Poor Tom Is Cold Maureen Jennings, 2010-05-11 In this third adventure featuring the lovable detective William Murdoch he becomes involved with the apparent suicide of Constable Oliver Wicken a man who was the sole support of his mother and invalid sister. But further investigation by Detective Murdoch takes him far afield and he begins to suspect that the Eakin family whose house adjoins the one where Wicken died is more involved with the case than they admit. Whether describing a tooth extraction the unquestioning prejudice toward the few Chinese immigrants in the city or the well intentioned but bizarre treatment of mentally ill women Maureen Jennings once again brings the period vividly to life.

But now Howard is dead stabbed and brutally beaten by someone he invited into his office. His watch and boots are missing. Has some poor beggar he turned down taken his vengeance? Murdoch's investigation takes him into the arcane Victorian world of queer plungers men who fake injury all the better to beg and the destitute who had nowhere left to turn when they knocked on the Reverend Howard's door.

Detecting Canada Jeannette Sloniowski, Marilyn Rose, 2014-03-25 The first serious book length study of crime writing in Canada. Detecting Canada contains thirteen essays on many of Canada's most popular crime writers including Peter Robinson Giles Blunt Gail Bowen Thomas King Michael Slade Margaret Atwood and Anthony Bidulka. Genres examined range from the well loved police procedural and the amateur sleuth to those less well known such as anti detection and contemporary noir novels. The book looks critically at the esteemed sixties television show Wojeck as well as the more recent series Da Vinci's Inquest, Da Vinci's City Hall and Intelligence and the controversial Durham County a critically acclaimed but violent television series that ran successfully in both Canada and the United States. The essays in Detecting Canada look at texts from a variety of perspectives including postcolonial studies gender and queer studies feminist studies Indigenous studies and critical race and class studies. Crime fiction enjoyed by so many around the world speaks to all of us about justice citizenship and important social issues in an uncertain world.
