Fatherless Daughters Pamela Thomas, 2018-03-27 A moving elegantly written and exhaustively researched account of what it means for a girl to lose a father to death or divorce with advice for fatherless daughters on how to cope People who lose their parents early in life are like fellow war veterans As soon as they discover that they are talking to someone else who has lost a parent they know they are speaking the same language without uttering a word Pamela Thomas gives voice to this unspoken pain in Fatherless Daughters Still haunted by her own father s death when she was ten Thomas decided to explore its effects Though her journey began as a personal one she soon felt the need to hear from other women and ended up interviewing more than one hundred fatherless women They ranged in age from nineteen to ninety four they came from all areas of the country as well as Europe and Asia some had lost their fathers to death others to divorce or abandonment Each account was unique but the impact of a father s loss was profound in every woman s life Thomas begins by defining what it means to be a father in our world She discusses the initial shock of his loss exploring the aspects that color how a young girl experiences it her age at the time of her father s death or abandonment her mother s behavior and attitudes her place in the family vis vis siblings and the influence of a stepfather or father surrogates Thomas shows how a father s early death or abandonment affects a woman s emotional health and self esteem her body image her sexual experiences her marriage her family life and her career Perhaps most important Thomas offers compassionate advice for coming to terms with father loss even late in life from actively mourning to healing to starting fresh

Parental Death Michelle Shreeve, 2018-04-20 According to a recent U S census approximately 2 5 million children under the age of eighteen have experienced the death of a parent Losing a parent at such a young age can have devastating consequences Beyond the grief children and young adults experience they can be at risk for many negative outcomes including depression anxiety and post traumatic stress symptoms as well as diminished self esteem Their academic success and relationships with others can also be adversely affected For these young adults help is not always easy to find In Parental Death The Ultimate Teen Guide Michelle Shreeve offers a variety of ways in which young people can cope with this tough experience In addition to outlining the universal difficulties of losing a parent the author also points out the unique dynamics of specific losses sons who lose fathers daughters who lose mothers sons who lose mothers and daughters who lose fathers and what those losses can mean for their future development This book also identifies how the challenges of life without a parent can affect a young adult at different stages Featuring real stories and quotes from teens about their experiences this book shows young adults a variety of views about the death of a parent and provides coping strategies that young people can call upon to help them through this difficulty Parental Death The Ultimate Teen Guide serves as a valuable resource for all teens whether they are dealing with tragedy personally or are looking for ways to console friends or siblings

The Five Ways We Grieve Susan A. Berger, 2011-03-08 In this new approach to understanding the impact of grief Susan A Berger goes beyond the commonly held theories of stages of grief with a new typology for self awareness and personal growth She offers practical advice for healing from a major loss in this presentation of five basic ways or types of grieving These five types describe how different people respond to a major loss The types are Nomads who have not yet resolved their grief and don't often understand how their loss has affected their lives Memorialists who are committed to preserving the memory of their loved ones by creating concrete memorials and rituals to honor them Normalizers who are committed to re-creating a sense of family and community Activists who focus on helping other people who are dealing with the same disease or issues that caused their loved one's death Seekers who adopt religious philosophical or spiritual beliefs to create meaning in their lives Drawing on research results and anecdotes from working with the bereaved over the past ten years Berger examines how a person's worldview is affected after a major loss According to her findings people experience significant changes in their sense of mortality their values and priorities their perception of and orientation toward time and the manner in which they fit in society The five types of grieving she finds reflect the choices people make in their efforts to adapt to dramatic life changes By identifying with one of the types readers who have suffered a recent loss or whose lives have been shaped by an early loss find ways of understanding the impact of the loss and of living more fully
