A Journey To The Mountain Top Eric Cathey,2014-05-09 This is a spiritual testament of my life s journey as well as a channel of inspiration to guide believers and non believers in Christ to seek growth and development in their lives It was essentially important for me to gain the understanding that every aspect of our life is spiritual Though that truth I begin to see how crucial it was to start each day with a positive state of mind But it was very difficult for me to do that since I was incarcerated on death row Eventually my meditation and study of the bible helped me to create a method to achieve that blessing I grew up in a dysfunctional home This prevented me from acquiring any meaningful appreciation of myself as a person And I ve come to notice how the perpetuation of superficial standards in our society have eroded the desire to embrace a true value of ourselves So genuine self worth is being discarded But God s grace through his word elevated my perception of who I am as a believer in Christ and thus have motivated me to pursue the improvements of my inner man Having a spirit of excellence brings honor to God So take pride in who you are Putting my trust completely in God was a struggle that plagued me for many years This was due to the fact that I did not have personal relationship with Christ So out of ignorance I believed that a backsliding Christian was not entitled to receive any help from god But when I shift my focus back on proper worship I came to understand the depth of God s mercy and how his love for humanity will never let him forsake us because Jesus knows how it feels to undergo the various struggles we endure Showing genuine love to other people is mandatory for a believer in Christ But for various reasons people are more incline to be hateful rather than loving toward others Yet my insight of scriptures as I applied them to my life aided me in showing love to a man who tried to take my life The betrayal of a close friend helped the prosecution to win an unjustifiable conviction This experience gave birth to a sovereignty of bitterness in my heart The weight of this resentment became a tremendous burden And only through Jesus was I able to break free from this negative stronghold The deterioration of faith in god is a typical occurrence for prisoners on death row I wrestled with a regression of faith but was able to win that battle after I received a confirmation on the importance faith played in my walk with Christ Plus I discovered that I merely tak
