Chiesa E Islam In Italia Chiesa E Islam In Italia:

Chiesa e islam in Italia Miguel Angel Ayuso Guixot,2008 The Oxford Handbook of European Islam Jocelyne Cesari,2015 For centuries Muslim countries and Europe have engaged one another through theological dialogues diplomatic missions political rivalries and power struggles In the last thirty years due in large part to globalization and migration from Islamic countries to the West what was previously an engagement across national and cultural boundaries has increasingly become an internalized encounter within Europe itself Questions of the Hijab in schools freedom of expression in the wake of the Danish Cartoon crisis and the role of Shari a have come to the forefront of contemporary European discourse The Oxford Handbook of European Islam is the first collection to present a comprehensive approach to the multiple and changing ways Islam has been studied across European countries Parts one to three address the state of knowledge of Islam and Muslims within a selection of European countries while presenting a critical view of the most up to date data specific to each country These chapters analyze the immigration cycles and policies related to the presence of Muslims tackling issues such as discrimination post colonial identity adaptation and assimilation The thematic chapters in parts four and five examine secularism radicalization Shari a Hijab and Islamophobia with the goal of synthesizing different national discussion into a more comparative theoretical framework The Handbook attempts to balance cutting edge assessment with the knowledge that the content itself will eventually be superseded by events Featuring eighteen newly commissioned essays by noted scholars in the field this volume will provide an excellent resource for students and scholars interested in European Studies immigration Islamic studies and the sociology of religion Migrant Families and Religious Belonging G.G. Valtolina,L. Zanfrini,2023-06 Over the past three decades migration has become the main driver of population growth or of preventing its decrease in many EU countries The presence of so many families with a migrant background is however to some extent an unexpected phenomenon arising from the permanent settlement of migrant guest workers expected to be temporary residents and from other unplanned processes such as decolonization and the influx of asylum seekers Moreover family reunification is today one of the main legal channels by which migrants come to Europe so it is no coincidence that the main issues animating European public debate on inter ethnic coexistence involve family religion and the relationships between genders and generations Finally the migrant family has to some extent become a lens through which to analyze many key topics connected with the present and future of European societies This work Migrant Families and Religious Belonging is a collection of nine essays exploring the relationship between family religion and immigration These essays mainly focus on the integration process with particular attention to the experience of migrants offspring The book consists of an introductory chapter and four thematic sections and topics covered include gender equality forced marriages child fostering care and religious radicalization The relationship between family religion and immigration provides a fascinating perspective to explore and shed light on European society today The book will be of interest to a wide range of academics researchers and practitioners Freedom of Religion, Security and the Law Natascia Marchei, Daniela Milani, 2024-05-27 This collection addresses many of the issues arising from the management of religious and cultural diversity in a multicultural society and refers to the complex relationship between the right to religious freedom and security In recent decades and particularly since September 2001 the right to religious freedom which has hitherto been widely protected has come up against a significant challenge in terms of security or rather in the subjectively and publicly perceived feelings of security This book collects original theoretical legal and comparative contributions addressing several implications for the right to freedom of religion or belief through the lens of security It offers a new key to understanding how to manage the processes of integration of religious diversity in multifaith societies Written by leading experts in the area the work reveals the importance of avoiding simplistic conclusions and unfounded prejudices about religious freedom and of limiting restrictive or repressive interventions to situations of genuine danger The book will be an essential resource for researchers academics and policy makers working in the areas of Law and Religion Human Rights Law and Security Studies Law, Religion and Love Paul Babie, Vanja-Ivan Savić, 2017-09-01 Increasingly the modern neo liberal world marginalises any notion of religion or spirituality leaving little or no room for the sacred in the public sphere While this process advances the conservative and harmful behaviours associated with some religions and their adherents exacerbate this marginalisation by driving out those who remain religious or spiritual And all of this is seen through the lens of social science which seems to agree that religion remains important if not in spiritual sense at least as a source of folklore and a means of identification religions remain rooted in the societies from which they emerged and the legal systems of many of those societies emerged from religious sources even if those societies remain unwilling to admit that fact In the modern materialistic world of conformity religion is less a source of guidance than a label of identification The world therefore faces two issues First the decreasing level of spirituality in the West widens the gap between worshippers and those who have left their faith eg agnostics and atheists or those who look at religion as a matter of picking and choosing from a range of options And second the strong connections to religion which remain in many nations but which are often misused in the secular public sphere both in the West and internationally In such divided worlds both religious and secular forces tend to lock themselves into closed groupings of pure truth and in so doing increase the level of disagreement in turn producing radicalism In short the modern world is divided in two ways between religious and non religious although some have argued that the non religious secular is itself a form of civil religion and between those subscribing to divergent understandings of the same religious tradition While hyperbolic and histrionic the term culture wars nonetheless best captures what we see happening in the public sphere today The question emerges then how best to accommodate the democratic principle which posits that the majority should feel that it lives in a society of its own with the human rights principle holding that is necessary to ensure the full protection of the minority s rights How to balance these seemingly opposed principles We are very familiar with the differences that appear between secular and sacred in the modern world yet what of the similarities amongst scriptures and laws which seek to encourage mutual understanding cooperation and even cohabitation Because religion itself is a source of law a set of exhortations or commands as much as a set of rights every major religion offers an approach to encountering the Other in a positive constructive affirming way and it is here that religions reveal much that they have in common This book draws together the work of scholars engaged in exploring the possibilities for a utopian world in the sense fostered by St Thomas More The essays explore those dimensions of religious and civil law where love however that is defined by relevant texts fosters and encourages acceptance of the Other and will offer perspectives on the ways in which religious or civil state law command one to act in the spirit of love

