Cultural Renewal in Cambodia Philippe Peycam, 2020-09-07 This book is about cultural work in torn up societies It narrates the establishment of an academic project in contemporary post war Cambodia when the country became the largest recipient of international aid It depicts a Southeast Asian country at the crossroads of conflicting imaginaries of development through the lens of an independent organization that emerged out of the turmoil It shows how the relations of domination of institutions from the north effectively constrain alternative visions of action in the south that fall outside the neo liberal framework The account is a reflection on past ambitions and failures of the international good will order and a charge to change our approach in the future It offers a cautionary tale whose significance transcends the Cambodian case

What's Become of Australian Cultural Studies? Gerard Goggin, Anna Pertierra, Mark Andrejevic, Melissa Gregg, 2018-04-19 Cultural studies face a complicated yet rich future proving both flexible and resilient in many countries Against this backdrop this book offers a fresh perspective on the state of the field of cultural studies via an evaluation of the work of one of its key thinkers Graeme Turner and the traditions of Australian cultural studies which have been influential on the formation of the field Thinking with Turner and being informed by his practice can help orient us in the face of new challenges and contexts across culture media and everyday life teaching and pedagogy the relation of research to the new politics of public engagement policy management and universities the internationalization of cultural studies and the reconfiguration of nationalism the changing concepts and relations of culture the development of important new areas in cultural studies such as celebrity studies and the emergence of digital media studies This lively and provocative volume is essential reading for anyone interested in where cultural studies has come from where it s heading to and what kinds of ideas not least from Graeme Turner will help scholars and students alike make sense of and reconfigure the discipline This book was originally published as a special issue of Cultural Studies     The Pedagogies of Cultural Studies Andrew Hickey,2016-03-31 This volume provides an exploration of the manifold ways pedagogy is enacted in cultural studies practice Pedagogy in the book comes to stand as far more than simply the art of teaching contributors explore how pedagogy defines and shapes their practice as cultural studies scholars Chapters variously highlight the role of pedagogy in cultural studies practice including formal classroom situations where cultural studies is deployed to teach as part of degree or coursework programs but importantly also as something removed from the formal classroom as situated within the research act via public engagement or through social activism as a public pedagogy In so doing the book chart a course for understanding cultural studies as an active and engaged discipline interested in understanding cultural flows and production as sites of learning and exchange     The Education of the Filmmaker in Africa, the Middle East, and the Americas M. Hjort,2013-07-31 Using case studies from Nigeria Qatar the United States the West Indies and others the contributors to this volume examine aspects such as audience response film education for children and the impact on crime in the various studios clubs film festivals NGOs peripatetic workshops and alternative film schools where filmmaking is taught     Law and Cultural Studies John Erni,2018-12-07 New and unremitting violence linked to state inter state and private actors has precipitated a renewal of social movements many of which act in concert with human rights ethos and legal conceptions Yet cultural studies has so far had little engagement or institutional connection with these movements How can cultural studies as a progressive discipline think with and make space for rights inflected legal and humanitarian practices This book considers the ways in which cultural humanism and the critical approach to rights and more broadly between culture and law can be brought together to open a new intellectual space to allow cultural studies to better engage with the current challenges presented by social and political struggles worldwide It lays out the central theses essential for constructing a critical view of human rights and then advances a distinctive critical model of analysis that incorporates insights of postcolonial legal theorists and jurists from the Global South and important cultural theorists from the North while rethinking law rights and social movements as something constituted by multiple legal modernities Through case studies covering questions relating to sovereignty citizenship refugee displacement human rights defenders and gender and sexual rights Law and Cultural Studies develops a means by which the practice of cultural studies can be reinvigorated around the legal spaces institutions and movements tied to human rights struggles As such it will appeal to scholars of cultural and media studies critical legal studies political theory postcolonial studies and human rights Indigenous Knowledges, 2021-02-22 How should new knowledge systems for the academy be reflective of a 60 000 year old Aboriginal histories Indigenous Knowledges Privileging Our Voices offers an answer to this question with generative and sometimes challenging narratives and addresses a unique higher education situation in Australia At NIKERI Institute Indigenous and Non Indigenous academics engage in collaborative discipline specific learning and teaching In this collection of writings these joint and sole authors find ways to present their world views to scholars Indigenous communities and researchers alike Knowledge systems and ways of knowing are made accessible in 10 chapters building on occasions of reflection as communities of practice positioned around Australia s unique indigeneity as known at NIKERI The notion of respectful encounter is at the heart of these chapters Depth ecology personal and collective narratives along with other ways to deliver research design and teacher education are considered through the lens of Indigenous Knowing in this unique community of academics at Deakin University Melbourne Australia The International Handbooks of Museum Studies, 4 Volume Set Sharon Macdonald, Helen Rees Leahy, 2015-07-20 The International Handbooks of Museum Studies is a multi volume reference work that represents a state of the art survey of the burgeoning field of museum studies Featuring original essays by leading international museum experts and emerging scholars readings cover all aspects of museum theory practice debates and the impact of technologies The four volumes in the series divided thematically offer in depth treatment of all major issues relating to museum theory historical and contemporary museum practice mediations in art design and architecture and the transformations and challenges confronting the museum In addition to invaluable surveys of current scholarship the entries include a rich and diverse panoply of examples and original case studies to illuminate the various perspectives Unprecedented for its in depth topic coverage and breadth of scholarship the multi volume International Handbooks of Museum Studies is an indispensable resource for the study of the development roles and significance of museums in contemporary society Museum Theory Andrea Witcomb, Kylie Message, 2020-11-17 MUSEUM THEORY EDITED BY ANDREA WITCOMB AND KYLIE MESSAGE Museum Theory offers critical perspectives drawn from a broad range of disciplinary and intellectual traditions This volume describes and challenges previous ways of understanding museums and their relationship to society Essays written by scholars from museology and other disciplines address theoretical reflexivity in the museum exploring the contextual theoretical and pragmatic ways museums work are understood and are experienced Organized around three themes Thinking about Museums Disciplines and Politics and Theory from Practice Practicing Theory the text includes discussion and analysis of different kinds of museums from various primarily contemporary national and local contexts Essays consider subjects including the nature of museums as institutions and their role in the public sphere cutting edge museum practice and their connections with current global concerns and the links between museum studies and disciplines such as cultural studies

