Crime and Punishment Fyodor Dostoyevsky, Fedor Mikhaelovich Dostoyevsky, 2003-01 Walking Shadows Ib Johansen, 2015-08-25 Walking Shadows focuses on the American fantastic and the American grotesque attempting in this manner for the first time to establish an overview of and a theoretical approach to two literary modes that have often been regarded as essential to an understanding of the American cultural canon The central importance of these two literary forms has been pointed out earlier by important theorists such as Stanley Cavell David Reynolds and William Van O Connor A number of literary works from the beginning of the nineteenth to the end of the twentieth centuries are taken up in order to illustrate the inherent links or family resemblances between the two modes with special reference to the way in which a Bakhtinian reading may facilitate our appreciation of their status within the canon These excursions into the House of Fantastic and Grotesque Fiction may be of interest not only to hardcore aficionados but also to philosophically minded readers in general in particular perhaps to those who have paid acute attention to debates on late twentieth and early twenty first century post structuralism and deconstruction where the classic positions of Foucault Derrida et al still appear to be relevant 100 Selected Stories O. Henry, 1995 O Henry's finest stories is a showcase for the sheer variety of one of America's best loved short story writers They are marked by coincidence and surprise endings as well as compassion and high humour Evidence Versus Politics Mark Monaghan, 2011 This book provides a new model for evidence based policy in UK drug policy and will be essential reading for students and researchers in public policy and criminology Crime and Punishment Fedor Mihajlovic Dostoevskij, 2003 The Literary Exception and the Rule of Law Johan Van Der

Walt,2022-07-20 Addressing the influential analysis of law and literature this book offers a new perspective on their relationship The law and literature movement that has gained global prominence in the course of last decades of the twentieth and the first decades of the twenty first centuries has provided the research and teaching of law with a considerable body of new and valuable knowledge and understanding Most of the knowledge and insights generated by the movement concern either a thematic overlap between legal and literary discourses suggesting they deal with the same moral concerns or a rhetorical semiotic or general linguistic comparability or sameness between them imputing to both the same or very similar narrative structures The Literary Exception and the Rule of Law recognises the wealth of knowledge generated by this approach to the relationship between law and literature and acknowledges its debt to this genre of scholarship It nevertheless also proposes on the basis of a number of revealing phenomenological inquiries a different approach to law and literary studies one that emphasises the irreducible difference between law and literature It does so with the firm belief that a regard for the very different and indeed opposite discursive trajectories of legal and literary language allows for a more profound understanding of the unique and indeed separate roles that the discourses of law and literature generally play in the sustenance of relatively stable legal cultures This important rethinking of the relationship between law and literature will appeal to scholars and students of legal theory jurisprudence philosophy politics and literary theory Aesthetic and Philosophical Reflections on Mood

Birgit Breidenbach,2020-04-19 This study explores the concept of Stimmung in literary and philosophical texts of the modern age Signifying both mood and attunement Stimmung speaks to the categories of affective experience and aesthetic design alike The study locates itself in the nexus between discourses on modernity existentialism and aesthetics and uncovers the pivotal role of Stimmung in 19th and 20th century European narrative fiction and continental philosophy The study first explores the philosophical and aesthetic origins and implications of Stimmung to then discuss its role in the narrative fiction of three key authors of modern literature Fyodor Dostoevsky Samuel Beckett and Thomas Bernhard These readings demonstrate a significant shift towards an aesthetic of affective intensity and immediacy in which the experience of the reading process takes centre stage as each author develops an aesthetic philosophy of Stimmung in their own right Through its focus on the concept of Stimmung the study thus unearths a fundamental link between existentialist concerns and narrative practice in modern literature Forgiveness: Promise, Possibility, & Failure

,2020-05-18 This inter disciplinary collection explores the wealth of nuances surrounding the concept and practice of forgiving The essays within this work ask what it means to forgive what constitutes an appropriate space to forgive what is to be expected of the victim and wrongdoer what actions must be connected to political forms of forgiveness Nihilism Bulent Diken,2008-11-28 Most significant problems of contemporary life have their origins in nihilism and its paradoxical logic which is simultaneously destructive to and constitutive of society Yet in social theory nihilism is a surprisingly under researched topic This book develops a systematic account of nihilism in its four main forms escapism radical nihilism passive

nihilism and perfect nihilism It focuses especially on the disjunctive synthesis between passive nihilism the negation of the will and radical nihilism the will to negation between the hedonism disorientation that characterizes the contemporary post political culture and the emerging forms of despair and violence as a reaction to it The book deals with nihilism at three levels First it addresses the genealogy and consequences of nihilism which is followed by an excursus through film analysis Then the book focuses on the social relating nihilism to capitalism post politics and terrorism Another excursus fleshes out the theoretical arguments by focusing on Houellebecq's fiction Finally the possibilities of overcoming nihilism are considered by emphasizing the significance of concepts such as event agonism and antagonism in this context
