"Those Who Call Themselves Jews" Philip L. Mayo,2006-08-01 The nature of Jewish Christian relations at the end of the first century has been a subject of serious study and considerable debate The time between 70 and 150 CE is held to be a volatile time in that Jewish Christian relations were quickly although not uniformly deteriorating This is a time referred to as the partings of the ways when the church was emerging as a religion apart from Judaism Although it has often been neglected in this study of particular interest is the Apocalypse of John since it was written in this dark and turbulent time in Jewish Christian relations John who is a Jewish Christian is writing to what are likely predominantly Gentile churches At first he appears to deny the very name Jew to his ethnic kin while accusing them of belonging to Satan 2 9 3 9 Nevertheless he does not abandon his own Jewish background and theology He makes broad use of the Hebrew Scriptures and Jewish cultic imagery while maintaining a Christian understanding that Jesus is the fulfillment of God's redemptive plan What is of particular interest is how he adopts and adapts this imagery and language and applies it to the church It is John's mix of Jewish imagery with a Christian message that may provide some insight into his perspective on the relationship between these two increasingly polarized sects What exactly this perspective constitutes the subject of the present discussion

Making See C. M. A. van Ekris, 2018-06-20 What is theologically and homiletically happening in prophetic sermons This empirical theological study offers an analysis of the prophetic dimension in contemporary practices of preaching including sermons from Bonhoeffer King and Tutu and from Dutch local contexts After a phenomenological opening five theological concepts are extracted from the studied sermons exposing destructive interrupting dominant discourses recognising the Word overcoming destructive and edifying the congregation In this study prophetic speech is reconstructed as an illuminative interplay between epiphanic and inductive aspects

Transfigurations Asbjørn Grønstad, 2008 In many senses viewers have cut their teeth on the violence in American cinema from Anthony Perkins slashing Janet Leigh in the most infamous of shower scenes to the 1970s masterpieces of Martin Scorsese Sam Peckinpah and Francis Ford Coppola to our present day undertakings in imagining global annihilations through terrorism war and alien grudges Transfigurations brings our cultural obsession with film violence into a renewed dialogue with contemporary theory Grønstad argues that the use of violence in Hollywood films should be understood semiotically rather than viewed realistically Transfigurations thus alters both our methodology of reading violence in films and the meanings we assign to them depicting violence not as a self-contained incident but as a convoluted network of our own cultural ideologies and beliefs