Reconciliation, Heritage and Social Inclusion in the Middle East and North Africa Iyad Muhsen Aldajani, Martin Leiner, 2022-10-28 This book sponsored by the Academic Alliance for Reconciliation Studies in the Middle East and North Africa AARMENA focuses on peacebuilding conflict transformation and shifts toward approaching the reconciliation process as an inter trans and multidisciplinary field The research presented in the series focuses on the Middle East and North Africa highlighting contributions by practitioners and scholars alike This volume showcases research on Heritage Reconciliation and Social Inclusion in the Middle East and North Africa It reflects various inter trans and multidisciplinary approaches applied both theoretically and practically and explores conflict transformation and transitional shifts towards peacebuilding and reconciliation in the MENA Middle East and North Africa region The content is divided into five sections the first of which examines the importance of reconciliation peacebuilding and social inclusion in contributions by experts in the field such as Martin Leiner Wolfgang Dietrich Mohammad Abu Nimer Mohmmad Alshraideh and Iyad Aldajani The second and third section explore digital humanities and the research sciences respectively while the fourth turns to practices of heritage and reconciliation The fifth section presents case studies on practices conducted by expert researchers for heritage reconciliation and social inclusion in higher education

Constitutional Democracy and Islam Francesco Alicino, 2023-04-07 This book outlines the legal status of Muslims in Italy In particular it highlights that when it comes to Islam the Italian legal system exacerbates the dilemma of contemporary constitutional democracies increasingly caught between the principle of equality and the right to have rights which implies the respect of diversity It provides readers with a deep understanding of how domestic and external socio political factors may muddle the interpretation of Italy s constitutional provisions starting with those relating to state secularism and religious freedom It is argued that today as never before these provisions are torn between the principle of equality and the right to be different This situation has been exacerbated by incessant states of emergency from immigration to religion inspired terrorism in light of which the presence of Islam in the peninsula has been highly politicized Italy s experience on the legal status of Muslims provides an interesting case study and as such a valuable source of empirical information for a functioning and pluralistic constitutional democracy especially when dealing with conditions of fear and insecurity The book will be of interest to researchers academics and policy makers working in the areas of law and religion constitutional law comparative law and human rights The State as an Actor in Religion Policy Maria Grazia Martino,2014-08-28 Maria Grazia Martino and her contributing authors highlight the different solutions found by European countries with different ecclesiastical law systems different distributions of Christian denominations and different percentages of Muslim immigrants Germany Switzerland France Sweden Italy and Greece Churches and religious communities are actors from civil society The state sets the framework for their activities first and foremost by formal legal acts in ecclesiastical law Besides this field of law religion policy has increasingly developed into a policy field of its own Which incentives and steering tools used by the state cause which kind of behavior which role in society and which self understanding among churches and religious communities This edited volume answers these questions

