Crescent Between Cross And Star Muslims And The West After 911:

Crescent Between Cross and Star Iftikhar Haider Malik, 2006 Misperceptions and reservations about Islam registered a significant impetus following the tragic events of 9 11 and 7 7 Against a backdrop of intense Islamophobia and neo conservatism military invasions of Muslim countries and restrictive legislation on immigration and civil liberties have seriously affected inter community relationships bringing the Muslim diaspora under serious scrutiny Concurrently scholars and journalists have portrayed Islam as a hegemonic ideology needing reformation Polemicists and neo orientalisks have left no stone unturned in denigrating Islamic humanism Diehard evangelists provide moral justification for this animus which reverberates across the globe through similar groups such as Likud and Hindutva While Muslims are overwhelmingly aggrieved over the destruction and denigration of their communities and heritage their problems of poverty universal disempowerment and alienation remain unattended by both their rulers and their Western backers whose own interests take priority Exposes of torture and brutalization of internees at Guantanamo Bay Abu Ghraib Jail Bagram Air Base and Israel s Facility 1391 and massacres such as those at Mazar i Sharif Kandahar Gujarat and Jenin have exacerbated Muslim anguish However such assaults have also generated an overdue intra Muslim debate in which scholars and youth groups can conduct a vital discourse on gender equality democracy pluralism and modernity This volume presents a historical account of relationships among the Abrahamic traditions and then focuses on recent scholarship and polemical outpourings which have spawned anti Muslim sentiments Case studies from Western and Southern Asia illustrate a complex interplay between the written word and volatile geopolitics Despite its focus on the Judaic Christian formulations vis a vis Islam the book also attempts to assess the Muslim position on ideological challenges presented by this dramatic phase in the tri polar relationship

Pashtun Identity and Geopolitics in Southwest Asia Iftikhar H. Malik, 2016-07-18 Pashtun Identity and Geopolitics in Southwest Asia brings together Pakistan and Afghanistan as two inseparable entities by investigating areas such as the evolution and persistence of the Taliban quest for Pashtun identity the ambivalent status of the tribal region and the state of civic clusters on both sides In addition to their relations with the United States and the EU a due attention has been devoted to regional realities while looking at relations with India and China The study explores vital disciplines of ethnography history Islamic studies and international relations and benefits from a wide variety of source material The volume takes into account the salient subjects including political Islam nature and extent of violence since 9 11 failure of Western policies in the region the Drone warfare and the emergence of new regimes in Kabul Islamabad and Delhi offering fresh opportunities as well as new threat perceptions

The Star, the Cross, and the Crescent Carine Bourget, 2011-12-19 The Star the Cross and the Crescent analyzes fiction films comics autobiographical narratives and essays by Francophone Arab writers whose Christian Accad Antaki Ch did Maalouf Jewish Albou Cixous El Maleh Memmi Muslim Bachi Bena ssa Benguigui Ben Jelloun Boudjedra Boudjellal Meddeb Mimouni and secular Sebbar backgrounds are emblematic of the diversity of the Francophone Arab world It examines how these writers represent the intertwining of religion and politics against the backdrop of the current international political context and the resurgence of religion Focusing on a series of disputes commonly framed in religious terms with Islam as the common denominator for all the Arab Israeli conflict the Lebanese and the Algerian civil wars the affair of the Muslim headscarf in France and 9 11 this book questions the effectiveness of the Francophone studies model in providing insights into the complexity of the Islamic Revival The study concludes by unpacking the influence of politics on the translation of these works in the U S It brings heightened awareness to the modalities according to which a creative work can serve as a cultural mediator American Journal of Islamic

