Creativity, Cognition, and Knowledge Terry Dartnall, 2002      Creativity and Reason in Cognitive Development James C. Kaufman, John Baer, 2006-05-29 To what extent do creativity and imagination decline in childhood What factors might influence a decline Theories of cognitive development show only uni directional progress although theorists may disagree whether such progress occurs steadily in small continuous improvements or comes in stages separated by plateaus during which developmental gains are consolidated Declines in levels of skill are quite uncommon yet many have observed just such an unusual pattern with regard to the development of creativity and of the imagination Is there something about the development of one kind of thinking that undermines imaginative and creative thinking Is it perhaps the process of schooling itself with its focus on the acquisition of knowledge and the production of correct rather than imaginative answers which promotes this decline This book explores these questions from a variety of perspectives Essays from psychologists and educators from diverse backgrounds discuss the relationships among creativity reason and knowledge      Entrepreneurial Learning Richard Harrison, Claire M. Leitch, 2008-01-31 This book addresses the burgeoning interest in organizational learning and entrepreneurship bringing together for the first time a collection of new papers dealing explicitly with entrepreneurial learning Where past books have examined learning in a corporate context Harrison and Leitch focus instead on the learning process within entrepreneurship and the small business Areas covered include a review of the concept of entrepreneurial learning and the relationship between entrepreneurial learning and the wider literatures on management and organizational learning a review and development of a number of conceptual models of the process of learning in entrepreneurial contexts an illustration of the applications of concept of entrepreneurial learning in a range of contexts an international perspective on entrepreneurial learning      The Oxford Handbook of Thinking and Reasoning Keith J. Holyoak, Robert G. Morrison, 2013-05-23 The Oxford Handbook of Thinking and Reasoning brings together the contributions of many of the leading researchers in thinking and reasoning to create the most comprehensive overview of research on thinking and reasoning that has ever been available      Handbook of Consumer Psychology Curtis P. Haugtvedt, Paul M. Herr, Frank R. Kardes, 2018-12-07 This Handbook contains a unique collection of chapters written by the world s leading researchers in the dynamic field of consumer psychology Although these researchers are housed in different academic departments ie marketing psychology advertising communications all have the common goal of attaining a better scientific understanding of cognitive affective and behavioral responses to products and services the marketing of these products and services and societal and ethical concerns associated with marketing processes Consumer psychology is a discipline at the interface of marketing advertising and psychology The research in this area focuses on fundamental psychological processes as well as on issues associated with the use of theoretical principles in applied contexts The Handbook presents state of the art research as well as providing a place for authors to put forward suggestions for future research and practice The

Handbook is most appropriate for graduate level courses in marketing psychology communications consumer behavior and advertising      Multidisciplinary Studies in Knowledge and Systems Science Yang, Guangfei,2013-05-31 This book brings together valuable research on the adoption of a systems approach to the theory and practice of managing information and people in knowledge intensive activities and processes Provided by publisher      Proceedings of the European Cognitive Science Conference 2007 Stella Vosniadou,Daniel Kayser,Athanassios Protopapas,2017-09-29 This volume contains the invited lectures invited symposia symposia papers and posters presented at the 2nd European Cognitive Science Conference held in Greece in May 2007 The papers presented in this volume range from empirical psychological studies and computational models to philosophical arguments meta analyses and even to neuroscientific experimentation The quality of the work shows that the Cognitive Science Society in Europe is an exciting and vibrant one There are 210 contributions by cognitive scientists from 27 different countries including USA France UK Germany Greece Italy Belgium Japan Spain the Netherlands and Australia This book will be of interest to anyone concerned with current research in Cognitive Science

Beyond Knowledge Larisa V. Shavinina,Michel Ferrari,2004-05-20 Some aspects of giftedness and creativity cannot be explained by cognitive developmental personality or social approaches considered in isolation At the intersection of these approaches is something invisible deeply hidden but at the same time very important the extracognitive facets of high ability This volume brings together chapters by leading specialists from around the world responsible for much of the current research in this field presenting a wide range of perspectives for understanding exceptional achievement High ability refers to human abilities described by terms such as giftedness talent creativity excellence genius child prodigies exceptional leadership and wisdom Extracognitive factors refer to phenomena like internally developed standards and subjective norms of intellectually creative behavior specific intellectual intentions and beliefs that influence exceptional achievements specific feelings that scientific geniuses and other highly creative individuals say contribute to their advanced development specific preferences and intellectual values luck chance intuition and other similar phenomena in extraordinary development and performance and social cultural and historical influences on talent development Although there are many books about the cognitive bases of high ability this volume uniquely discusses the foundations of such achievements in extracognitive factors as defined here thus providing a rich source of information on this topic to researchers practitioners and graduate students of education psychology business and administration who work in the area of high ability      The Creative Enterprise Tony Davila,Marc J.