The Legal Treatment of Muslim Minorities in Italy Andrea

Pin,2017-05-15 Islam is a growing presence practically everywhere in Europe In Italy however Islam has met a unique model of state neutrality religious freedom and church and state collaboration This book gives a detailed description of the legal treatment of Muslims in Italy contrasting it with other European states and jurisprudence and with wider global tendencies that characterize the treatment of Islam Through focusing on a series of case studies the author argues that the relationship between church and state in Italy and more broadly in Europe should be reconsidered both to secure religious freedom and general welfare Working on the concepts of religious freedom state neutrality and relationship between church and state Andrea Pin develops a theoretical framework that combines the state level with the supranational level in the form of the European Convention of Human Rights which ultimately shapes a unitary but flexible understanding of pluralism This approach should better accommodate not just Muslims needs but religious needs in general in Italy and elsewhere

La sfida del meticciato nella migrazione musulmana. Una ricerca sul territorio milanese AA. VV.,2025-04-29T15:39:00+02:00 907 62

Sudditi di Libia Gabriele Bassi,2018-02-07T00:00:00+01:00

Cosa scrissero e pensarono gli italiani a proposito dei libici al tempo delle colonie L immagine di un suddito arretrato ed incivile fu frequente funzionale a dare legittimazione al dominio coloniale e nobilitare la sua presenza civilizzatrice Ma al tempo stesso la percezione italiana dei libici si trasform nello spazio e nel tempo anche a seguito di quanto avvenne nel

frattempo nella madrepatria e nella colonia La propaganda fu sempre un prezioso strumento della politica coloniale e ogni colonialismo si accompagnò ad una grande diffusione di razzismo e di pregiudizi Ma quale relazione vi fu fra gli stereotipi e la politica coloniale Furono i primi ad indirizzare la seconda o al contrario fu il potere italiano a manipolare l'immagine stereotipata dei sudditi coloniali Questo ampio e documentato studio fornisce una risposta facendo emergere la coesistenza di entrambi i fenomeni lungo tutto il trentennio dell'Italia liberale e fascista sulla Quarta Sponda Fenomeni migratori, diritti umani e libertà religiosa Antonio Ingoglia, Mario Ferrante, 2017-09-01 Questo volume raccoglie i testi del corso Fenomeni migratori diritti umani e libertà religiosa svoltosi a Trapani nel settembre 2016 per iniziativa dell'Università di Palermo e con il supporto dell'Universidad Autónoma de Madrid e dell'Universidad de Alcalá de Henares In particolare vengono focalizzate questioni complesse concernenti il riconoscimento di diritti collettivi dei migranti riconducibili alla titolarità di un'identità religiosa e culturale anche al fine di verificare quali prospettive e possibilità si aprono oggi e nel futuro prossimo sul tema dell'integrazione sociale dei gruppi di stranieri che avendone i requisiti chiedono di stabilirsi nello spazio europeo o che vi risiedono ormai da diverso tempo Islam in the West Abe W. Ata, Jan A. Ali, 2018-08-28 The bombings in New York and Washington in 2001 and subsequent terrorist attacks in different countries of the West have led to fast changing socio cultural and political contexts where Islam has been depicted as a global threat The meaning of being a Muslim has undergone rapid transformation with the interplay of perceptions and misperceptions impacted by for instance the Iranian Revolution of 1978 9 the Lockerbie bombing in 1988 the Gulf War of 1990 1 and the clash of civilizations thesis propagated by Samuel Huntington in 1993 This book examines the way Muslims and mainstream societies in the West perceive each other by taking into account themes like cultural pluralism media religious education interfaith dialogue and so on It argues that Muslims are not defined solely by their faith but as an emerging group which is self critical reflective and focused on clearing the misconceptions associated with their identity Further it posits that Westerners who are more knowledgeable about Muslims usually express positive opinions about Islam thereby arguing that the knowledge about and attitudes towards Islam are interrelated Catecumeni provenienti dall'Islam W. Ruspi, 2001

The Top Books of the Year Chiesa E Islam In Italia Chiesa E Islam In Italia The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. Chiesa E Islam In Italia Chiesa E Islam In Italia : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
