Our Children and Other Animals Matthew Cole, Kate Stewart, 2016-05-23 Focusing on the socialization of the human use of other animals as resources in contemporary Western society this book explores the cultural reproduction of human nonhuman animal relations in childhood With close attention to the dominant practices through which children encounter animals and mainstream representations of animals in children s culture whether in terms of the selective exposure of children to animals as pets or as food in the home or in school or the representation of animals in mass media and social media Our Children and Other Animals reveals the interconnectedness of studies of childhood culture and human animal relations In doing so it establishes the importance of human animal relations in sociology by describing the sociological importance of animals in children s lives and children in animals lives Presenting a new typology of the various kinds of human animal relationship this conceptually innovative book constitutes a clear demonstration of the relevance of sociology to the interdisciplinary field of human animal relations and will appeal to readers across the social sciences with interests in sociology childhood studies cultural and media studies and human animal interaction

Masculinity in Children's Animal Stories, 1888-1928 Wynn William Yarbrough, 2011-07-25 The animal stories produced around the turn of the 20th century have maintained a remarkable hold on the imagination of children worldwide This book examines the performance of masculinity in these stories particularly in light of the waning years of Victoria s reign when changing historical political and social pressures altered the definition of masculinity Topics covered include the roles of violence rebellion escape spirituality social hierarchies and law

Our Children and Other Animals Dr Matthew Cole, Dr Kate Stewart, 2014-11-28 Focusing on the socialization of the human use of other animals as resources in contemporary Western society this book explores the cultural reproduction of human nonhuman animal relations in childhood With close attention to the dominant practices through which children encounter animals and mainstream representations of animals in children s culture whether in terms of the selective exposure of children to animals as pets or as food in the home or in school or the representation of animals in mass media and social media Our Children and Other Animals reveals the interconnectedness of studies of childhood culture and human animal relations

National Geographic Kids Animal Stories Jane Yolen, 2014-10-14 Amazing animal stories that span the centuries come to life in this beautifully written and illustrated book Some are sweet some funny some surprising but all are emotionally powerful the Capitoline geese who saved the Roman empire Balto the Alaskan sled dog Smoky the Bear the passenger pigeon of WWI Cher Ami and the latest internet sensation Christian the lion A collection such as this comes along only once in a generation full of heartwarming tales that families will read re read and remember

USDA Forest Service General Technical Report NE. ,1977

Learning how to Feel Ute Frevert, Pascal Eitler, Stephanie Olsen, 2014 This volume demonstrates how children through their reading matter were provided with learning tools to navigate their emotional lives presenting this in the context of changing social political cultural and gender agendas the building of nations subjects and citizens and the forging of moral and religious values The PTA Magazine ,1921

Multicultural Literature for Children and Young Adults Ginny Moore Kruse,1997 A careful selection of children s and young adult books with multicultural themes and topics which were published in the United States and Canada between 1991 and 1996 Preface p vii The Mythology of the Animal Farm in Children's Literature Stacy E.

Hoult-Saros,2016-07-21 The Mythology of the Animal Farm in Children s Literature Over the Fence analyzes the ways in which myths about farmed animals lives are perpetuated in children s materials Specifically this book investigates the use of five recurring thematic devices in about eighty books for young children published during the past five decades The close readings of texts and images draw on a wide range of fields including animal theory psychoanalytic and Marxian literary criticism child development theory histories of farming and domestication and postcolonial theory In spite of the underlying seriousness of the project the material lends itself to humorous and not overly heavy handed explications that provide insight into the complex workings of a literary genre based on the covering up of real animal lives Intl Comp Ency Child Lit E2 V1

Peter Hunt,2018-12-12 Children s literature continues to be one of the most rapidly expanding and exciting of interdisciplinary academic studies of interest to anyone concerned with literature education internationalism childhood or culture in general This edition has been expanded and includes over 50 new articles New topics include Postcolonialism Comparative Studies Ancient Texts Contemporary Children s Rhymes and Folklore Contemporary Comics War Horror Series Fiction Film Creative Writing and Crossover literature The international section has been expanded to reflect world events

Humans and Animals: Intersecting Lives and Worlds Anja Höing,Arieahn Matamonasa Bennett,2019-07-22 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2016 Relationships between humans and non human animals are deeply complex and often governed by tensions and paradoxes Both wild and domestic metaphorical and real assistants and adversaries animals effortlessly bridge cultural and natural spaces and form an integral part of human lives This volume addresses several currently debated topics in science and culture How shall we rethink rebuild and re envision our relationships with other animals How do we construct ideas of the animal How can we negotiate animal interests against our own In which ways do we make sense and use of animals in human cultural spaces Addressing the non human animal from the standpoint of various social and cultural constructions from a global and multidisciplinary perspective the chapters within this volume do not seek to answer these questions but rather to draw attention to the complexity of the underlying issues and the manifold dimensions of the animal human bond Ethics and Children's Literature Claudia Mills,2016-05-13

Exploring the ethical questions posed by in and about children s literature this collection examines the way texts intended for children raise questions of value depict the moral development of their characters and call into attention shared moral presuppositions The essays in Part I look at various past attempts at conveying moral messages to children and interrogate their underlying assumptions What visions of childhood were conveyed by explicit attempts to cultivate specific virtues in children What unstated cultural assumptions were expressed by growing resistance to didacticism How should we prepare children to respond to racism in their books and in their society Part II takes up the ethical orientations of various classic and contemporary texts including prosaic ethics in the Hundred Acre Wood moral discernment in Narnia ethical recognition in the distant worlds traversed by L. Engle and virtuous transgression in recent Anglo American children's literature and in the emerging children's literature of 1960s Taiwan Part III's essays engage in ethical criticism of arguably problematic messages about our relationship to nonhuman animals about war and about prejudice The final section considers how we respond to children's literature with ethically focused essays exploring a range of ways in which child readers and adult authorities react to children's literature Even as children's literature has evolved in opposition to its origins in didactic Sunday school tracts and moralizing fables authors parents librarians and scholars remain sensitive to the values conveyed to children through the texts they choose to share with them Talking Animals in British Children's Fiction, 1786-1914 Tess Cosslett, 2017-03-02

In her reappraisal of canonical works such as Black Beauty Beautiful Joe Wind in the Willows and Peter Rabbit Tess Cosslett traces how nineteenth century debates about the human and animal intersected with or left their mark on the venerable genre of the animal story written for children Effortlessly applying a range of critical approaches from Bakhtinian ideas of the carnivalesque to feminist postcolonial and ecocritical theory she raises important questions about the construction of the child reader the qualifications of the implied author and the possibilities of children's literature compared with literature written for adults Perhaps most crucially Cosslett examines how the issues of animal speech and animal subjectivity were managed at a time when the possession of language and consciousness had become a vital sign of the difference between humans and animals Topics of great contemporary concern such as the relation of the human and the natural masculine and feminine child and adult are investigated within their nineteenth century contexts making this an important book for nineteenth century scholars children's literature specialists and historians of science and childhood Sharing the Journey: Literature for Young Children David Yellin, 2017-05-12
