Exercises in Rhetoric and English Composition George Rice Carpenter, 2016-06-16 Excerpt from Exercises in Rhetoric and English Composition Advanced Course Two years ago I published a little book under the title of Exercises in Rhetoric and English Composition with the idea of presenting in a compact form 1 such theoretical matter as it seemed to me necessary for the young student of Rhetoric to have thoroughly in mind and 2 material for practice of all sorts in applying the principles laid down in the text That book which was somewhat too elementary for college use I have now enlarged and made more advanced in character until it represents to my mind a body of instruction in Rhetoric suitable for the first semester or the first two terms of the Freshman year If any other teacher should chance to make use of my work he will perhaps be helped by noticing several peculiarities which it shows First I have said very little about style What a Freshman needs most of all is to write correctly clearly and with some vigor Attempts to lay stress on individuality of style or on the element of beauty in the pupil's writing should I think be deferred until later in the course Second I have treated Rhetoric as an art not as a science The other point of view is natural and reasonable but it seems to me appropriate only for more advanced students than those for whom I intend this book About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works      Exercises in Rhetoric and English Composition. Dept. of English, 1918      Catalogue New York University, 1903      Writing Instruction in Nineteenth-Century American Colleges James A. Berlin, 1984-04-30 Defining a rhetoric as a social invention arising out of a particular time place and set of circumstances Berlin notes that no rhetoric not Plato's or Aristotle's or Quintilian's or Perelman's is permanent At any given time several rhetorics vie for supremacy with each attracting adherents representing various views of reality expressed through a rhetoric Traditionally rhetoric has been seen as based on four interacting elements reality writer or speaker audience and language As the definitions of the elements change or as the interactions between elements change rhetoric changes In this interpretive study Berlin classifies the three nineteenth century rhetorics as classical psychological epistemological and romantic a uniquely American development growing out of the transcendental movement In each case studying the rhetoric provides insights into society and the beliefs of the people what is appearance and what is reality      The Publishers Weekly, 1902      Studies by Members of the Department of English University of Wisconsin.
