The UK Accounting Standards Board, 1990-2000 David Tweedie, Allan Cook, Geoffrey Whittington, 2023-07-28 In the late 1980s financial accounting in Britain was in disarray Creative accounting was rife The authority of the industry s standard setters had been drastically compromised when their rules for inflation accounting were first ignored by many firms and then abandoned There were calls for government to replace the accountants self regulation with a tough regulatory regime close to the American model Also rapid change in the financial industry was generating complex new financial schemes for which existing accounting standards were inadequate This book tells the story of the next decade the problems the standard setters faced both technical and political the resistance they met the solutions they developed and the durability of their work Innovations they developed have become part of global accounting standards The story is told in the words of three board members all of whom had spent their careers in accounting one as a senior technical partner of a Big 4 audit firm one as an executive in major multinational businesses one as a university professor respectively the Chairman Sir David Tweedie the Technical Director Allan Cook and the academic board member Professor Geoffrey Whittington The medium is for the most part conversation with the standard setters questioned by Cambridge Professor Geoff Meeks recorded over three years producing a more vivid picture of motivations and events Also in this technically demanding subject it has the advantage of a simpler more informal and engaging conversational style and language The book will appeal not just to accountants interested in the origins of the rules they are following and students learning why those rules were adopted but also to anyone interested in how in spheres beyond accounting to harness the expertise and support of business regulatees without suffering regulatory capture

Artful Persuasion Harry Mills, 2000 Peels away the mystery that surrounds the psychology of influence and reveals how the world s most persuasive politicians advertisers salespeople and spin doctors work their magic Case studies in human behavior examples of masterful persuaders such as Churchill and Lincoln and step by step guidelines help readers put the power of persuasion to work      Nettles Ronnie Lee Johnson,2020-05-14 In this book you will discover Johnson simply telling his story through a maze of interesting and down to earth experiences As you read you can personally experience and empathize about the dreadful abusive nettles from the author s past It is a book about life itself and all the fluctuations and demands that we all encounter at one time or another But you the reader will be inspired and encouraged Nettles will help you to learn more about yourself as you careen through each chapter      The Selling and Self-Regulation of

Contemporary Poetry J.T. Welsch,2020-03-31 The Selling and Self Regulation of Contemporary Poetry is the first book length study of the contemporary poetry industry By documenting radical changes over the past decade in the way poems are published sold and consumed it connects the seemingly small world of poetry with the other wider creative industries In reassessing an art form that has been traditionally seen as free from or even resistant to material concerns the book confronts the real pressures and real opportunities faced by poets and publishers in the wake of economic and cultural shifts since 2008 The changing role of anthologies prizes and publishers are considered alongside new technologies new arts policy and re conceptions of poetic labour Ultimately it argues that poetry s continued growth and diversification also leaves individuals with more responsibility than ever for sustaining its communities      The Unabashed Librarian ,1995
