Land Reforms and Natural Resource Conflicts in Africa Tukumbi Lumumba-Kasongo, 2015-10-16 This book is a critical examination of the place and role of land in Africa the role of land in political formation and national identification and the land as an economic resource within both national economic development and liberal globalization Colonial and post colonial conflicts have been rooted in four related claims the struggle over scarce resources especially access to land resources abundance of natural resources mismanaged or appropriated by both the states local power systems and multinationals weak or absent articulated land tenure policies leading to speculation or hybrid policy framework and the imperatives of the global liberalization based on the free market principles to regulate the land question and mineral appropriation issue The actualization of these combined claims have led to conflicts among ethnic groups or between them and governments This book is not only about conflicts but also about local policy achievements that have been produced on the land question It provides a critical understanding of the forces and claims related to land tenure systems as part of the state policy and its system of governance Corruption as an Empty Signifier Lucy Koechlin, 2013-05-23 Corruption as an Empty Signifier critically explores the ways in which corruption in Africa has been equated with African politics and political order and offers a novel approach to understanding corruption as a potentially emancipatory discourse of political transformation

Undermining the State from Within Rachel A. Schwartz, 2023-03-02 Illuminates how wartime institutional transformations undermine core state functions with legacies for political and economic development African Legal Theory and Contemporary Problems Oche Onazi, 2013-11-26 The book is a collection of essays which aim to situate African legal theory in the context of the myriad of contemporary global challenges from the prevalence of war to the misery of poverty and disease to the crises of the environment Apart from being problems that have an indelible African mark on them a common theme that runs throughout the essays in this book is that African legal theory has been excluded under explored or under theorised in the search for solutions to such contemporary problems The essays make a modest attempt to reverse this trend The contributors investigate and introduce readers to the key issues questions concepts impulses and problems that underpin the idea of African legal theory They outline the potential offered by African legal theory and open up its key concepts and impulses for critical scrutiny This is done in order to develop a better understanding of the extent to which

Power, Community and the State Monique Nuijten,2003-04-20 This book explores the balance of power between the state and local communities with particular reference to societies in the developing world Monique Nuijten shows how rituals of bureaucratic power and accusations of corruption give flesh to incredible fantasies and conspiracy theories among officials peasants and brokers At the same time she shows that in this labyrinthine world of bureaucratic obstacles and state control local agrarian communities manage to find certain room for autonomy Drawing on her extensive fieldwork in Mexico Nuijten draws wide conclusions that can be applied to many societies Providing a detailed ethnography she focuses on various themes including a theoretical anthropology of state power families and factionalism after agrarian reform local organisation questions of law corruption and development theory

Things Fall Apart? Pauline von Hellermann,2013-09-01 Governance failure and corruption are increasingly identified as key causes of tropical deforestation In Nigeria s Edo State once the showcase of scientific forestry in West Africa large scale forest conversion and the virtual depletion of timber stocks are invariably attributed to recent failures in forest management and are seen as yet another instance of how things fall apart in Nigeria Through an in depth historical and ethnographic study of forestry in Edo State this book challenges this routine linking of political and ecological crisis narratives It shows that the roots of many of today s problems lie in scientific forest management itself rather than its recent abandonment and moreover that many illegal local practices improve rather than reduce biodiversity and forest cover The book therefore challenges preconceptions about contemporary Nigeria and highlights the need to reevaluate current understandings of what constitutes good governance in tropical forestry

