SASHAKTIKARANN Manju Pandey, 2022-05-18 TOURISM MANAGEMENT AND WOMEN EMPOWERMENT There is immense potential for women empowerment in tourism management Tourism is a multifaceted process in which there is also flexibility and tourism has no limit there is a possibility of work for every part The present book is an attempt in this direction How can women be integrated with schemes like gender budgeting to cover half the population When the budget will be for womens activities then at the time of expenditure also their benefits will be talked about fortnightly Rural tourism women empowerment is seeing a lot of enthusiasm about the new dimension of tourism Rural women have talent but they face some difficulty in getting a platform Tourism can give everything that can make a difference in their lives and this is what I think

Change in life happens only by coming in contact with other people This change can be possible through tourists Because it is an automated process It is not necessary to have any special abilities to be involved in this process Many evils of the society have ignored the capabilities of women for centuries But in the changed scenario women have identified their abilities in management in the society inclusive development projects like tourism have opened many doors for the development of women Many of these issues have been talked about extensively in the present book Tourism Management and Women Empowerment Thank you Dr Manju Pandey Sex Shakti Kaise Badhayen,  Grah Vigyan -
