Creatures Of The Same God Explorations In Animal Theology:

Creatures of the Same God Andrew Linzey, 2009 I don't know why you're spending all your time on this. They're only animals for heaven's sake. That was the reaction of one of Andrew Linzey's fellow students at King's College London when he was studying theology in the 1970s. Since then the now Rev Dr Andrew Linzey has been arguing that animals aren't only anything but rather that they matter to God and should do so to us. In this collection of essays Linzey counters with his customary wit, erudition and insight some contemporary and perhaps surprising challenges to animal rights from ecotheologians, the Church and politicians. He contends that far from the sometimes shallow judgments of those who think animals unworthy of theological consideration, the Christian tradition has a wellspring of sources and resources available to taking animals seriously. Instead of being marginal to the Christian experience, Linzey concludes, animals can take their rightful place alongside human beings as creatures of the same God. There is a long forgotten spiritual tradition that two children, both named Jesus, were born in Bethlehem to two sets of parents named Joseph and Mary. This tradition is supported by the different accounts of the nativity and life of Jesus Christ in the gospels of Matthew and Luke. Although the Church chose to ignore this tradition, something of it survived in early Christian art and symbolism. The full tradition was preserved only in the literature of esoteric sects such as Gnosticism, which remained outside the official teachings of institutionalized Christianity.

Creaturely Theology David Clough, 2013-02-11 Creaturely Theology is a ground-breaking scholarly collection of essays that maps out the agenda for the future study of the theology of the non-human and the post-human. A wide range of first-rate contributors show that theological reflection on non-human animals and related issues are an important though hitherto neglected part of the agenda of Christian theology and related disciplines. The book offers a genuine interdisciplinary conversation between theologians, philosophers and scientists and will be a standard text on the theology of non-human animals for years to come. Contributors include Esther D Reed Exeter, Rachel Muers Leeds, Stephen Clark Liverpool, Neil

Messer Lampeter Peter Scott Manchester Michael Northcott Edinburgh Christopher Southgate Exeter The Routledge Handbook of Religion and Animal Ethics Andrew Linzey, Clair Linzey, 2018-09-29 The ethical treatment of non human animals is an increasingly significant issue directly affecting how people share the planet with other creatures and visualize themselves within the natural world The Routledge Handbook of Religion and Animal Ethics is a key reference source in this area looking specifically at the role religion plays in the formation of ethics around these concerns Featuring thirty five chapters by a team of international contributors the handbook is divided into two parts The first gives an overview of fifteen of the major world religions attitudes towards animal ethics and protection The second features five sections addressing the following topics Human Interaction with Animals Killing and Exploitation Religious and Secular Law Evil and Theodicy Souls and Afterlife This handbook demonstrates that religious traditions despite often being anthropocentric do have much to offer to those seeking a framework for a more enlightened relationship between humans and non human animals As such The Routledge Handbook of Religion and Animal Ethics is essential reading for students and researchers in religious studies theology and animal ethics as well as those studying the philosophy of religion and ethics more generally Developing Animal Theology Clair Linzey, 2021-10-27 This book offers an up to date examination of the nature and development of animal theology It considers what animal theology is and how it challenges and is challenged by liberation and ecological theology At the heart of the work is a critical engagement with the Brazilian ecotheologian Leonardo Boff Clair Linzey addresses ideas that originate from the papal encyclical Laudato Si and considers how Pope Francis is developing an animal friendly tradition within Catholicism Exploring new vistas in animal theology this volume makes a valuable contribution to debates on how religion should be concerned with animals and the environment This book is essential reading for anyone who wants to know the current state of debate with animal theology and its effects on the wider Christian community Animals in Tillich's Philosophical Theology Abbey-Anne Smith, 2017-10-02 This book explores how Paul Tillich's systematic theology focusing on the concepts of being and reason can benefit nonhuman animals while also analysing how taking proper account of nonhuman animals can prove immensely beneficial The author first explains the body of Tillich's system examining reason and revelation life and the spirit and history and the kingdom of God The second section undertakes a critical analysis of Tillichian concepts and their adequacy in relation to nonhuman animals addressing topics such as Tillich's concept of technical reason and the multidimensional unity of life The author concludes by discussing the positive concepts in Tillich's systematic theology with respect to nonhuman animals and creation including the concept of universal salvation and Tillich's interpretation of nonhuman animals and the Fall in Genesis Cultural Encyclopedia of Vegetarianism Margaret Puskar-Pasewicz, 2010-09-16 Intended for students general readers vegetarians and vegans as well as those interested in animal welfare and liberation this A Z encyclopedia explores the historical and cultural significance of vegetarianism in the United States and beyond Vegetarianism in the United States did not start in the 1960s it has a much longer complex history going back to the early 1800s Cultural Encyclopedia of Vegetarianism examines that history through the lens of culture focusing on what vegetarianism has had to say to and about Americans This A Z encyclopedia brings together the work of a number of scholars from diverse fields including history sociology philosophy religious studies anthropology nutrition American studies religious studies women s and gender history and the history of medicine Approximately 100 essay entries cover cultural and historical aspects of vegetarianism primarily but not exclusively in relation to the United States shedding light on the practice s roots in ancient cultures and challenging popular myths and misconceptions related to both vegetarianism and veganism With discussions on everything from activist movements to cookbooks the encyclopedia offers a unique wide ranging exploration that will appeal to students practitioners and anyone else who wants to know more

