Childic Francs Anne Marie Beaufort Dhautpoul:

Cassell's new biographical dictionary. Popular ed Cassell Ltd,1895

Cassell's New Biographical Dictionary ,1893

Prose Poems of the French Enlightenment Fabienne Moore,2017-11-30 By examining nearly sixty works the author traces the prehistory of the French prose poem demonstrating that the disquiet of some eighteenth century writers with the Enlightenment gave rise to the genre nearly a century before it is habitually supposed to have existed In the throes of momentous scientific philosophical and socioeconomic changes Enlightenment authors turned to the past to revive sources such as Homer the pastoral Ossian the Bible and primitive eloquence favoring music to construct alternatives to the world of reason The result the author argues were prose poems including F lon s Les Adventures de T maque Montesquieu s Le Temple de Gnide Rousseau s Le L te d Ephra m Chateaubriand s Atala as well as many lesser known texts most of which remain out of print The author s treatment of Bible criticism and eighteenth century religious reform movements reveal the often neglected spiritual side of Enlightenment culture and tracks its contribution to the period s reflection about language and poetic invention The author includes in appendices four unusual texts adjudicating the merits of prose poems making evidence of their controversial nature now accessible to readers Women in the History of Linguistics Wendy

Ayres-Bennett,Helena Sanson,2020-12-31 Women in the History of Linguistics is a ground breaking investigation into women s contribution to the description analysis and codification of languages across a wide range of different linguistic and cultural traditions Notably the volume looks beyond Europe to Africa Australia Asia and North America offering a systematic and comparative approach to a subject that has not yet received the scholarly attention it deserves In view of women s often limited educational opportunities in the past their impact is examined not only within traditional and institutional contexts but also in more domestic and less public realms The chapters explore a variety of spheres of activity including the production of grammars dictionaries philological studies critical editions and notes and reflections on the nature of language and writing systems as well as women s contribution to the documentation and maintenance of indigenous languages language teaching and acquisition methods language debates and language use and policy Attitudes towards women s language both positive and negative that regularly shape linguistic description and analysis are explored alongside metalinguistic texts specifically addressed to them as readers Women in the History of Linguistics is intended for all scholars and students interested in the history of linguistics women s studies social and cultural history and the intersection between language and gender The Cambridge History of European Romantic Literature Patrick Vincent,2023-11-09 This wide ranging new history of European Romantic Literature presents a pan European phenomenon which transcended national borders and contributed to a new sense of European cultural identity across the continent Conceived in the same spirit as Madame de Sta l s cultural and political agenda at a time when her generous idea of Europe is being challenged on all sides the volume pays close attention to the period s circulation of people ideas and texts It proposes to rethink the period comparatively focusing on various forms of cultural mediation and transfer and on productive tensions synchronicities and interactions within and across borders Organized chronologically its twenty chapters address over five hundred works proposing a coherent historical narrative without completely erasing individual nations specificities By showcasing in particular the place of Britain within continental culture the volume hopes to reactivate critical examinations of Romanticism from a historicised European perspective

The Making of the Middle Class A. Ricardo López, 2012-01-18 The contributors question the current academic understanding of what is known as the global middle class They see middle class formation as transnational and they examine this group through the lenses of economics gender race and religion from the mid nineteenth century to today

SHORE, 1867 From the Salon to the Schoolroom Rebecca Rogers, 2010-11-01 How a nation educates its children tells us much about the values of its people From the Salon to the Schoolroom examines the emerging secondary school system for girls in nineteenth century France and uncovers how that system contributed to the fashioning of the French bourgeois woman Rebecca Rogers explores the variety of schools religious and lay that existed for girls and paints portraits of the women who ran them and the girls who attended them Drawing upon a wide array of public and private sources school programs prescriptive literature inspection reports diaries and letters she reveals the complexity of the female educational experience as the schoolroom gradually replaced the salon as the site of French women's special source of influence From the Salon to the Schoolroom also shows how France as part of its civilizing mission transplanted its educational vision to other settings the colonies in Africa as well as throughout the Western world including England and the United States Historians are aware of the widespread ramifications of Jesuit education but Rogers shows how French education for girls played into the cross cultural interactions of modern society producing an image of the Frenchwoman that continues to tantalize and fascinate the Western world today