Sorting Africa's Developmental Puzzle Almaz Zewde,2010-06-02 Sorting Africa s Development Puzzle The Participatory Social Learning Theory as an Alternative Approach is a comprehensive exploration of why Africa has not managed to achieve a sustainable and self regenerating development over the past half century of effort The work situates the problems of Africa s persistent underdevelopment in the practices employed by national political elites donors and lenders to African development that played roles in determinant policy and planning Unlike many newly developed countries and regions and contrary to the historical experiences of developed countries where ordinary people were full stakeholders and drivers of development Africa's development has been top down expert and capital driven mechanical and typically externally designed Ordinary Africans were made marginal to development This approach to Africa's development was devoid of building the people and their institutions as the legitimate means of development The entrusting of Africa's development to local and international elites to the exclusion of the people from decision making and full participation has led to grievous deficits in the formation of human and social capital and legitimate economic social and political institutions for development The book offers a studied alternative that can positively change Africa's development direction The Participatory Social Learning Approach The philosophical theoretical historical and heuristic origins of this alternative are offered in detail within this book Child Soldiers, Adult Interests John-Peter Pham, 2005 This book weaves a narrative of the history of Sierra Leone from its foundation as a settlement for black slaves who fought for the British Crown during the American Revolution through the events of the civil war with a discussion of more general geopolitical lessons to be learned from the recent conflict its origins and settlement In addition the book contains six appendices that render the present work the first comprehensive history of Sierra Leone since the classic studies published more than a generation ago by Christopher Fyfe and John Peterson an invaluable reference on conflict resolution in general as well as the West African country in particular including a chronology of select events in the history of Sierra Leone and the texts of the peace agreements and other post conflict documents Conceptualizations of Africa Abdul Karim Bangura, JP Afamefuna Ifedi, 2025-02-27 This book discusses how Africa has been understood and defined across various academic fields Building on the influential works of Valentin Yves Mudimbe and more recent studies by Axel Fleisch and Rhiannon Stephens this book bridges previous limitations by offering a comprehensive interdisciplinary analysis Each chapter examines the conceptualization of Africa within a specific discipline balancing local and global perspectives blending competing viewpoints and providing suggestions for future research The book will be essential for students scholars and researchers interested in a better understanding of the diverse and complex narratives that shape our knowledge of Africa and its intellectual heritage Corruption, Good Governance, and the African State Ganahl, Joseph Patrick, 2014-02-18 African states are often called corrupt indicating that the political system in Africa differs from the one prevalent in economically advanced democracies This however does not give us any insight into what makes corruption the dominant norm of African statehood Thus we must turn to the overly neglected theoretical work on the political economy of Africa in order to determine how the poverty of governance in Africa is firmly anchored both in Africa's domestic socioeconomic reality as well as in the region's role in the international economic order Instead of focusing on increased monitoring enforcement and formal democratic procedures this book combines economic analysis with political theory in order to arrive at a better understanding of the political economic roots of corruption in Sub Saharan Africa Volunteer Economies

Ruth Prince, Ruth Jane Prince, Hannah Brown, 2016 Examines the increasing significance of the volunteer and volunteerism in African societies and their societal impact within precarious economies in a period of massive unemployment and faltering trajectories of social mobility Letting Them Die Catherine Campbell, 2003-09 Based on interviews examines the barriers and constraints to prevention programmes carried out in the mining community of Summertown Focuses on the mobilization of sex workers young people and stakeholders Globalization and the Southern African Economies Mats Lundahl, 2004 Focuses on the place of Southern Africa in the globalized economy Identifies the overall economic trends in the African continent and the responses required and actual to the impact of an increasingly interdependent world economy

The Development State Maia Green, 2014 A timely ethnographically informed account of the development state of Tanzania showing how development practice and culture have become integrated into everyday life politically socially and economically How has development affected the practices of the state in Africa How has the development state become the basis of social organisation How do Tanzanians position themselves to obtain aid money to effect change in their personallives Financial aid flows have entrenched an economy of intervention in which the main beneficiaries are those who can claim to undertake development activities Even for those not formally engaged in the development sector its discourses influence everyday discussion about class and inequality poverty and wealth modernity and tradition With Tanzania as the country focus the author shows how the practices of development have infiltrated not only the state at large but many aspects of people s everyday lives Maia Green is Professor of Social Anthropology at the University of Manchester