The Redemption of the Animals Douglas Sloan, 2015-10-15 As human beings what is our true relationship to the animals on earth What is our responsibility to our fellow creatures Douglas Sloan explores these and other questions in this important book on the human animal connection His explorations are based on personal experience and wide ranging research into the work of Rudolf Steiner and others including scientist students of the inner life of animals and committed defenders of animal wellbeing Rudolf Steiner describes how from the beginning of creation humans and animals have been united in deep kinship A loss of the sense of this human animal connection has resulted in an immense animal suffering the world over Especially in their suffering the animals now pose for the modern human being many pressing and perplexing questions Are the animals conscious Do they have feelings like ours Do they experience pain Do the animals have a spiritual reality and experience Do the animals have souls and selves Do the animals have capacities for cognitive intelligence emotional empathy language and memory Is there a crucial difference between the human and the animal a basic difference in kind or only a difference in degree Do animals have rights Are we justified in using the animals as we wish eating them hunting them experimenting on them Rudolf Steiner presents a vision of the ultimate redemption of the animals from their suffering What is the nature of this redemption What is our responsibility in making it happen In exploring these and related questions with the help of Rudolf Steiner s work and that of others on the issue we can begin to see the importance in our time of our relating to the animals in a completely new way a relationship that understands and respects the animals inner spiritual being and one that requires a deep grasp of our own spiritual being in relation to theirs In this book Douglas Sloan seeks to help us toward this new relationship with the animals both in concept and in everyday action

Animals and Society Margo DeMello, 2012 This textbook provides a full overview of human animal studies It focuses on the conceptual construction of animals in American culture and the way in which it reinforces and perpetuates hierarchical human relationships rooted in racism sexism and class privilege

Eden's Other Residents Michael Gilmour, 2014-06-20 The Bible teems with nonhuman life from its opening pages with God s creation of animals on the same day and out of the same earth as humans to its closing apocalyptic scenes of horses riding out of the sky Animals are Adam s companions Noah s shipmates and Elijah s saviors They are at the center of ancient Israel's religious life as sacrifices and yet as Job discovers beyond human dominion. It is an animal that saves Balaam from certain death by an angel's hand and an animal that carries Jesus into Jerusalem. The Creator declares all of them good at the beginning and since the Apostle Paul writes of God's eternal purposes for all things on earth they are somehow part of a hoped-for eschatological restoration. So why are animals so often ignored in Christian moral discourse? In its theological thinking and faith-motivated praxis, human-centeredness typically results in the complete erasure of the nonhuman. This book argues that this exclusion of animals is problematic for those who see the Bible as authoritative for the religious life. Instead, biblical literature bears witness to a more inclusive understanding of moral duty and faith-motivated largesse that extends also to Eden's other residents.

All God's Animals Christopher Steck, 2019-10-01. The book is the first of its kind to draw together in conversation the views of the early Church, contemporary biblical and theological scholarship, and post-conciliar teachings. Steck develops a comprehensive Catholic theology of animals based on an in-depth exploration of Catholicism's fundamental doctrines: trinitarian theology, Christology, pneumatology, eschatology, and soteriology. All God's Animals makes two central claims. First, we can hope that God will include animals of the present age in the kingdom inaugurated by Christ. Second, because of this inclusion, our responses to animals should be guided by the values of the kingdom. As Christians await the final liberation of all creation, they are to be witnesses to God's kingdom by embodying its ideals in their relations with animal life. Because the kingdom's fullness is yet to come and because our world remains marked by the wounds of sin, however, Christian treatment of animals will at times require acts that are at odds with the kingdom's ideals, for example, those causing suffering and death. Steck examines each of these ideas and explores all of their complexities.

Preservation and Protest Ryan Patrick McLaughlin, 2014. A title that systematically develops the paradigm of cosmocentric transfiguration, arguing that the entire cosmos, including all instantiations of life therein, shares in the eschatological hope of a harmonious participation in God's triune life, a participation that entails the end of suffering, predation, and death.

An Ethical Critique of Fur Factory Farming Andrew Linzey, Clair Linzey, 2022-10-31. The fur trade is a multi-million-dollar industry. It is estimated that over 100 million animals are killed in fur farms worldwide annually. This book provides an in-depth analysis of the state of fur factory farming worldwide and an ethical critique of the main arguments propounded by the fur industry. Consideration is also given to an attempt to justify fur farming through the concept of Welfur.

Andrew Linzey and Clair Linzey argue that from any ethical perspective, fur factory farming fails basic moral tests.

