major children's films from around the world Horror Films for Children Catherine Lester, 2021-10-21 Children and horror are often thought to be an incompatible meeting of audience and genre beset by concerns that children will be corrupted or harmed through exposure to horror media Nowhere is this tension more clear than in horror films for adults where the demonic child villain is one of the genre's most enduring tropes However horror for children is a unique category of contemporary Hollywood cinema in which children are addressed as an audience with specific needs fears and desires and where child characters are represented as sympathetic protagonists whose encounters with the horrific lead to cathartic subversive and productive outcomes Horror Films for Children examines the history aesthetics and generic characteristics of children's horror films and identifies the horrific child as one of the defining features of the genre where it is as much a staple as it is in adult horror but with vastly different representational interpretative and affective possibilities Through analysis of case studies including blockbuster hits Gremlins cult favourites The Monster Squad and indie darlings Coraline Catherine Lester asks what happens to the horror genre and the horrific children it represents when children are the target audience The Children's Film Foundation Robert Shail, 2019-07-25 From the 1950s to the 1980s the Children's Film Foundation made films for Saturday morning cinema clubs across the UK entertaining and educating generations of British children This first history of this much loved organisation provides an overview of the CFF's films interviews with key backstage personnel and memories of audience members Film as Religion John Lyden, 2003-06 Choice Outstanding Academic Title 2003 Film as Religion argues that popular films perform a religious function in our culture Like more formal religious institutions films can provide us with ways to view the world and values to confront it Lyden contends that approaches which interpret films only ideologically or theologically miss the mark in understanding their appeal to viewers He develops an alternative method which shows how films can be understood as representing a religious worldview in their own right Lyden surveys the state of the study of religion and film offering an overview of previous methods before presenting his own Rather than seeking to uncover hidden meanings in film detectable only to scholars Lyden emphasizes how film functions for its audiences the beliefs and values it conveys and its ritual power to provide emotional catharsis He includes a number of brief case studies in which he applies this method to the study of film genres including westerns and action movies children's films and romantic comedies and individual films from The Godfather to E.T. showing how films can function religiously The Art of Movies Nicolae Sfetcu, 2014-05-06 Movie is considered to be an important art form films entertain educate enlighten and inspire audiences Film is a term that encompasses motion pictures as individual projects as well as in metonymy the field in general The origin of the name comes from the fact that photographic film also called filmstock has historically been the primary medium for recording and displaying motion pictures Many other terms exist motion pictures or just pictures or picture the silver screen photoplays the cinema picture shows flicks and commonly movies
