

When at last the snow storm had passed, the children shook themselves out of the snow. All around them the dwarf-birch forest began to move, and out from the snow came all the reindeer. For they, too, had been snowed under, and only their antlers had stuck out. And now Lise and Lasse saw that they had gone round in a ring in the snow storm and were lying right at their own tent door. They were shame-faced about it, but their brothers thought it was fun. They jumped around and teased them.

This volume is a collection of essays based on papers given at the Nordic Translation Conference which took place in London in March 2008. The purpose of the collection is twofold. First it serves to place the Nordic languages firmly into the field of translation studies where hitherto little research has focused on the Nordic region; the essays include many Nordic specific studies and ideas. Second the book presents research and conclusions which are relevant to translation studies in all languages and cultures. Therefore this volume which covers a wide range of Nordic languages and both literary and non literary topics is unambiguously pertinent to the Nordic countries while also being universally valuable.

Northern Lights Trilogy Lisa Tawn Bergren, 2012-10-23. Three Historical novels for the price of one in this eBook e only omnibus. From the hills of Norway to the coast of Maine, the streets of San Francisco and the Alaskan wilderness comes this stirring trilogy about a group of Norwegian immigrants whose lives are forever intertwined. Set in the late nineteenth century, The Northern Lights series will captivate historical fiction fans. Lovers of family saga and adventure will be swept into the tender romances as characters make important journeys toward growth and real faith. The Captain's Bride: Leaving their home in Norway behind, Elsa and Peder Ramstad embark on a new life in with their closest friends including Kaatje Jansen, a woman seeking a new beginning for the sake of her marriage and for the child growing within her; Elsa's sister Tora, a sly young vixen who knows exactly what she wants and exactly how to get it; and Karl Martensen, a man torn between his friendship for Peder and a forbidden secret love for Elsa. Experience an epic saga of perseverance and passion, faith and fidelity. Deep Harbor: Determined to live the good life no matter the price, Tora Anders weaves a web of lies that could cost her everything she cares for, including a successful future and the man she loves. Her sister Elsa Ramstad has everything her heart desires: a loving husband, a family she adores, and a fulfilling life at sea. Then tragedy strikes. Now drawing upon her faith and all the strength she can muster, Elsa must once again discover the woman she is and who she chooses to be. Four years after her husband's disappearance, Kaatje Janssen struggles to raise two young daughters and tend her farm. But when help comes from the most unlikely source, Kaatje faces both uncertainty about the future and a deep secret from her past. And after years of grappling with his feelings for Elsa and the mistakes he has made, Karl is caught in a life of loneliness and emptiness. Can he finally accept the reality of what he once lost and open himself up to the possibility of what could be? Separated by physical distance and emotional boundaries, these four, bound by friendship and family, find each other once again and discover that some ties can never be broken. In Deep Harbor. Midnight Sun: Desperate to know if her missing husband still lives, Kaatje Janssen hires the rugged yet tenderhearted James Walker to guide her through the perils of the Alaskan wilderness. What she finally discovers, however, is far from what she expected and could well place her in the greatest danger of her life. As captain of the Majestic and mother of Kristian and Eve, Elsa Ramstad has sought to ease the ache of her lonely heart. But when an old friend rekindles the spark of romance within her, will she allow the flames of love to burn again? Her foolish youth behind her, Tora Anders looks forward to her wedding and a fresh start in life as the wife of her beloved Trent Storm. But first she must confront face to face the terrible demons of her past and her struggle to forgive the man who radically altered her future Though widely admired Captain Karl Martensen feels no depth of emotion for any of the women with whom his life becomes uncomfortably entangled He has only tender memories of the love he once lost a love who by the grace of God he may just find again Witness the glorious conclusion of The Northern Lights Trilogy as four bound by friendship journey out of the shadow of their darkest days into the bright future awaiting them in the land of the Midnight Sun Northern Lights on PISA 2006 Tomas Matti, 2009 The Next Big Thing Trends Shaping Nordic Innovation is written for people interested in and working with the issues of innovation economic development globalisation and climate change and how these issues impact on companies and industries and in national or in international settings such as Nordic co operation or the European Union The book argues that innovation needs to be measured and managed Innovation needs to be developed as a serious management discipline in order to deliver on the future expectations of investors whether these investors are from private companies or public government agencies The publication also argues that there is a need to emphasise that research is not the same as innovation and that we need to distinguish between science and the scientific method in order to develop better innovation policies and innovation management techniques In the final focus chapter on climate change the book states that the Nordic region has a strong position within some of the new energy and environment industries Yet in order to keep that position and to stay in the global vanguard of clean technologies and climate industries it might be necessary for the Nordic countries to experiment with what the authors call forced innovation The book is relevant for industry branch organisations company managers policy makers public policy professionals as well as graduate and undergraduate courses in management innovation entrepreneurship globalisation and climate change
