Creative Writing Speech Bubbles:

Innovative Educational Approaches to Creative Writing Skills Liliana Mata, Monalisa-Laura Gavrilut, 2025-06-20

This book provides innovative educational approaches to the development of primary school students creative writing skills and highlights the need to develop creative writing skills in today's schools. It presents the educational model of creative writing skills training which combines all curriculum components, educational objectives, curricular contents, teaching methods and techniques, and competency based assessment. This book also explores new perspectives such as creative writing as art, freedom and exploration, the digitization of creative writing, and promoting reflective learning through creative writing exercises. This book serves as a useful guide for educators to foster creative writing in primary school classrooms as well as for researchers in the field of language teaching and other readers who are interested in the topic.

Creative Teaching: History in the Primary Classroom Rosie Turner-Bisset, 2012-12-06 Designed specifically for teachers with little subject knowledge or experience in history, this book provides trainees with the confidence they need to teach primary history. Based on Curriculum 2000, the book provides valuable step by step guidance on how to create, plan, develop, organize and assess high quality teaching activities in primary history. This book is full of teaching approaches, practical ideas, teaching activities, real life case studies and vignettes of good teaching practice. It covers both conventional and modern approaches such as drama, role play, story telling, music and dance, and explains how each approach can be adapted to suit all primary ages and abilities. Children with a range of learning needs and styles respond with enthusiasm to a wide variety of teaching approaches, and this book provides trainee teachers with that repertoire and variety.
