Globalizing Intercultural Communication Kathryn Sorrells, Sachi Sekimoto, 2015-01-02 Translating Theory into Practice Globalizing Intercultural Communication A Reader introduces students to intercultural communication within the global context and equips them with the knowledge and understanding to grapple with the dynamic interconnected and complex nature of intercultural relations in the world today This reader is organized around foundational and contemporary themes of intercultural communication Each of the 14 chapters pairs an original research article explicating key topics theories or concepts with a first person narrative that brings the chapter content alive and invites students to develop and apply their knowledge of intercultural communication Each chapter s pair of readings is framed by an introduction highlighting important issues presented in the readings that are relevant to the study and practice of intercultural communication and end of chapter pedagogical features including key terms and discussion questions In addition to illuminating concepts theories and issues authors editors Kathryn Sorrells and Sachi Sekimoto focus particular attention on grounding theory in everyday experience and translating theory into practice and actions that can be taken to promote social responsibility and social justice      100 Years of Radio in South Africa, Volume 2 Sisanda Nkoala, Gilbert Motsaathebe, 2023-12-27 The book brings together media scholars and practitioners to deliberate on the role and influence of radio broadcasting in South Africa over the past 100 years The publication will add to the existing body of knowledge on radio in this context by being among one of the few to consider radio broadcasting in South Africa Essentially the book will make a distinct contribution focusing on a critique of the medium's role in community building and culture making among others While the book will provide relevant theoretical frameworks it also aims to include the voices of media practitioners who can reflect on the importance of this medium from a more realistic perspective Volume 2 focuses on the impact of digitization on radio in South Africa and considers the future of radio in South Africa      Cultural Issues in Health and Health Care Adele Tjale, Louise De Villiers, 2004 Spirituality economics politics and kinship are among the cultural factors considered in this guide to transcultural nursing an area of healthcare that incorporates the values beliefs and lifestyle choices of a patient in order to provide culturally congruent competent and compassionate care      Real Communication: An Introduction with Mass Communication Dan O'Hair, Mary Wiemann, 2012-01-16 Real Communication uses stories from real people and the world around us to present the best and most lively introduction to communication concepts Professors and students alike have fallen in love with Real Communication's down to earth writing style its coverage of research and its wealth of learning and teaching tools They also appreciate how Real Communication strives to weave the discipline's different strands together with the CONNECT feature that shows students how concepts work and apply across interpersonal small group public speaking and mass media contexts The Second Edition is even better with a broader array of engaging examples new coverage of hot topics in the field like Intercultural and mediated communication plus a public speaking unit honed to provide the essential information students need for this fast paced course A new chapter on mass communication connects topics like media convergence mediated communication media messages and media effects to everyday communication      Communication Ethics and Universal Values Clifford G. Christians, Michael Traber, 1997-01-28 This volume is designed to revolutionize the field of communication by identifying a broad ethical theory which transcends the world of mass media practice to reveal a more humane and responsible code of values The contributors representing a diverse range of intercultural perspectives defend the possibility of universal moral imperatives such as justice reciprocity and human dignity Through an examination of the values in which their cultures are grounded they provide a short list of ethical principles which form the common ground from which to view contemporary issues in the media interpersonal communication mediation and conflict resolution      Ethics in intercultural and international Communication Fred L. Casmir, 2013-10-18 There has been an increased interest in both intercultural and international communication as well as ethical aspects of such interactions In spite of this there are no books which address this specific subject matter beyond limited surveys of different types or forms of ethics or attempted comparisons between various ethical or value systems This book intends to engage readers rather than trying to teach them about ethics or how to be ethical It is questionable that ethics can be taught as academic subject matter or that such instructions will result in meaningful applications in the daily lives of students By considering specific challenges affecting ethical behavior in various intercultural and international interactions and by suggesting interactive dialogic behavioral models as well as examples the authors seek to create an atmosphere of involvement and discussion which will lead researchers to consider the ethics undergirding their own lives as well as any resulting ethical or unethical practices

Cognition, Emotion and Consciousness in Modernist Storyworlds Margrét Gunnarsdóttir Champion,2022-11-25 This volume brings together contributions from scholars across the globe interested in the representation of embodied minds in literary texts ranging from George Eliot to Hilary Mantel It focuses specifically on the experimental formalism of canonical modernism as well as on innovative works in literary history which interface with avant garde poetics Approaching textual aspects such as time and space character gender the social mind and readers participation through the parameters of cognition emotion and consciousness the contributions here will broaden the reader s understanding of the nexus between mind and narrative as well as of how the modernist aesthetic enriches the conditions of that nexus Significantly the book also collectively illustrates how experientiality considered by many narratologists to be equal to narrativity to the very ontology of narrative remains a cross generic phenomenon an inherent feature of poetry and documentary reporting no less than of the novel proper

Transforming Teaching and Learning Experiences for Helping Professions in Higher Education ,2023-02-27 Higher education has transformed and continues to transform in this century because of decolonizing the curriculum and the COVID 19 pandemic which have added an indelible mark to the methodology of teaching and learning Learning spaces have become open to more people through privatization massification e learning platforms and internationally mobile academics allowing individuals from diverse backgrounds to enter the academic and helping professions space Educators need to reskill repurpose redesign and reimagine for a world that is rapidly evolving New ways of teaching need to consider nuances of decolonization of the curriculum deep understanding of subjects transformative ways of imparting knowledge and technology enhanced learning needs to be embraced Thus the teaching and learning spaces in developed and developing environments move beyond the classroom to prepare 21st century citizens to embrace life long learning Furthermore the content as well as processes involved in teaching and learning must be explored thoughtfully that includes the perspectives of a more inclusive wave of educators and students Thus this book has implications for a global scholarship specifically during disruptive times in Higher Education It is hoped that the book stimulates reflections so that the reader draws inspiration to find contextual relevance that extends into the real world

Third Level, Third Space Michael Kelly,Imelda Elliott,Lars Fant,2001 This book argues that intercultural communication generates a third space between people languages and cultures It has a particularly important role to play in third level education But those who teach about it need to be more aware of language especially but not only in the context of Europe which is characterised both by creative linguistic and cultural diversity and by obstacles to communication The world is undergoing rapid and profound transformation Internationalisation of the global economy the communications revolution and increased mobility have exponentially increased the scale of encounters between people and cultures This has a far reaching transformative impact on the identities and values they carry The chapters were first presented at colloquia of the Thematic Network in Languages at Antwerp and Boulogne in 1998 and 1999 They contain a wealth of reflection and good ideas and identify a number of practical imperatives ethical political and institutional The book presents a series of challenges and invites the reader to consider how changes might be implemented in different contexts so as to strengthen the ability of higher education to contribute to the successful development of a multi cultural and multilingual Europe