The Martial Arts Studies Reader Paul Bowman, 2018-09-20 A decade ago the question was could martial arts ever be studied academically Today we are witnessing the global emergence and rapid proliferation of Martial Arts Studies an exciting and dynamic new field that studies all aspects of martial arts in culture history and society In recent years there have been a proliferation of studies of martial arts and race gender class nation ethnicity identity culture politics history economics film media art philosophy gaming education embodiment performance technology and many other matters Given the diversity of topics and approaches the question for new students and researchers is one of how to orientate oneself and gain awareness of the richness and diversity of the field make sense of different styles of academic approach and organise one's own study research and writing The Martial Arts Studies Reader answers this need by bringing together pioneers of the field and scholars at its cutting edges to offer authoritative and accessible insights into its key concerns and areas Each chapter introduces and sets out an approach to and a route through a key issue in a specific area of martial arts studies Taken together or in isolation the chapters offer stimulating and exciting insights into this fascinating research area In this way The Martial Arts Studies Reader offers the first authoritative field defining overview of the global and multidisciplinary phenomena of martial arts and martial arts studies

Gender, Media and Modernity in the Asia-Pacific Catherine Driscoll, Meaghan Morris, 2015-10-14 This collection offers a range of cultural studies perspectives on the ways gender and modernity intersect in media produced in the Asia Pacific region It spans different ideas about modernity in the region different approaches to cultural analysis and different media forms from Taiwanese lifestyle television to avant garde Indian cinema from the emergence of a Chinese youth culture in online social networks to the alienation of country girls as imagined by Australian soap opera and from the fantastic politics of migrating bodies in Korean cinema to the masculine mimicry of fighting women in South East Asian action movies Together these essays explore the ways that media both records and helps produce images and experiences of modernity and the integral role gender plays in those processes This book was originally published as a special issue of Cultural Studies

