Congress,1999 Figaro ,1892 The Schoolmaster ,1906 Public Schools and Their Administration ,1906 The New Port Moresby Ceridwen Spark,2020-07-31 The New Port Moresby Gender Space and Belonging in Urban Papua New Guinea explores the ways in which educated professional women experience living in Port Moresby the burgeoning capital of Papua New Guinea Drawing on postcolonial and feminist scholarship the book adds to an emerging literature on cities in the Global South as sites of oppression but also resistance aspiration and activism Taking an intersectional feminist approach the book draws on a decade of research conducted among the educated professional women of Port Moresby offering unique insight into class transitions and the perspectives of this small but significant cohort The New Port Moresby expands the scope of research and writing about gendered experiences in Port Moresby moving beyond the idea that the city is an exclusively hostile place for women Without discounting the problems of uneven development the author argues that the city's new places offer women a degree of freedom and autonomy in a city predominantly characterized by fear and restriction In doing so it offers an ethnographically rich perspective on the interaction between the global and the local and what this might mean for feminism and the advancement of equity in the Pacific and beyond The New Port Moresby will find an audience among anthropologists particularly those interested in the urban Pacific feminist geographers committed to expanding research to include cities in the Global South and development theorists interested in understanding the roles played by educated elites in less economically developed contexts There have been few ethnographic monographs about Port Moresby and those that do exist have tended to marginalize or ignore gender Yet as feminist geographers make clear women and men are positioned differently in the world and their relationship to the places in which they live is also different The book has no predecessors and stands alone in the Pacific as an account of this kind As such The New Port Moresby should be read by scholars and students of diverse disciplines interested in urbanization gender and the Pacific Social Work and Sociology: Historical and Contemporary Perspectives Irene Levin,Marit Haldar,Aur lie Picot,2018-02-05 Discussing the relationship between social work and sociology this book explores how the two have become more and more divided moving from one single discipline to two separate but related fields Both sociology and social work focus on social problems social structure social integration and how individuals respond to and live within cultural and structural constraints Today both disciplines face the possibility of losing some of their most important characteristics to individualising trends the disappearance of the importance of the social and pressure towards solely evidence based knowledge In addition to casting light on areas that have been in the shadows of the mainstream narrative the contributions to this book will raise new questions contributing to continuing discussions between and within each discipline This book was originally published as a special issue of Nordic Social Work Research     Inequalities of Aging Elana D.
