Federalism Feminism And Multilevel Governance Gender In A Globallocal World:

Federalism, Feminism and Multilevel Governance Marian Sawer, 2016-04-15 Until recently few gender scholars took notice of the impact of state architecture on women's representation, political opportunities and policy achievements. Likewise, scholars of federalism, devolution and multilevel governance have largely ignored their gender impact. For the first time, this book explores how women's politics is affected by and affects federalism, whether in Australia, Canada, India, Mexico, Nigeria, Russia or the US. Equally, it assesses the gender implications of devolution and multilevel governance in the European Union, including case studies of the UK and Germany. Globally, multilevel governance is providing new arenas for women's politics. For example, CEDAW, the UN Convention for the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women, has led most governments to adopt gender equality norms, while other UN instruments have supported Aboriginal self-government. Gender scholars will find especially valuable what is revealed about the impact of political architecture on a broad range of policy issues, including gay marriage, reproductive rights and childcare. Federalism scholars will benefit from the book's wide range of cases, comparative themes and combination of gender and federalism perspectives. Written by leading experts, this book fills an important gap in both literatures.

Haussman, Marian Sawer, Jill Vickers, 2010

Handbook on Gender, Diversity and Federalism Jill Vickers, Joan

Grace, Cheryl N. Collier, 2020-06-26 This insightful Handbook offers a comprehensive exploration of the third generation of gender and federalism studies. In this timely and authoritative examination, feminist scholars in both the West and the global south debate the impact of state architectures on women's movements, partisan organizations and policy advocacy, using innovative discursive, institutional and intersectional approaches.

Empowered by Design Margaret Eileen

Rincker, 2017-05 Using three case studies, the United Kingdom, Poland and Pakistan, Rincker shows how decentralization reforms lead to women's empowerment, create new institutional offices as power shifts from the national level to a meso tier level which is located between the national government and local municipalities. She indicates that three conditions, the gender policy trifecta, need to be met to achieve this: legislative gender quotas, women's policy agencies and gender responsive budgeting.

The Women's Movement in Protest, Institutions and the Internet Sarah Maddison, Marian

Sawer, 2013-08-15 The death of feminism is regularly proclaimed in the West. Yet at the same time, feminism has never had such an extensive presence, whether in international norms and institutions or online in blogs and social networking campaigns. This book argues that the women's movement is not over, but rather social movement theory has led us to look in the wrong places. This book offers both methodological and theoretical innovations in the study of social movements and analyses how the trajectories of protest activity and institution building fit together. The rich empirical study, together with focused research on discursive activism, blogging, popular culture and advocacy networks, provides an extraordinary resource showing how the women's movements can survive the highs and lows and adapt in unexpected ways. Expert contributors explore the ways in which the movement is continuing to work its way through institutions and persists within submerged networks cultural production and in everyday living sustaining itself in non receptive political environments and maintaining a discursive feminist space for generations to come Set in a transnational perspective this book trace the legacies of the Australian women s movement to the present day in protest non government organisations government organisations popular culture the Internet and the Slut Walk The Women s Movement in Protest Institutions and the Internet will be of interest to international students and scholars of gender politics gender studies social movement studies and comparative politics

Reshaping Gender and Class in Rural Spaces Belinda Leach,2016-04-08 Leach and Pini bring together empirical and theoretical studies that consider the intersections of class gender and rurality Each chapter engages with current debates on these concepts to explore them in the context of contemporary social and economic transformations in which global processes that reconstitute gender and class interconnect with and take shape in a particular form of locality the rural The book is innovative in that it responds to calls for more critical work on the rural other contributes to scholarship on gender and rurality but does so through the lens of class This book places the question of gender rurality and difference at its centre through its focus on class addresses the urban bias of much class scholarship as well as the lack of gender analysis in much rural and class academic work focuses on the ways that class mediates the construction and practices of rural men masculinities and rural women femininities challenges prevalent and divergent assumptions with chapters utilising contemporary theorisations of class With the empirical strongly grounded in theory this book will appeal to scholars working in the fields of gender rurality identity and class studies

No Place for a War Baby Donna Seto,2016-05-06 Donna Seto investigates why children born of wartime sexual violence are rarely included in post conflict processes of reconciliation and recovery The focus on children born of wartime sexual violence questions the framework of understanding war and recognizes that certain individuals are often forgotten or neglected This book considers how children are neglected sites for the reproduction of global norms It approaches this topic through an interdisciplinary perspective that questions how silence surrounding the issue of wartime sexual violence has prevented justice for children born of war from being achieved In considering this Seto examines how the theories and practices of mainstream International Relations IR can silence the experiences of war rape survivors and children born of wartime sexual violence and explores the theoretical frameworks within IR and the institutional structures that uphold protection regimes for children and women

Contours of Citizenship Esther Ngan-ling Chow,Evangelia Tastsoglou,2016-05-13 In an increasingly globalized world of collapsing economic borders and extending formal political and legal equality rights active citizenship has the potential to expand as well as deepen At the same time with the rise of neo liberalism welfare state retrenchment decline of state employment re privatization and the rising gap between rich and poor the economic social and political citizenship rights of certain categories of people are increasingly curtailed This book examines the complexity of citizenship in historical and contemporary contexts It draws on empirical research from a range of countries contexts and approaches in addressing women and citizenship in a global local world and covers a selection of diverse issues both present and past to include immigration ethnicity class nationality political and economic participation institutions and the private and public spheres This rich collection informs our understanding of the pitfalls and possibilities for women in the persistence and changes within the contours of citizenship

