Feminism Nation And Myth La Malinche Hardcover:

Feminism, Nation and Myth Rolando Romero, Amanda Nolacea Harris, 2005-04-30 Feminism Nation and Myth explores the scholarship of La Malinche the indigenous woman who is said to have led Cortés and his troops to the Aztec city of Tenochtitlán. The figure of La Malinche has generated intense debate among literature and cultural studies scholars. Drawing from the humanities and the social sciences, feminist studies, queer studies, Chicana/o studies, and Latina/o studies, critics and theorists in this volume analyze the interaction and interdependence of race, class, and gender. Studies of La Malinche demand that scholars disassemble and reconstruct concepts of nation, community, agency, subjectivity, and social activism. This volume originated in the 1999 U.S. Latina/Latino Perspectives on La Malinche conference that brought together scholars from across the nation. Filmmaker Dan Banda interviewed many of the presenters for his documentary Indigenous Always: The Legend of La Malinche and the Conquest of Mexico. Contributors include Alfred Arteaga, Antonia Castañeda, Debra Castillo, Alicia Gaspar de Alba, Deena González, María Herrera-Sobek, Guisela Latorre, Luis Leal, Sandra Messinger Cypess, Franco Mondini, Ruiz Amanda, Nolacea Harris, Rolando J. Romero, and Tere Romo. These academic essays are complemented by the creative work of Alicia Gaspar de Alba and Jos Emilio Pacheco, both of whom evoke the figure of La Malinche in their work. The Purpose

Gap Patrick B. Reyes, 2021-03-16 In The Purpose Gap, Patrick Reyes reflects on a family member's death after a long struggle with incarceration and homelessness. As he asks himself why his cousin's life had turned out so differently from his own, he realizes that it was a matter of conditions. While they both grew up in the same marginalized Chicano community in central California, Patrick found himself surrounded by a host of family, friends, and supporters. They created a different narrative for him than the one the rest of the world had succeeded in imposing on his cousin. In short, they created the conditions in which Patrick could not only survive but thrive. Far too much of the literature on leadership tells the story of heroic individuals creating their success by their own efforts. Such stories fail to recognize the structural obstacles to thriving faced by those in marginalized communities. If young people in these communities are to grow up to lives of purpose, others must help create the conditions to make that happen. Pastors, organizational leaders, educators, family, and friends must all perceive their calling to create new stories and new conditions of thriving for those most marginalized. This book offers both inspiration and practical guidance for how to do that. It offers advice on creating safe space for failure, nurturing networks that support young people of color, and professional guidance for how to implement these strategies in one's congregation, school, or community organization. [Un]framing the "Bad Woman" Alicia Gaspar de Alba, 2014-07-15 What the women I write about have in common is that they are all rebels with a cause, and I see myself represented in their mirror, asserts Alicia Gaspar de Alba. Looking back across a career in which she has written novels, poems, and scholarly works about Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz, La Malinche, Coyolxauhqui, the murdered women of Juárez, the Salem witches, and Chicana lesbian feminists, Gaspar de Alba realized that what links these historically and socially diverse figures is that they all fall into the category of bad women as defined by their place culture and time and all have been punished as well as remembered for rebelling against the frames imposed on them by capitalist patriarchal discourses In Un Framing the Bad Woman Gaspar de Alba revisits and expands several of her published articles and presents three new essays to analyze how specific brown female bodies have been framed by racial social cultural sexual national regional historical and religious discourses of identity as well as how Chicanas can be liberated from these frames Employing interdisciplinary methodologies of activist scholarship that draw from art literature history politics popular culture and feminist theory she shows how the bad women who interest her are transgressive bodies that refuse to cooperate with patriarchal dictates about what constitutes a good woman and that queer alter the male centric and heteronormative history politics and consciousness of Chicano Mexican culture By unframing these bad women and rewriting their stories within a revolutionary frame Gaspar de Alba offers her compa eras and fellow luchadoras empowering models of struggle resistance and rebirth Rewriting Myth Patricia Elise Nelson,2008

Mythological Constructs of Mexican Femininity Pilar Melero,2015-07-30 Mexican figures like La Virgen de Guadalupe la Malinche la Llorona and la Chingada reflect different myths of motherhood in Mexican culture For the first time Melero examines these instances of portrayed motherhood as a discursive space in the political cultural and literary context of early twentieth century Mexico History and Myth: Postcolonial Dimensions Arti Nirmal,Sayan Dey,2022-02-01 This anthology History and Myth Postcolonial Dimensions seeks to interrogate and dismantle the colonially structured symmetrical interpretations of the histories and mythological narratives of the former European colonies through depolarization pluriversality and border thinking Here the concepts of history and myth have been addressed from different perspectives and spatiotemporal zones by scholars from different parts of the world which add to the global value of the book It has been argued in this volume that the understanding of postcolonial histories and myths in the contemporary era is highly influenced by the colonially fashioned binaries valid invalid civilized barbaric inclusive exclusive relevant irrelevant good bad etc which continue to preserve the epistemic citadels of coloniality and selectively promote such historical and mythological narratives that celebrate the superiority of the Global North and the inferiority of the Global South This book will be of particular interest to scholars researchers teachers and those interested in understanding history postcolonial studies decolonial studies cultural studies literature and sociology Feminism on the Border Sonia Saldívar-Hull,2000-05-09 Sonia Sald var Hull s book proposes two moves that will no doubt leave a mark on Chicano a and Latin American Studies as well as in cultural theory The first consists in establishing alliances between Chicana and Latin American writers activists like Gloria Anzaldua and Cherrie Moraga on the one hand and Rigoberta Menchu and Domitilla Barrios de Chungara on her The second move consists in looking for theories where you can find them in the non places of theories such as prefaces interviews and narratives By underscoring the non places of theories Sonia Sald var Hull indirectly shows the geopolitical distribution of knowledge between the place of theory in white feminism and the theoretical non places of women of color and of third world women Sald var Hull has made a signal contribution to Chicano a Studies Latin American Studies and cultural theory Walter D Mignolo author of Local Histories Global Designs Coloniality Subaltern Knowledges and Border Thinking This is a major critical claim for the sociohistorical contextualization of Chicanas who are subject to processes of colonization our conditions of existence Through a reading of Anzaldua Cisneros and Viramontes Sald var Hull asks us to consider how the subalternized text speaks how and why it is muted How do testimonio autobiography and history give shape to the literary where embodied wholeness may be possible It is a critical de centering of American Studies and Mexican Studies as usual as she traces our cross ed genealogies situated on the borders Norma Alarcon Professor of Ethnic Studies University of California Berkeley Femmenism and the Mexican Woman Intellectual from Sor Juana to Poniatowska Emily Hind,2010-10-11 Hind draws on poetry short stories plays novels photographs personal correspondence advertising and interviews to make visible the anti feminine tendencies in femmenism and to imagine a femmenism that will appeal to the next generation of women Chicana Sexuality and Gender Debra J.
