The Downward Spiral Leonard Kreger II, 2010-06-10 The Downward Spiral Beginnings and Endings tells a story about numerous characters and their lives and how they cope with the ups and downs of the world they live in One scene in particular is pivotal and brings them together on a snowy day in Schaumburg Illinois Life will change forever for some in this tale Music plays a large part along with the day to day life that people live and their jobs they report to and how they communicate with others and how they deal with loss It focuses on a mother and a husband and then a son Then it becomes just a mother and son They go through life with problems like everyone and you see how they deal with them and how they get through the difficult times The arguments they have and the love that they find and lose You see how a boy grows up into a teenager and see his likes and dislikes and what he seems to want in life A mother who deals with things not always going her way and just adjusting to it and hoping things turn out for the best We learn about other characters who have smaller roles in this tale but they are as well very important and you fell for them and what they have in relationships and their careers and their families They are out doing the most normal tasks and talking with friends and communicating with their pets They are dealing with the snow and the winter in the Midwest A world can be cruel and it can tear things apart if you are not careful They have no idea what is to come but they are real people with problems and issues and some are in love and some are in the process of fixing their mistakes and they will be in the same place on a cool snowy February Saturday Beginnings and Endings this is true in many senses as this novel goes on Lives and relationships and love and events they all are part of this cycle Some of these things end and some of these begin This world is filled with sadness and darkness and then at the same time it is filled with some happiness and the characters are set to these feelings and that day A boy and his mother wait outside and wonder what just happened and you have no real answer for him What do you say That wasn't what you expected to see and you didn't expect to hear screams Her husband his father picks them up and they drive off with a new sense of life and a feeling of sadness has taken over them Newsweek, 1963 Up in Here Mark Dostert, 2014-09-01 Raised in a comfortable Dallas suburb Mark Dostert crossed cultural and socioeconomic boundaries as a college student by volunteering as a counselor at the Cook County Juvenile Temporary Detention Center Chicago's infamous 500 cell juvenile jail known locally as the Audy Home Inmates there had been indicted on first degree murder rape and carjacking charges yet some enthusiastically met with him for weekly Bible based lessons and discussions Dostert formed friendly relationships with his students and envisioned becoming an even closer mentor to the legally troubled boys when he became an employee there after graduating from college The juveniles attitudes toward Dostert change however once he begins working as a Children's Attendant at the Audy Home clocking in for eight hours every day to enforce rules and maintain order on the cellblocks His colorblind altruistic volunteer world fractures into a full time emotionally charged reality of white and black and brown When the boys change he must change too Despite wanting to help them feel human in such a dehumanizing environment Dostert realizes he needs to make sure his kindness is not perceived as weakness Dostert learns to march the juveniles through the facility to school recreation activities and chapel He must strip search them interrupt their brawls root through their cells for drugs and handcrafted weapons and monitor group showers to thwart sexual extortion and the inscription of gang symbols in soap on walls and mirrors Week after week and month after month the job exposes hidden views not only of the juveniles and the system incarcerating them but of Children s Attendant Dostert himself From one man s struggle to reconcile his humanitarian intentions with his actual job responsibilities in what to him is a strange new world emerges a sincere effort to confront the realities of America s persisting racial tensions and institutionalized poverty Dostert s story is an honest and unflinching journey from thinking he has many of the answers for how to change this world to discovering how little he really knows about the world he is trying to change Chicago Tribune Index ,1998 Top 10 Hockey Goalies Dean
