Chicago City On The Make:

Chicago, City on the Make Nelson Algren, 1983 Ernest Hemingway once said of Nelson Algren's writing that you should not read it if you cannot take a punch. The prose poem Chicago City on the Make filled with language that swings and jabs and stuns lives up to those words. This 50th anniversary edition is newly annotated with explanations for everything from slang to Chicagoans famous and obscure to what the Black Sox scandal was and why it mattered. More accessible than ever this is as Studs Terkel says the best book about Chicago. Algren's Chicago a kind of American annex to Dante's inferno is a nether world peopled by rat-faced hustlers and money-loving demons who crawl in the writer's brilliant sordid uncompromising and twisted imagination. This book searches a city's heart and mind rather than its avenues and public buildings. New York Times Book Review. This short crisp fighting creed is both a social document and a love poem a script in which a lover explains his city's recurring ruthlessness and latent power in which an artist recognizes that these are portents not of death but of life. New York Herald Tribune. Nelson Algren 1909-1981 won the National Book Award in 1950 for The Man with the Golden Arm. His other works include Walk on the Wild Side, The Neon Wilderness and Conversations with Nelson Algren the last available from the University of Chicago Press. David Schmittgens teaches English at St Ignatius College Prep in Chicago Illinois. Bill Savage is a lecturer at Northwestern University and coeditor of the 50th Anniversary Critical Edition of The Man with the Golden Arm.

Chicago Nelson Algren, 2001-09-25 Newly annotated with everything from slang to Chicagoans famous and obscure this book is as Studs Terkel says the best book about Chicago.

Chicago on the Make Andrew J. Diamond, 2020-04-07 Effectively details the long history of racial conflict and abuse that has led to Chicago becoming one of America's most segregated cities. A wealth of material. New York Times Winner of the 2017 Jon Gjerde Prize. Midwestern History Association Winner of the 2017 Award of Superior Achievement. Illinois State Historical Society. Heralded as America's quintessentially modern city Chicago has attracted the gaze of journalists novelists essayists and scholars as much as any city in the nation. And yet few historians have attempted big picture narratives of the city's transformation over the twentieth century. Chicago on the Make traces the evolution of the city's politics culture and economy as it grew from an unruly tangle of rail yards slaughterhouses factories tenement houses and fiercely defended ethnic neighborhoods into a truly global urban center. Reinterpreting the familiar narrative that Chicago's autocratic machine politics shaped its institutions and public life Andrew J. Diamond demonstrates how the grassroots politics of race crippled progressive forces and enabled an alliance of downtown business interests to promote a neoliberal agenda that created stark inequalities. Chicago on the Make takes the story into the twenty-first century chronicling Chicago's deeply entrenched social and urban problems as the city ascended to the national stage during the Obama years.

Chicago Nelson Algren, 1961

Nelson Algren Richard F. Bales, 2024-11-07 This book addresses critical gaps in existing biographies of Nelson Algren providing new perspectives on his writing style literary contributions professional colleagues and personal life especially his relationship with Simone de Beauvoir Although Beauvoir maintained a simultaneous relationship with philosopher Jean Paul Sartre the correspondence exchanged between Beauvoir Algren and Sartre as this book discusses sheds new light on her transatlantic love affair with Algren Moreover this work challenges the assertion that Algren s writing aligns seamlessly with the New Journalism style popularized by Tom Wolfe It investigates how Algren s literary legacy might have diverged had he embraced more of the principles associated with New Journalism

The Short Writings of Nelson Algren Richard F. Bales,2022-09-22 Nelson Algren was a renowned Chicago writer known for his social commentary and his novels like The Man with the Golden Arm and A Walk on the Wild Side Although he continues to be remembered almost exclusively for his novels this book aims to highlight the value and influence of his short form works Before he died in 1981 Algren had amassed a genre defying body of work including short stories articles poems and book reviews The present book features a comprehensive analysis and discussion of Algren s lost literature including everything but his novels One of the pieces covered is a masterpiece of race relations written in 1950 more than 60 years before the galvanization of the Black Lives Matter movement Another is a scathing poem about Algren s transatlantic love affair with Simone de Beauvoir Both items are reprinted in the book courtesy of the Algren estate This book also includes references to Algren s works that have yet to be studied by Algren scholars

October Cities Carlo Rotella,2023-09-01 Returning to his native Chicago after World War II Nelson Algren found a city transformed The flourishing industry culture and literature that had placed prewar Chicago at center stage in American life were entering a time of crisis The middle class and economic opportunity were leaving the inner city and Black Southerners arriving in Chicago found themselves increasingly estranged from the nation s economic and cultural resources For Algren Chicago was becoming an October sort of city even in the spring and as Carlo Rotella demonstrates this metaphorical landscape of fall led Algren and others to forge a literary form that traced the American city s transformation Narratives of decline like the complementary narratives of black migration and inner city life written by Claude Brown and Gwendolyn Brooks became building blocks of the postindustrial urban literature October Cities examines these narratives as they played out in Chicago Philadelphia and Manhattan Through the work of Algren Brown Brooks and other urban writers Rotella explores the relationship of this new literature to the cities it draws upon for inspiration The stories told are of neighborhoods and families molded by dramatic urban transformation on a grand scale with vast movements of capital and people racial succession and an intensely changing urban landscape Returning to his native Chicago after World War II Nelson Algren found a city transformed The flourishing industry culture and literature that had placed prewar Chicago at center stage in American life were entering a time of crisis The middle class

Religion and Public Life in the Midwest Philip L. Barlow,Mark Silk,2004 Not just in the middle geographically the Midwest represents the American average in terms of beliefs attitudes and values The region s religious portrait matches the national religious portrait more closely than any other region But far from making the Midwest dull average means most every religious group and religious issue are represented in this region Unlike other volumes in the series Religion and Public Life in the Midwest includes a chapter devoted to a single city Chicago a chapter on a single Mainline Protestant denomination Lutherans and a chapter on religious variations in urban suburban and rural settings This fourth book in the Religion by Region series does not neglect the pervasive image of the typical Midwesterner but it does let the region's marbled religious diversity come through

Images of the American City Anselm L. Strauss, 2017-09-08 Originally published in 1961 Images of the American City examines how Americans dealt with the rapid shock of urbanization as it evolved from an agricultural nation Working from the framework of a social psychologist Anselm L. Strauss offers a deeper look into the sociological psychological and historical perspectives of urban development He describes how the cultural changes of a space ultimately develop urban imagery by looking towards the urbanization of America from people's views of the cities rather than how the cities are themselves Urban imageries are contrasted with the context of an ideal city and visitors' perspectives of cities Strauss takes a step back to ask questions about what Americans think and have thought of their cities How do these cities compare to the image of an ideal city What are the different perspectives between a city dweller and a visitor He contrasts the tension between those within the city and those outside of its urban limits Strauss describes how space and time are major themes in the symbolic urbanization of a city He offers a macroscopic view of the city as a whole and shows how urban imageries evolved from changes in lifestyles He then provides historical breakdowns of different regions of the country and how they were urbanized This book documents and illustrates the change in American symbolization from the growth of American cities to the union of urbanity and rurality