Our Dog Red Edward C. Sellner, 2019-08-26. Everyone who has lost a beloved pet knows the deep grief and heartbreak a death can cause, often raising questions about the meaning of such a loss, whether there is an afterlife for pets, and sometimes why God would take such a dear member of the family so soon. This book is the story of a father and son, Ed and Daniel, whose pet Red died on Good Friday in the week Christians call Holy. It shows how Red's death drew them even closer while also leading each of them into new awarenesses. The timing of that death also raised serious questions for Ed, a pastoral theologian, which he had not faced before do animals have souls What sort of God is it that we Christians believe in What was one to learn from the synchronicity of Red dying on Good Friday As a result of his grief and the questions it raised Ed found himself being led to teaching new courses in ethics art and spirituality concerned with animals and a new field specifically called animal theology This memoir is written for those concerned with the death of their beloved pets It discusses practices and rituals helpful in dealing with grief which can contribute to healing God or Godless? John W. Loftus, Randal Rauser, 2013-04-15 Perhaps the most persistent question in human history is whether or not there is a God Intelligent people on both sides of the issue have argued sometimes with deep rancor and bitterness for generations The issue can't be decided by another apologetics book but the conversation can continue and help each side understand the perspectives of the other In this unique book atheist John Loftus and theist Randal Rauser engage in twenty short debates that consider Christianity the existence of God and unbelief from a variety of angles Each concise debate centers on a proposition to be resolved with either John or Randal arguing in the affirmative and the opponent the negative and can be read in short bits or big bites This is the perfect book for Christians and their atheist or agnostic friends to read together and encourages honest open and candid debate on the most important issues of life and faith A New Introduction to Theology Richard Bourne, Imogen Adkins, 2020-09-17 Encountering theology for the first time is exciting but it can also be daunting Some struggle to connect with doctrinal discussion they perceive to be abstract or abstruse Others may find the scope of theology and the connections between different theological issues dizzying In order to address these difficulties and keep the initial excitement alive A New Introduction to Theology offers a range of accessible practical experiential and interactive encounters with the major elements of academic Christian theology The guiding motif of this book is the claim that theology is full bodied thought The phrase full bodied shows both the richness of the experience of theology and its nature as a thoroughly embodied encounter with ways of knowing God and God's ways with the world This motif allows the authors to bring together topics ranging from theology through the arts sexuality and the body and the nature of the church's everyday life to mystical theology spirituality political action and ecology Working imaginatively with the five senses and the notions of loving and resting each chapter provides a range of activities guided discussions and reflections on key theological texts authors and issues This is a unique introduction to the key innovative and interdisciplinary elements from contemporary theology ideal for individual reflection classroom work or flexible and distributed learning Being Animal Anna L. Peterson, 2013-05-14 Conducting the first systematic examination of the place of animals in scholarly and popular thinking about nature Anna L Peterson builds a nature ethic that conceives of nonhuman animals as active subjects simultaneously a part of nature and human society Cockfighting in Britain from Antiquity to the Enlightenment Alexander Sutherland, 2024-11-15 This book looks at the relationship of the cock and cockfighting in Britain from ancient times to the early modern period showing the societal and cultural changes that affected that relationship It examines the evolution of the cock's role in religion and sport and the evolution of cockfighting as a sport in light of the changing culture of pastimes the historical development of humankind's relationship with animals and the philosophy related to animal cruelty and animal rights

Animal Theologians Andrew Linzey, Clair Linzey, 2023 Many people who have thought about God have not thought about animals or about the relationship between the two But among those who have are some of the most celebrated religious thinkers including Michel de Montaigne Thomas Tryon John Wesley John Ruskin Leo Tolstoy Mohandas K Gandhi Albert Schweitzer and Paul Tillich This volume comprises 24 scholarly studies that detail challenges to the dominant anthropocentrism of most religious traditions The editors have brought together Jewish Unitarian Christian transcendentalist Muslim Hindu Dissenting deist and Quaker voices each offering a unique theological perspective that counters the neglect of the nonhuman Animal Theologians is divided into three parts starting with the pioneers who first saw a relationship between animals and divinity those who contributed to the expansion of social sensibility to animals and ending with the work of contemporary theologians The essays in this volume use contextual and historical background to describe what led animal theologians to their beliefs and then pave way for further developments in this expanding field This volume is an act of reclaiming different religious traditions for animals by recovering lost voices

Reading the Animal Text in the Landscape of the Damned Les Mitchell, 2019-10-22 Reading the animal text in the landscape of the damned looks at the diverse texts of our everyday world relating to nonhuman animals and examines the meanings we imbibe from them It describes ways in which we can explore such artefacts especially from the perspective of groups and individuals with little or no power This work understands the oppression of nonhuman animals as being part of a spectrum incorporating sexism racism xenophobia economic exploitation and other forms of oppression The enquiry includes physical landscapes the law women's rights history slavery language use economic coercion farming animal experimentation and much more Reading the animal text in the landscape of the damned is an academic work but is accessible theoretically based but robustly practical and it encourages the reader to take this enquiry further for both themselves and for others