Politics and Social Visions Maurizio Ferrera, 2024-03-04 The starting point of this book is the civil war of ideas that broke out during the early 2010s about the purpose and even the desirability of the European Union as a polity with a number of right-wing populist formations openly advocating for exiting the Union The sovereign debt crisis triggered a spiral of ideological decommunalization national leaders seemed to have lost that sense of togetherness and mutual bonds that had been laboriously developed over decades of integration Politics and Social Visions explores this politically disruptive process from an ideational perspective on the assumption that symbols and visions play a crucial role In processes of polity formation ideologies offer competing partisan views but tend to converge along the communal dimension which defines the nature and boundaries of the emerging polity This convergence has been a challenge for the EU since its origins as it has required the construction of a coherent and acceptable image of Europe as a compound polity of nation states with a divisive past Maurizio Ferrera offers a reconstruction of how the main ideological currents have struggled and often failed to reconfigure their horizontal profiles i.e. their images of the national within Europe into a new vertical profile i.e. an image of the European within the national The challenge has been especially demanding for European left wing parties which have been largely unable to forge a shared and recognizable social vision of the European Union Only during the COVID pandemic have the seeds of a novel communal consensus emerged that might prove capable of defeating the anti communal views of Eurosceptic ideologies and free market technocrats Schismatics, Sectarians, Dissidents, Deviants Jack T. Sanders,1993 What were relations between Judaism and Christianity in the first century of the Christian era and why did they develop as they did Unlike other studies this book does not limit the evidence of Jewish Christian relations to text but also draws on the growing body of material evidence The Routledge Handbook of Indigenous Film Ernie Blackmore,Kerstin Knopf,Wendy Gay Pearson,Corina Wieser-Cox,2024-11-27 The Routledge Handbook of Indigenous Film is dedicated to bringing the work of Indigenous filmmakers around the world to a larger audience By giving voice to transnational and transcultural Indigenous perspectives this collection makes a significant contribution to the discourse on Indigenous filmmaking and provides an accessible overview of the contemporary state of Indigenous film Comprising 37 chapters by an international team of contributors the Handbook is divided into six parts Decolonial Intermedialities and Revisions of Western Media Colonial Histories Trauma Resistances Indigenous Lands Communities Bodies Queer Cultures and Border Crossings Youth Cultures and Emancipation Art Comedy and Music Within these sections Indigenous and non Indigenous experts from around the world examine various aspects of Indigenous film cultures analyze the works of Indigenous directors and producers worldwide and focus on readings contextual historical political aesthetic and activist of individual Indigenous films The Handbook specifically explores Indigenous film in Canada Mexico the United States Central and South America Northern Europe Australia New Zealand the Pacific and the Philippines This richly interdisciplinary volume is an essential resource for students and scholars of Indigenous Studies Cultural Studies Area Studies Film and Media Studies Feminist and Queer Studies History and anyone interested in Indigenous cultures and cinema Searching the Scriptures: A feminist commentary Elisabeth Schüssler Fiorenza,Shelly Matthews,1994 This utilizes biblical historical and literary critical scholarship for a feminist reading of the Scriptures Rather than focusing only on the women's passages it analyzed the writings in their entirety and brings to the fore the suppressed voices and subjugated knowledges of times past New Testament History and Literature Dale B. Martin,2012-04-24 In this engaging introduction to the New Testament Professor Dale B Martin presents a historical study of the origins of Christianity by analyzing the literature of the earliest Christian movements Focusing mainly on the New Testament he also considers nonbiblical Christian writings of the era Martin begins by making a powerful case for the study of the New Testament He next sets the Greco Roman world in historical context and explains the place of Judaism within it In the discussion of each New Testament book that follows the author addresses theological themes then emphasizes the significance of the writings as ancient literature and as sources for historical study Throughout the volume Martin introduces various early Christian groups and highlights the surprising variations among their versions of Christianity Contemporary Critical Theory Dan Latimer,1989 Tales of the End David L. Barr,1998 This provocative new book invites us to forget all we have heard about the meaning of the Book of Revelation Instead David Barr shows us ways to give this familiar text a fresh new reading If we can think of the right questions to ask the text and listen without prejudice there are new things we can learn The questions David Barr asks the Book of Revelation are about stories how they are told whom they are about what they consist of where they go His commentary written with little technical vocabulary provides the knowledge and detail needed to make a fresh reading of the story ourselves Theories of Myth: Literary criticism and myth Robert Alan Segal,1966 Asianism and the Politics of Regional Consciousness in Singapore Leong Yew,2013-11-20 Over the last two decades Singapore has undergone a substantial degree of Asianization Apart from participating in the Asian values debate of the 1990s re visioning itself as New Asia and a global Asian hub and establishing Asian identities for the commodities it consumes and produces Singapore has also repurposed its modernity cultures and ethos along similar regionalist precepts However even in recent times Singapore continues to vacillate ambivalently between identifying with and differentiating itself from Asia Responding to the challenges Singapore faces in coming to terms with its Asian identity this book examines the complex cultural social and political underpinnings that have shaped Singapore s mainstream discourse on Asia Indeed it argues that its legacy as a colonial port city the exigencies of managing the post independence nation state and the larger forces of imperialism and capitalism all contribute to its politics of Asianism Taking a thoroughly interdisciplinary approach that spans history cultural studies postcolonialism and cultural geography Leong Yew reveals how Asia has been used to narrate Singapore s beginnings revalidate Singaporean ethnic culture and to consolidate its practices of consumption and commodification This book will be welcomed by students and scholars working across a range of fields including Asian culture and society Asian politics cultural theory and postcolonial studies The Qumran Chronicle ,2004 Social and Cultural Dynamics Pitirim AleksandroviÄ Sorokin, Journal of Asian Business ,2003 Talcott Parsons Uta Gerhardt,2002-10-10 Table of contents