Iftikhar H. Malik, 2021-06-17 Beginning with the medieval period this book collates and reviews first hand scholarship on Muslims in the Middle East and South Asia as noted down by eminent British travellers sleuths and observers of lived Islam The book foregrounds the pre colonial and pre Orientalist phase and locates the multi disciplinarity of Britain's relationship with Muslims over the last millennium to demonstrate a multi layered interface Fully sensitive to a gender balance the book focuses on specially selected individuals and their transformative experiences while living and working among Muslims Examining the writings of male and female authors including Adelard Thomas Coryate Mary Montagu and Fanny Parkes the book analyses their understanding of Islam Moreover the author explores the works of a salient number of representative colonial British women to move away from the imperious wives stereotype and shed light on gender and Islam in Near East and South Asia by illustrating the status of women tribal hierarchies historic and architectural sites and regional politics Going beyond familiar views about colonialism travel writings and memsahibs without losing sight of the complex relations between Britain and Asian Muslims this book will be of interest to academics working on British history Imperial history the study of religions Shi'i Islam Islamic studies Gender and the Empire and South Asian Studies Contemporary

Muslim-Christian Encounters Paul Hedges, 2015-07-30 Contemporary Muslim Christian Encounters Developments Diversity and Dialogues addresses the key issues in the present day global encounter between Christians and Muslims Divided into two parts the first examines theoretical issues and concerns which affect dialogue between the two traditions The second part highlights case studies from around the world Chapters come from established scholars including Reuven

Firestone Douglas Pratt and Clinton Bennett emerging scholars as well as practitioner perspectives Highlighting the diversity within the field of Christian Muslim encounter case studies cover examples from the US and globally and include dialogue in the US post 9 11 Nigerian Muslims and Christians and Christian responses to Islamophobia in the UK Covering unique areas and those not explored in detail elsewhere Contemporary Muslim Christian Encounters Developments Diversity and Dialogues will be of interest to advanced students researchers and interfaith professionals Crusade 2.0 John Feffer,2012-03 Examines why anti Muslim sentiment is on the rise and offers ways to defuse the intolerance The Democratic Predicament Jyotirmaya Tripathy,Sudarsan Padmanabhan,2014-03-14 Both India and Europe have been undergoing a difficult process of negotiating cultural religious and ethnic diversity within their democratic frameworks In fact recent incidents of xenophobic backlash against multiculturalism and minority communities in Europe as well as myriad movements for constitutional recognition of castes tribes and languages and the emergence of Islamophobic terror in India question the conventional idea of democracy as the idyllic preserver of diversity This volume contests the simplistic connection between democracy and diversity by proposing that democracy in fact produces sediments and reinforces cultural heterogeneity It argues that in democratic polities disparate cultural practices are often converted into identity categories with disturbing implications for national identity constitutionalism political governance and citizenship While mobilizations on the plank of cultural differences are typically viewed as being born in undemocratic spaces with little toleration for diversity they also find fertile soil in democracy insofar as democracy celebrates diversity and allows cultural dissent to thrive Such dissent while essential for democracy has difficult consequences Examining the fundamental conflict between constructions of particular cultural identities and mandates of a unifying democratic ethos the book brings forth the complexities underlying the politics of identity recognition and national integration In making a radical intervention in the discourse this volume offers a critique of existing paradigms of multiculturalism It will interest scholars and students of political science sociology and postcolonial and comparative studies Divine Diplomacy Minhas Majeed Khan Marwat,2025-08-08 This book offers a fresh perspective on the impact of religious beliefs on global diplomacy and security challenging the conventional wisdom that religion is a source of conflict and violence It shows how religion can also be a source of cooperation and dialogue as well as a form of soft power that can shape narratives and influence outcomes It examines the paradoxes and conflicts arising from America s support for Pakistan s military rulers while promoting democratic values highlighting the complex interplay between religion and politics It shows how the Pakistan and United States faced dilemmas and trade offs in their bilateral relations balancing their strategic interests and their moral values Arab Criminology Nabil Ouassini,Anwar Ouassini,2023-03-03 The objective of Arab Criminology is to establish a criminological subfield called Arab Criminology The ever evolving field of criminology has advanced in the past decade yet many impediments remain Unlike criminology in Africa Asia the Americas Europe and Oceania which is based merely on geopolitical constructs the Arab world has unique commonalities that do not exist in the other established subfields of criminology The Arab world has largely remained in criminology's periphery despite the region's considerable importance to current international affairs In response this book explores two main questions Why should we and how do we establish a subfield in Arab criminology The authors examine the state of criminology in the Arab world define its parameters and present four components that bond and distinguish Arab criminology from other criminological area studies They then identify the requirements for establishing Arab criminology and detail how local regional and international researchers can collaborate develop and expand the subfield Arab criminology will challenge some of the recurrent Orientalist and Islamophobic tropes in Northern criminology and progress the discipline of criminology to reflect a more diverse focus that embraces regions from the Global South Presenting compelling arguments and examples that support the establishment of this subfield Arab Criminology will be of great interest to scholars of criminology criminal justice legal studies and Middle Eastern North African studies particularly those working on Southern criminology comparative criminology international criminal justice systems and Arab studies

