Expectations 30 Women Talk About Becoming A Mother:

Expectations Laurie Wagner, 1998 Expectations presents 30 new mothers accounts of giving birth Through profound touching interviews and dynamic portraits of mother and child Laurie Wagner and Anne Hamersky offer a view of motherhood in all its contradictions and contentment 39 duotone images Planet Parenthood Julie Tilsner, 2001 The author a veteran mom helps prepare parenting rookies for changes and challenges ahead in this informative guide that uses wit and whimsy to offer parenting advice I'm Okay, You're a Brat! Susan Jeffers, 2001-07-13 Details just how difficult parenting can be questioning the myths and half truths that make some parents feel inadequate and offering valuable survival tools Glamour, 2004-02 I'm 30 Now What: A Woman's Guide To Living A Life Of Choice Ky-Lee Hanson, 2017-11-02 I m 30 Now What is a discovery through the perception of women born between 1977 1987 At the time of writing this book we are in our thirties There is something about our generation that never quite fit in a traditional sense Our authors are from or have lived in Canada USA Turkey Germany Barcelona and Europe yet there is a common feeling of displacement across the globe within our lost generation We were the first generation to have vast choices around education career and our role in the household We were able to stumble off the traditional path and survive We were raised in a very transitional phase from single to dual income households and grew up during the rise of broken homes We saw war for its true colors an industry and not an act of freedom the creation of the internet and watching it burst followed by an economic banking and housing crash We also saw positive change rapid gentrification spirituality equal rights gay rights and same sex marriage the everyday feminist and females running the workplace male nurses stay at home dads and moms to mompreneurs to childless women by choice finding commonalities outside of mommyhood As adults we view diversity and open mindedness as our way of life We didn t start all these trends but we are the outcome We were born to be a generation of change a generation of options Maybe instead of being the lost generation we were the born Choice Makers Yet we don t fully own this We CAN choose a life outside of a cookie cutter mold and we have the right to be unapologetic when doing so This book is a heavy controversial eye opener while being a tool for healing growth owning your power and embracing choice Women, Mothers, Subjects Maura Sheehy, 2015-10-14 This collection drawn from twelve years of the influential journal Studies in Gender and Sexuality offers a groundbreaking advance in thinking and theorizing about what happens to women when they become mothers It explores how women are changed and shaped by interaction with their children and the cultural constructs about motherhood in which they are embedded Distinguished psychoanalysts philosophers feminists gender and cultural theorists explore the meeting place of cultural representations of motherhood maternal theory and mothers interacting in the clinical setting and with their children to illuminate how the process of becoming a mother creates and informs female subjectivity identity desire expression aggression ambition shame envy and relationships Contributors find mothers to be complex subjects negotiating rich hybrid identities that explode received notions of maternal and even female subjectivity in their

complexity They create an exciting and very accessible new set of ideas and templates for thinking about mothers and women that will be of value to clinicians academics and mothers alike This book was originally published as a special issue of Studies in Gender and Sexuality Girlfriends ,1998 The American Oxonian ,2003 List of Rhodes scholars 1904 1915 v 2 p 145 161 Vol for 1934 include Addresses and occupations of Rhodes scholars and other Oxonians called 1934 36 Addresses and occupations of Rhodes scholars Good Housekeeping ,1998 Mothers and Daughters Suzanne Degges-White,Christine Borzumato-Gainey,2014-01-16 In addition to the simple physiological and genetic bond that connects parents to their children there is also a deeply rooted and often conflicting emotional bond that develops between mothers and daughters The culture of motherhood has dramatically re shaped itself over the past few decades as economics and politics have shifted in this nation Single parenting is no longer the cultural taboo it once was perceived to be Daughters and mothers are frequently spending a greater number of years under one roof as both emerging adults face financial challenges in trying to launch from the nest and older adults are living longer and often being cared for by daughters Making sense of these relationships can be challenging and upsetting rewarding and fulfilling all at once Here the authors discuss the roles of mother and daughter and how they have changed and continue to grow and present the stories of women from all walks of life and from different age groups to illustrate what being a mother and being a daughter really means to women in their everyday lives They guide readers to a better understanding of their relationships on a personal level even as they describe the evolving nature of contemporary mother daughter dynamics By providing women with a book that candidly explores the myriad paths and depths to which the mother daughter relationship might wind the authors help readers smooth over the difficulties and power struggles they may be experiencing with their mothers or their daughters or both Feminist Bookstore News ,1998 Of Woman Born: Motherhood as Experience and Institution Adrienne Rich,1995-04-17 Adrienne Rich s influential and landmark investigation concerns both the experience and the institution of motherhood The experience is her own as a woman a poet a feminist and a mother but it is an experience determined by the institution imposed on all women everywhere She draws on personal materials history research and literature to create a document of universal importance Travellin Mama Mothers, Mothering and Travel Charlotte Beyer,2019-03-01 Don t women with children travel Marybeth Bond and Pamela Michael enquire in their book A Mother s World Journeys of the Heart 1998 when discovering the absence of portrayals of travelling mothers Addressing this absence our book Travellin Mama Mothers Mothering and Travel explores the multiple dimensions of motherhood and travel Through a variety of compelling creative pieces and critical essays with a global outlook and wide ranging historical cultural and national perspectives Travellin Mama Mothers Mothering and Travel examines the vital contributions made to travel writing and representations of travel by mothers Autoethnographical approaches inform many of the pieces in this book illustrating the significance of the personal and writing the self in re imagining our cultural narratives and representations of travel and the mothers who undertake it

