Existential And Spiritual Issues In Death Attitudes:

Existential and Spiritual Issues in Death Attitudes Adrian Tomer, Grafton Eliason, Paul T. P. Wong, 2008 In this new volume death is treated both as a threat to meaning and as an opportunity to create meaning Reflecting on the Inevitable Peter J. Adams, 2020-03-09 Death studies have over the last twenty years witnessed a flourishing of research and scholarship particularly in areas such as dying and bereavement cultural practices and fear of dying But despite its importance a specific focus on the nature of personal mortality has attracted surprisingly little attention Reflecting on the Inevitable combines evidence from several disciplinary fields to explore the varying ways each of us engages with the prospect of personal mortality Chapters are organized around the question of how an ongoing relationship might be possible when the threat of consciousness coming to an end points to an unspeakable nothingness The book then argues that despite this threat an ongoing relationship with one's own death is still possible by means of conceptual devices or enabling frames that help shape personal mortality into a relatable object In each chapter the subtleties and applicability of key ideas are enhanced through a series of illustrative narratives built up around the lives of four people at different ages living in two adjacent houses Reflecting on the Inevitable is relevant not only to academics of death studies but also those training and practicing in people helping professions as well as anyone experiencing or attempting to make sense of major life events