Islamophobia in Australia Alice Aslan, 2009

Islamophobia is a contemporary form of cultural racism against Muslims It has emerged in Australia as an outcome of general public opposition to multiculturalism and migration as well as in response to international conflicts involving Muslims ISLAMOPHOBIA IN AUSTRALIA is a timely book that traces the rise of racism against Muslims through an extensive analysis of critical events and issues including the Gulf War the September 11 terror attacks the Bali bombings ethnic crime ethnic gang rapes Middle Eastern asylum seekers the Cronulla riots and the negative portrayals of Muslims and Muslim women in the Australian media and public discourse Since tolerance does not offer minorities social acceptance or equality in contemporary multicultural societies this book suggests that the recognition of Muslims and minorities as real Australians and as one of us and giving them a fair go are the key

ingredients of a more democratic equal and truly multicultural Australia in the 21st century Democratic Transition and Security in Pakistan Shaun Gregory, 2015-10-23 This volume examines the trajectory of Pakistan's democratic transition and the implications of this change for its security In May 2013 for the first time in its 66 year history Pakistan saw an elected government complete a full term in office and transfer power through the ballot box to another civilian government At this important moment in Pakistan's history this collection brings together twelve leading academics and writers with an aim to provide a far reaching analysis of the current situation in Pakistan and emergent trends Drawing on history diverse theoretical perspectives and empirical evidence three themed sections deal respectively with democratic transition including Islam and democracy civil military relations and economics contested borders and contested spaces the Pashtun belt Kashmir and intra Islamic conflict and regionalism bilateral relations from both Pakistani and Indian perspectives US Pakistan relations and nuclear weapons dynamics Together the contributors explore the status of Pakistan's democratic transition contemporary security dynamics and wider regional security and political dynamics and the complex interplay of the three to provide a wide ranging analysis of Pakistan's contemporary national and regional challenges its impact on the region and evidence of some positive trends for Pakistan's future The book will be of much interest to students of South Asian politics Asian security governance and IR in general as well as policy makers diplomats and military professionals Pakistan Iftikhar Haider Malik, 2010 As the Fall Out of the US led War on Terror Continues to destabilize the countries of the Indian subcontinent Pakistan and its fate are rarely out of the headlines How did this predominantly Muslim country of 175 million reach this critical state And what does the future hold in the face of such political and social upheaval This clear comprehensive book synthesizes the complex issues facing Pakistan today while remaining cautiously optimistic about the future of a pluralistic nation caught between civic and military imperatives Professor Malik examines the country's strategic geopolitical position the main characters who have shaped the nation the legacy of Partition and the role of civil society as a force for change and the parts played by Political Islam and jihadi extremism and by the West in its use of Pakistan as a buffer state Book jacket Culture and Customs of Pakistan Iftikhar Malik, 2006 A look at Pakistan its culture customs history and contemporary life Economic and Political Weekly, 2006 Newsline, 2007 Index Islamicus, 2007