This book is about mothers who travel for mothers who travel with their children and all those readers who have travelled in any capacity with or without family Middle Grounds: Essays on Midlife Mothering Kathy Mantas, 2018-06-01 Although motherhood writings are rich and emerging the available literature on midlife motherhood and mothering is incomplete and often presented from a narrow perspective Middle Grounds: Essays on Midlife Mothering fills this gap widening the lens on a sociological phenomenon that is expanding in the twenty first century It brings together scholarly and creative essays from diverse disciplines and cultural perspectives to reflect a more contemporary viewpoint that motherhood and mothering is not limited by the stages of life or chronological age It echoes distinct voices speaking about experiences that represent a global reality for midlife mothering practices In essence this collection demonstrates that everything can transpire in the middle period of a woman s life Thus in midlife we encounter a broad range of mothering experiences and practices and ways of representing and expressing them New Books on Women and Feminism ,1998 Unbecoming Mothers Diana Gustafson, 2013-10-08 Learn the who what and why of unbecoming a mother In a society where becoming a mother is naturalized unbecoming a mother the process of coming to live apart from biological children is regarded as unnatural improper or even contemptible Few mothers are more stigmatized than those who are perceived as having given up surrendered or abandoned their birth children Unbecoming Mothers: The Social Production of Maternal Absence examines this phenomenon within the social and historical context of parenting in Canada Australia Britain and the United States with critical observations from social workers policymakers and historians This unique book offers insights from the perspectives of children on the outside looking in and the lived experiences of women on the inside looking out Unbecoming Mothers: The Social Production of Maternal Absence explores how gender race class and other social agents affect the ways women negotiate their lives apart from their children and how they attempt to recreate their identities and family structures An interdisciplinary international collection of academics community workers and mothers draws upon sources as diverse as archival records a therapist s interview a dance script and the class presentation of a student to offer refreshing insights on maternal absence that are innovative accessible and inspiring Unbecoming Mothers examines five assumptions about maternal absence and the families that emerge from that absence the focus on parenting as highly gendered caring work done by women the idea that women share the same experience of unbecoming mothers and share the same circumstances and background the perception of maternal absence as a recent phenomenon the notion that women who want to manage their mother work will make choices to overcome life s obstacles the Western concept of womanhood being achieved through motherhood and the unrealistic ideal of the good mother Unbecoming Mothers: The Social Production of Maternal Absence is a rich multidisciplinary resource for academics working in women s studies psychology sociology history and any health related fields and for policymakers social workers and other community workers Twenty-first-Century Motherhood Andrea O'Reilly, 2010-09-28 Andrea O'Reilly s coverage is comprehensive Her book reflects current trends in the field particularly the examination of reproductive technologies and the Internet and their implications for motherhood and mothering Heather Hewett State University of New York New Paltz writer and editor of the Global Mama column for Girl with Pen www.girlwpen.com Women's Work Young, Zoe, 2018-09-12 Shortlisted for the BSA Philip Abrams Memorial Prize 2019 What is it really like to be a mother with a career working flexibly Drawing on over 100 hours of interview data this book is the first to go inside women's work and family lives in a year of working flexibly The private labours of going part time job sharing and home working are brought to life with vivid personal stories Taking a sociological and feminist perspective it explores contemporary motherhood work life balance emotional work in families couples and housework maternity transitions interactions with employers work design and workplace cultures and employment policies It concludes that there is an opportunity to make employment and family life work better together and offers unique insights from women's lived experiences on how to do it The Ann Oakley Reader Ann Oakley, 2005-06-29 This book brings together edited extracts from classic texts by the internationally renowned feminist sociologist Ann Oakley Edited and selected by the author herself it starts with work first published in the early 1970s Mother Jones, 1983-05
