value may undertake its reading The reason for this Foreword is to explain clearly in a few words the objects of this book which are two for it may be called A Why and How Book The basic reason of this book is to educate The idea of entertainment does not enter into its conception except as some of the ideas in it may please those students of bank credit who are in love with their work and to whom it may bring the stimulating effect of giving them an opportunity to compare their own ideas with the ideas of others Primarily it is not meant for the more mature minds in the field of bank credit except in some chapters but is more widely meant for younger men assistants who are possessed of sufficient zeal to study the technique of bank credits so that they may more readily achieve judgment and credit knowledge The opening chapter deals with the theoretic principle of credit very briefly The colleges provide long courses for the deeper study of economics but no book on credit can be complete without some discussion of the subject from this standpoint The average man approaches this kind of study however in an attitude of skepticism and distrust Give us something practical is the cry and so this is written with the idea of giving as little theory as possible and as much of the practical as can be There are many forms nearly all reproductions of those in actual use by representative banks but some are adaptations and combinations made with the idea of offering suggestions About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Payment System Users Manual ,1984 Credit manual Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation,1989 Abridged User's Manual of the BC TRY System (standard Options) Robert Choate Tryon,1968 Optimization of Space K.