Routledge Handbook of New Media in Asia Larissa Hjorth, Olivia Khoo, 2015-11-06 While a decade ago much of the discussion of new media in Asia was couched in Occidental notions of Asia as a default setting for technology in the future today we are seeing a much more complex picture of contesting new media practices and production As new media becomes increasingly an everyday reality for young and old across Asia through smartphones and associated devices boundaries between art new media and the everyday are transformed This Handbook addresses the historical social cultural political philosophical artistic and economic dimensions of the region s new media Through an interdisciplinary revision of both new media and Asia the contributors provide new insights into the complex and contesting terrains of both notions The Routledge Handbook of New Media in Asia will be the definitive publication for readers interested in comprehending all the various aspects of new media in Asia It provides an authoritative up to date intellectually broad conceptually cutting edge guide to the important aspects of new media in the region as the first point of consultation for researchers advanced level undergraduate and postgraduate students in fields of new media and Asian studies

Martial Arts Studies Paul Bowman,2015-04-09 The phrase martial arts studies is increasingly circulating as a term to describe a new field of interest But many academic fields including history philosophy anthropology and Area studies already engage with martial arts in their own particular way Therefore is there really such a thing as a unique field of martial arts studies Martial Arts Studies is the first book to engage directly with these questions It assesses the multiplicity and heterogeneity of possible approaches to martial arts studies exploring orientations and limitations of existing approaches It makes a case for constructing the field of martial arts studies in terms of key coordinates from post structuralism cultural studies media studies and post colonialism By using these anti disciplinary approaches to disrupt the approaches of other disciplines Martial Arts Studies proposes a field that both emerges out of and differs from its many disciplinary locations

Media, Mobilization and the Umbrella Movement Francis L. F. Lee,2018-05-16 The Umbrella Movement in Hong Kong caught the world s attention and imagination at the end of 2014 The 79 day occupation campaign took on some of the characteristics of the recent wave of large scale protest movements around the world including the prominent roles played by the media both conventional and digital in the mobilization and communication processes of the movement This edited volume Media Mobilization and the Umbrella Movement brings together nine contributions which examine various aspects of the media movement nexus including the power of televised images to mobilize people the role of social media in the insurgent public sphere young activists social media strategies media influence on citizens understanding of civil disobedience the government s response to digital media tactics public discourses about the rule of law and local and foreign media coverage of the movement We believe that this high quality collection can not only enhance our understanding of the Umbrella Movement but also facilitate and trigger more research and dialogue comparing the Umbrella Movement with other similar protest movements around the world This book was originally published as a special issue of the Chinese Journal of Communication

African Cinema and Human Rights Mette Hjort,Eva Jørholt,2019-03-01 Essays and case studies exploring how filmmaking can play a role in promoting social and economic justice Bringing theory and practice together African Cinema and Human Rights argues that moving images have a significant role to play in advancing the causes of justice and fairness The contributors to this volume identify three key ways in which film can achieve these goals

Documenting human rights abuses and thereby supporting the claims of victims and goals of truth and reconciliation within larger communities Legitimizing and consequently solidifying an expanded scope for human rights Promoting the realization of social and economic right Including the voices of African scholars scholar filmmakers African directors Jean Marie Teno and Gaston Kabor and researchers whose work focuses on transnational cinema this volume explores overall perspectives and differences of perspective pertaining to Africa human rights and human rights filmmaking alongside specific case studies of individual films and areas of human rights violations With its interdisciplinary scope attention to practitioners self understandings broad perspectives and particular case studies African Cinema and Human Rights is a foundational text that offers questions reflections and evidence that help us to consider film s ideal role within the context of our ever continuing struggle towards a more just global society
