A Modern Economic History of Africa: The nineteenth century Paul Tiyambe Zeleza, 1997 The nineteenth century in Africa was a time of revolution and tumultuous change in virtually all spheres Violent dry spells the staggered abolition of the slave trade mass migrations and an influx of new settlers characterized the century Regional trade links grew stronger and spread further The century also saw the beginnings of the ruthless and bloody quest for foreign dominion Instruments, Travel and Science Marie Noëlle Bourguet, Christian Licoppe, H. Otto Sibum, 2003-08-29 We are now accustomed to conceive of science as an instrumental activity producing numbers measurements and graphs by means of sophisticated devices This book investigates the historical process that gave rise to this instrumental culture The contributors trace the displacement of instruments across the globe the spread of practices or precision and the circulation and appropriation of skills and knowledge Through comparative and contextual approaches the volume confronts the tension between the local and the global examining the process of the universalization of science Bringing together case studies ranging from the seventeenth to the twentieth centuries contributors discuss French German and British initiatives as well as the knowledge and techniques of travellers in countries such as India Africa South East Asia and the Americas Students and researchers interested in the history of science in both Western and non Western cultures will find this book a valuable and thought provoking read Credit, Currencies, and Culture Endre Stiansen, Jane I. Guyer, 1999 A striking feature of African history is the volume of commerce and production that has been possible without the full panoply of credit insurances future markets stock companies limited liability and other legal and financial services that make up the formal sector of modern economies The contributions to this volume investigate institutional nexuses through which money has been managed in Africa Together they present important perspectives that are needed to understand the present economic crisis on the continent The Statist, 1928

Alphabetic List of Lenders, 1989 The King's African Rifles - Volume 1 Lieutenant-Colonel H. Moyse-Bartlett, 2012-02-10 This is a regimental history with a difference one that is bound up with the history of the British Empire in Africa and the extension and development of British rule in the territories of Somaliland British East Africa redesignated Kenya from July 1920 Uganda Nyasaland and after 1918 Tanganyika previously German East Africa These were the territories that were the recruiting grounds for the KAR to which officers from the British Army were seconded there were no permanent commissions in the KAR unlike the Indian Army which had its own officer structure No regiment has ever been more intimately connected with the territory through which it marched and fought or with the peoples from which it was recruited It was a unique regiment The author has arranged the book in five parts The Campaigns of the Early Regiments The Consolidation of the Regiment 1901 1914 The East Africa Campaign 1914 1918 Internal Security and Reorganization 1914 1939 and The War of 1939 1945 The story begins with the political background to the British administration in East and Central Africa up to the close of the nineteenth century During the last decade of that century three regiments were formed which were the forerunners of the K A R The Central African Regiment The Uganda Rifles and the East African Rifles These saw action in various expeditions and campaigns in Mauritius Somaliland The Ashanti War The Gambia Expedition Expeditions against the Nandi and others On 1 January 1902 the King s African Rifles came into being incorporating the original regiments as battalions six battalions 1st and 2nd Central Africa 3rd East Africa 4th and 5th Uganda and 6th Somaliland Battalions The total strength was returned as 4 683 officers and men including 104 British officers For the new regiment the main operations before WWI were the campaigns against the Mad Mullah of Somaliland involving four expeditions he wasn t finally seen off until 1920 During the Great War there were 21 battalions and at peak strength in July 1918 the K A R numbered 1 193 officers 1 497 British NCOs and 30 658 Africans casualties amounted to 5 117 with a further 3 039 died of disease The regiment s part in the campaign against von Lettow Vorbeck in East Africa is fully described The regiment was again in action during WWII taking part in three separate campaigns the defeat of the Italians in Somalia and Abyssinia the occupation of Madagascar against the opposition of the Vichy French and the reconquest of Burma when for the first time K A R battalions fought outside the continent of Africa This must be one of the best regimental histories ever written The Department of State Bulletin ,1956 Canadian Mining Journal ,1919

Barry Cappello,2014-06-01 Lender Liability Fifth Edition is the leading one volume work on the subject This area of the law has grown and matured significantly over the years and is now recognized as a distinct body of law that is the basis of thousands of lawsuits filed over the last decade Written for both lenders and borrowers attorneys Lender Liability discusses the basics and more advanced issues relating to lender liability Topics include 1 an extended analysis of where and how lender liability problems arise 2 common law and statutory theories of liability 3 bankruptcy concerns and 4 lawsuits against failing or failed financial institutions A sample complaint request for production of documents interrogatories and jury instructions are included on CD for easy use The work also includes as well tables of state and federal cases and statutes rules and regulations This brand new edition has been completely revised reorganized and updated It conforms now to the evolution and maturity of Lender Liability as an accepted cited and well litigated area of commercial and consumer litigation Lender Liability as a body of law has evolved from traditional contract and tort theories to include causes of action based in the Uniform Commercial Code including the covenant of good faith and fair dealing This handy reference work is ideal for either the experienced practitioner or the neophyte involved in representing an institution or client whose interests involve bank liability

The Bonds of Kinship in Dahomey Jessica Catherine Reuther, 2025-01-07 From the 1720s to the 1940s parents in the kingdom and later colony of Dahomey now the Republic of Benin developed and sustained the common practice of girl fostering or entrusting Transferring their daughters at a young age into foster homes Dahomeans created complex relationships of mutual obligation kinship and caregiving that also exploited girls labor for the economic benefit of the women who acted as their social mothers Drawing upon oral tradition historic images and collective memories Jessica Reuther pieces together the fragmentary glimpses of girls lives contained in colonial archives within the framework of traditional understandings about entrustment Placing these girls and their social mothers at the center of history brings to light their core contributions to local and global political economies even as the Dahomean monarchy global trade and colonial courts reshaped girlhood norms and fostering practices Reuther reveals that the social economic and political changes wrought by the expansion of Dahomey in the eighteenth century the shift to legitimate trade in agricultural products in the nineteenth century and the imposition of French colonialism in the twentieth all fundamentally altered and were altered by the intimate practice of entrusting female children between households Dahomeans also valorized this process as a crucial component of being well raised a sentiment that continues into the present despite widespread Beninese opposition to modern day forms of child labor
