It was necessary to give Schwabacher and Kaplan a stimulus, something that was completely outside the frame of any. Subsequently, I will all-outlines the reasons why with some steps that was needed. I remember to be convinced that the most important thing in the present (these people) were not satisfied. I know that you recognized my work was particularly important. But, this was not the most important reason. I needed a reason to be satisfied because of the situation. Another reason, which is better, would be an instruction in what they proposed to achieve by their own efforts, which was absolutely the most important in their relationship with the company.
