dominant trends in Anglo American feminist thought since 1968 From the historical roots of second wave feminism to current debates about feminist theory and politics it sets out the different philosophies and political positions before relating them to feminism in the 1990s Chapters analyse issues such as sexuality representation consciousness raising and ideology from liberal socialist radical black and lesbian feminist perspectives Current crises which threaten to divide the women's movement are discussed such as men in feminism postmodernism and the notion of a backlash fuelled by detractors like Camille Paglia and Kate Roiphe

Curriculum as Contestation Suellen Shay, Tai L. Peseta, 2019-12-18 In 2015 a social movement swept across the South African higher education sector fuelled by the anger of the born free generation the students born into post apartheid South Africa The movement found solidarity in other parts of the globe where the past decade has witnessed the rise of student protests in the UK the US Chile Turkey and Hong Kong to name a few While the demands are specific to national contexts

the underlying obstacles of economic cultural and political access into higher education are consistent These protests have put a spotlight on the global academy that like the society of which it is a part is increasingly characterized by inequality At its core these movements call for a more socially just higher education system This call is profoundly dissonant to the dominant neoliberal discourses currently shaping higher education Against the backdrop of these discourses there has been an unprecedented pressure on higher education curricula This edited collection is dedicated to exploring what a socially just curriculum reform agenda might involve The authors share a commitment to socially just curricula and a concern about the ways in which curricula are deeply implicated in the processes of producing and reproducing inequality Each chapter opens up a different vista on the contested curriculum space drawing on a range of theoretical tools Archer Bernstein Giroux and Maton to name a few to illuminate the contestation Perhaps even more importantly they also draw on a range of voices from both inside and outside the academy This book was originally published as a special issue of Teaching in Higher Education

Gender and Sexuality Chris Beasley, 2005-05-20 About various theories of gender sexuality feminism and masculinity including queer theory transgender theorizing modernist liberationism and social constructionism Research as Resistance, 2e Leslie Allison Brown, Susan Strega, 2015 Gender Space Architecture Iain Borden, Barbara Penner, Jane Rendell, 2002-09-11 This significant reader brings together for the first time the most important essays concerning the intersecting subjects of gender space and architecture Carefully structured and with numerous introductory essays it guides the reader through theoretical and multi disciplinary texts to direct considerations of gender in relation to particular architectural sites projects and ideas This collection marks a seminal point in gender and architecture both summarizing core debates and pointing toward new directions and discussions for the future Unmasking the Masculine Alan R.

Petersen, Professor Alan Petersen, PH., 1998-07-08 Postmodernism and poststructuralism have undermined the assumptions upon which established identities have been constructed such as the concept of stable bodies and stable selves Sex gender sexuality and race are no longer viewed as merely descriptive aspects of experience but also as constructions of identity Drawing on current debates in postmodern feminism feminist philosophy of science anti racist postcolonial studies and queer theory this book considers the way in which discourse fabricates the ideal male body sexual identity and sexual politics Alan Petersen explores the possibilities of developing new models of identity not so closely linked to the sex gender system and examines the prospects of creating a new or reconceptualized identity politics Reader's Guide to Literature in English

Mark Hawkins-Dady, 2012-12-06 Reader's Guide Literature in English provides expert guidance to and critical analysis of the vast number of books available within the subject of English literature from Anglo Saxon times to the current American British and Commonwealth scene It is designed to help students teachers and librarians choose the most appropriate books for research and study Narrative Means to Sober Ends Jonathan Diamond, 2012-01-27 Working with clients who abuse drugs or alcohol poses formidable challenges to the clinician Addicted persons are often confronting multiple complex problems from the denial of the addiction itself to legacies of early trauma or abuse to histories of broken relationships with parents spouses and children Making matters more confusing the treatment field is too often splintered into different approaches each with its own competing claims This eloquently written book proposes a narrative approach that builds a much needed bridge between family therapy psychodynamic therapy and addictions counseling Demonstrated are innovative flexible ways to help clients form new understandings of what has happened in their lives explore their relationships to drugs and alcohol and develop new stories to guide and nourish their recovery The Limits of Human Rights Bardo

Fassbender,Knut Traisbach,2019 The continuous expansion of human rights can often appear to be positive yet it provokes criticism This volume argues against the internationalisation of human rights proving the world is moving from bilateralism to community interests stating contentious supervision evaluation and substitution are far more common than genuine cooperation