Politicization of Sexual Violence Carol Harrington, 2016-04-22 In the 1990s feminist scholars on the politics of rape experienced a sudden surge of interest in their until then marginal field Why was the 1990s the right time for rape to become an international security problem Furthermore why suddenly in the 1990s did rape become problematized as an international issue not just by the feminist fringes of protest movements but also by intergovernmental bureaucracies To explore these questions Carol Harrington traces the historical change in the politicization of rape as an international problem and explains how early international women s organizations gained expert authority on rape by drawing on abolitionist rhetoric of bodily integrity She discusses why they abandoned their politicization of rape in the inter war period and why rape only reappeared as an international security question requiring gender expertise on trauma after the Cold War

Waging Gendered Wars Paige Whaley Eager, 2016-02-24 Waging Gendered Wars examines through the analytical lens of feminist international relations theory how U S military women have impacted and been affected by the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan Although women were barred from serving formally in ground combat positions within the U S armed forces during both wars U S female soldiers are being killed in action By examining how U S military women s agency as soldiers veterans and casualties of war affect the planning and execution of war Whaley Eager assesses the ways in which the global world of international politics and warfare has become localized in the life and death narratives of female service personnel impacted by combat experience homelessness military sexual trauma PTSD and the deaths of fellow soldiers

Gender Integration in NATO Military Forces Lana Obradovic, 2016-04-15 Numerous states have passed gender integration legislation permanently admitting women into their military forces As a result states have dramatically increased women s numbers and improved gender equality by removing a number of restrictions Yet despite changes and initiatives on both domestic and international levels to integrate gender perspectives into the military not all states have improved to the same extent Some have successfully promoted gender integration in the ranks by erasing all forms of discrimination but others continue to impede it by setting limitations on equal access to careers combat and ranks Why do states abandon their policies of exclusion and promote gender integration in a way that women s military participation becomes an integral part of military force By examining twenty four NATO member states this book argues that civilian policymakers and military leadership no longer surrender to parochial gendered division of the roles but rather support integration to meet the recruitment numbers due to military modernization professionalization and technological advancements Moreover it proposes that increased pressure by the United Nations to integrate gender into security and NATO seeking standardization and consistency on the international level and women's movements on the domestic level are contributing to greater gender integration in the military Winner of the 2015 ERGOMAS Best Book in Civil Military Relations Award Body/State Jen Dickinson, 2016-04-08 Body State brings together original essays addressing various aspects of the evolving interaction between bodies and states While each essay has different empirical and or theoretical focus authors consider a number of overlapping themes to appreciate the state's engagement with and concern about bodies Divided into five parts the first part Bodies Modified and Divided considers how the production regulation policing and maintenance of borders physical social sexual political religious etc are used to enable or constrain the physical re-shaping of the body Part two Capital Bodies extends the state's concern with the flows of bodies that make up the nation to consider how they are enrolled in the complex structures of capitalist exchange that form the basis for maintaining and contesting a set of relationships between states and markets Part three Deviance and Resistance examines both how states seek to discipline non-normal bodies and appreciates the capacity of changes in the socio-cultural meaning and nature of bodies to resist and or escape states Part four Sovereignty and Surveillance develops themes of deviancy and resistance by considering the impact of new technologies both on the intimate regulatory reach of states into and across bodies and on the nature of embodiment itself Finally Part five The Body Virtual examines the impact of new technologies and online spaces both on the intimate regulatory reach of states into and across bodies and on the nature of embodiment itself A varied collection of essays that address important and complex topics in a readable and creative way Feminist (Im)Mobilities in Fortress(ing) North America Amy Lind, Marianne H. East Timor Guatemala Peru and African countries and from the perspective of gender addresses initiatives for peace with justice Cases are analysed when the human security agenda including UNSC resolution 1325 was in its initial phase and point to both the weakness of the concept and the unexpected direction it has taken These discussions always relevant are more urgent than ever as gender based violence against women has increased resulting in new UNSC resolutions Some chapters suggest that militarism and economic globalization must be directly confronted Many of the contributors to the volume bridge the gap between academic research and activism as scholar activists with an engaged connection to the situations they are describing Human security remains an active component of policy and academic debates in security studies women s and gender studies development studies history and political economy as well as within NGO communities This rich collection fills a needed gap in the literature and it does so in a language and style that is clear accessible and reader friendly

Resisting Gendered Norms Mona Lilja, 2016-04-08 Political scientists have on occasion missed subtle but powerful forms of everyday resistance and have not been able to show how different representations pictures statements images practices have different impacts when negotiating power Instead they have concentrated on open forms of resistance organized rebellions and collective actions Departing from James Scott s idea that oppression and resistance are in constant change Resisting Gendered Norms provides us with a compelling account on the nexus between gender resistance and gender based violence in Cambodia To illustrate how resistance is often carried out in the tension between on the one hand universal globalised representations and on the other local truths and identity constructions in depth interviews with civil society representatives politicians as well as stakeholders within the legal juridical system were conducted
