The Bloomsbury Handbook of Culture and Identity from Early Childhood to Early Adulthood Ruth Wills, Marian de Souza, Jennifer Mata-McMahon, Mukhlis Abu Bakar, Cornelia Roux, 2021-07-15 How do children determine which identity becomes paramount as they grow into adolescence and early adulthood Which identity results in patterns of behaviour as they develop To whom or to which group do they feel a sense of belonging How might children adolescents and young adults negotiate the gap between their own sense of identity and the values promoted by external influences The contributors explore the impact of globalization and pluralism on the way most children and adolescents grow into early adulthood They look at the influences of media and technology that can be felt within the living spaces of their homes competing with the religious and cultural influences of family and community and consider the ways many children and adolescents have developed multiple and virtual identities which help them to respond to different circumstances and contexts They discuss the ways that many children find themselves in a perpetual state of shifting identities without ever being firmly grounded in one potentially leading to tension and confusion particularly when there is conflict between one identity and another This can result in increased anxiety and diminished self esteem This book explores how parents educators and social and health workers might have a raised awareness of the issues generated by plural identities and the overpowering human need to belong so that they can address associated issues and nurture a sense of wholeness in children and adolescents as they grow into early adulthood

Reimagining Sustainability in Precarious Times Karen Malone, Son Truong, Tonia Gray, 2017-01-17 This book reflects the considerable appeal of the Anthropocene and the way it stimulates new discussions and ideas for reimagining sustainability and its place in education in these precarious times The authors explore these new imaginings for sustainability using varying theoretical perspectives in order to consider innovative ways of engaging with concepts that are now influencing the field of sustainability and education Through their theoretical analysis research and field work the authors explore novel approaches to designing sustainability and sustainability education These approaches although diverse in focus all highlight the complex interdependencies of the human and more than human world and by unpacking binaries such as human nature nature culture subject object and de centring the human expose the complexities of an entangled human nature relation that are shaping our understanding of sustainability These messy relations challenge the well versed mantras of anthropocentric exceptionalism in sustainability and sustainability education and offer new questions rather than answers for researchers educators and practitioners to explore As working with new theoretical lenses is not always easy this book also highlights the authors methods for approaching these ideas and imaginings Teaching Geography Creatively Stephen
